IN MEMORY OF . . .

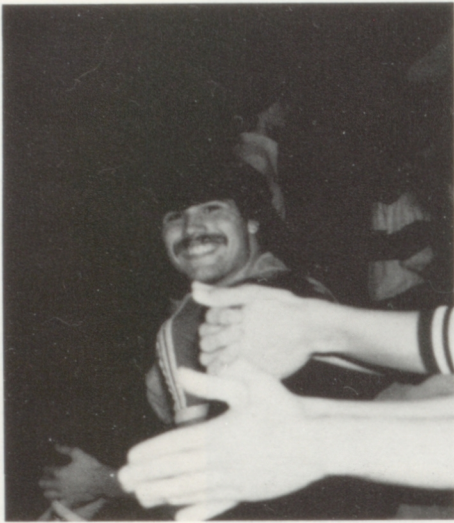

KENNETH ALLEN BROOKS
3-30-65 to 7-7-84

Remembered joys are never past; They were, they are, they yet shall be.

Candid

That face, That face, That cover girl face.

If you only knew what these boys were thinking.

The Proud Father.

Did somebody mention money?

Kiss Me, I'm yours.

MHS Goes to . . .

The students and faculty of MHS attended the Arkansas State Fair at Little Rock, on October 5, 1984. Everyone seemed to be having fun, in spite of all the rain. There were all sorts of rides and attractions including the rodeo and the musical appearance by country singer Ed Bruce. Here are a few pictures that were taken to remind us of all the fun we had.

Page 40: 1) An eagle's eye view from the top of the Ferris Wheel.

- 2) Who is Kathy smiling at now?
- 3) Michele, wave to your brain!
- 4) Whom is Mrs. Boyd about to hit?
- 5) Mrs. Boyd says, "I'll be glad when we get there."

Special Honors

Abbie Johnson, the 1984 Westark Horseshow Association Queen with her eleven-year-old Quarter Horse gelding, Fancy Dude Cody. She had the highest number of points from the eleven shows in the Queens class. She was judged on her appearance and horsemanship, and her horse was also judged.

Sherri Huagh, the first runner up in the South Logan County Fair Queen Contest with her escort, Daniel Johnson. The contestants sold tickets to the Chick-a Chuck supper. The proceeds went to the South Logan County Fair Association. On Sept. 6, the contestant who raised the most money was crowned queen.

Take me I'm yours!

together over the same experiences. This year was special because it was a time that will never be again. Never again will 33 Seniors, teachers and events be blended together exactly the same.

ALMOST THERE

There are many different views to being a junior maybe, right now it is nothing more than being in another grade level. When the years have passed our junior year will hold a special meaning. After all, having to set an example for the sophomores and answering to the seniors isn't as bad as being a "rookie" or having to face the big, wide world on our own. There have been some good times for us to look back on.

Memories are always good to remember. The anticipation for our class rings to arrive, being looked up to by freshmen and sophomores, and having pride to stand up for ourselves and knowing we can. We have worked long and hard to get where we are. It's a tough struggle to the top, but we are making our way there. We will continue to reach our goals because we are the Junior Class of 1985.

WHY ME, LORD

Years have come, years have gone;
Yet MHS teachers are still #1.
With the homework and the tests,
They never give us time to rest.

When we asked what the teachers think,
They gave us a reply without a blink.

Mr. Jenkins thinks the students are the best in the nation;
Mrs. Gilley likes the people and cooperation of administration.

What it all boils down to
is the respect they all earn;
because what would we do without teachers to help us learn.

This space was reserved to recognize the activities of our bus drivers, cooks, and custodians. Who else but our bus drivers would drive through rain, sleet, snow and not to mention mud, to get devoted students to school.

Under the guidance of Winston, our team of gourmet cooks slave in the kitchen all morning to prepare lunch for starving children and faculty.

Fighting clutter and grime for hours every day are the distinguished custodians in search of a cure for sloppy students.

The yearbook staff would like to extend a special thanks to each of these people.

Winning

We all understand winning. We've built a great nation around the individual will to win. At work or play, we all compete. We want to win.

Whirlpool Corporation is no different. We compete to win. But a company's will to win is no stronger than the collective spirit of individuals...the results produced no better than combined individual effort. Our will must be strong enough...our results good enough...to compete with the best.

We will continue to make and sell appliances second to none in quality and value. Because we want to win. And because winners get to keep competing...and losers don't.

Senior Patron

For the first time this year, we are offering the Senior Patron page. Senior patron provides a special way parents may congratulate their senior.

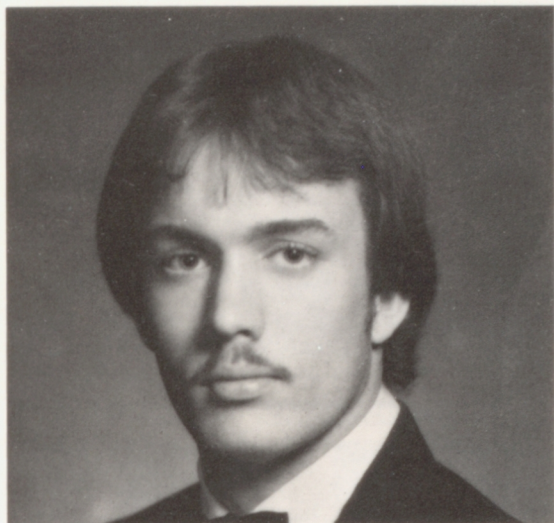

Congratulations Debbie!
We love you.
Donald, Joyce, and Katrina

Congratulations Glynn!
We are very proud of you and wish you all the best in the future.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Carl

Congratulations
Bart!

God gave you a good heart,
A very special smile,
But best of all he gave you to me.

Love You,
Mom

Congratulations
John Paul!

We love you and we are very proud of you.

Mom and Dad

Congratulations
Willie!

We love you.

Mom, Dad, and Sis

Senior Wit

1. Debbie — A bachelor can only chase a girl until she catches him.
2. Stephen — Women have only two faults everything they do and say.
3. Jimmy — When all else fails, read the instructions.

1. Glynn — Give me a home where the buffalo roam, and you'll have a room full of buffalo chips.
5. Darren — GOOD NEWS!

6. Dale — An honest answer can get you in a lot of trouble.
John G. — Even if you understood women, you'd never believe it.
7. Jerry — What this world needs is more geniuses with humility — there are so few of us.
8. Kathy — When in trouble or in doubt, run in circles, scream and shout.
9. Renia — Get down with your own bad self.
10. Judy — Nothing is quite so annoying as to have someone go right on talking when I'm interrupting.
11. Steve — Common sense is the least common of all senses.
Tommy — D-Hall material!
12. Todd — You don't have to fool all the people all the time, just the right people part of the time.
13. Regan — Keep your eye on the ball, your shoulder to the wheel, and your ear to the ground. Now, try and work in that position.
14. John M. — God's gift to women.
15. Hank — All conversations with a potato should be conducted in private.

16. James — I'd be a pessimist, but it wouldn't work any way.
Dan — When in doubt, mumble.
Mitch — The only wrong thing about doing nothing is you never know when you're finished!
Joe — Pick 'at nose!
17. Shelia — He who finds fault in his friends, has faulty friends.
Michele — Never let your sense of morals get in the way of doing the right thing.
18. Wayne — If it were not for the weather and sex, 98% of the people wouldn't have anything to talk about.
19. Charlotte — If everything seems to be coming your way, you're probably in the wrong lane.
20. Larry — Old Fords never die, they just look like it.
21. Sherri — Money no longer talks — it just goes without saying.
22. Bart — Almost everything in life is easier to get into, than out of.
23. Paulette — Time is nature's way of keeping everything from happening at once.

24. Kevin — Smile! people will wonder what you are up to.
25. Christy — Talk softly and carry a big stick!
