Being a junior in high school is a special time: class rings, prom, etc... This year's group brings its own uniqueness. They introduced skits to our pep rallies, played major roles in pushing our girls' basketball program to new heights, and led our senior boys cross-country team to its first ever district championship. More than these things, it is the camaraderie felt by members of the class. What a group. And just think, they are all back next year!

Seventh graders have more responsibilities and it's sometimes hard to make the adjustment from being the big dogs in sixth grade to feeling like kindergartners again, but, this year's seventh graders have conquered these changes with no problem. With Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Ryan as their sponsors, the seventh grade even won the last football pep rally, much to the surprise of the other classes. They prepared for that pep rally for at least a month and it paid off.

You've grown into a beautiful young lady and brought so much joy into our lives. As we celebrate your many accomplishments, we are also looking forward to your

WHEN YOU WERE BORN, WE KNEW YOU WERE A GEM SENT FROM GOD. AS WE WATCHED YOU GROW, WE SAW THE LIGHT IN YOUR SOUL. YOU TURNED INTO A TEENAGER, AND I WAS ALWAYS TELLING YOU TO GET OUT OF THE MIRROR AND DO YOUR HOMEWORK. WHEN I TOOK THEM ALL DOWN, YOU WERE FORCED TO. YOU'RE GRADUATING NOW AND WE KNOW THAT, HOWEVER LIFE'S EVENTS SHAPE YOU, TO US YOU WILL ALWAYS BE THE BRIGHTEST DIAMOND OF ALL.

LOVE, MOM, DAD, AND DANIEL

Cody,

I've watched you grow into such a wonderful young man and I'm so incredibly proud of you. You are the biggest joy in my life and I thank God every day for blessing me with you. Together Joel and I would like to wish you much success in all of your future endeavors. Focus on the future, go forward with great confidence, and enjoy life. We love you very much.

Mom and Joel

I have learned this at least by my experiment: that if one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours.

Henry David Thoreau

Justin, Wow!

What a good looking, sweet, smart man you've turned out to be. We are so proud of you! God truly blessed us when He gave us you. We love you so much! Love, Mom & Dad

Good-Bye

As the years come and go, so do friends who cross our paths. In this school year, Magazine Public Schools said good-bye to some friends who faithfully served for many years.

Two retirements were announced and celebrated at the end of the year. Mr. Steve Haller retired from the agri department after twenty-five years of service. Mrs. Louise Jenkins also retired after serving for twenty-five years, mostly in the elementary school, but also as a high school art instructor. Both Mr. Haller and Mrs. Jenkins will be missed by students, former students, and fellow faculty members.

Earlier in the year, the entire community mourned the death of Mrs. Pat Jenkins. Mrs. Jenkins had not been able to teach for the year prior to her death due to her struggle with cancer, but she will long be remembered as a very caring teacher who especially enjoyed teaching children to read. Mrs. Pat's life will continue to be celebrated by those who learned from her and taught alongside her.
