Magazine... Where Everyone Knows Your Name

What do you think of when you think of Magazine? Magazine is one of those small towns where everyone knows your name, and everyone calls you friend.

Can you imagine living in a city or going to a school where you didn't recognize most of the faces or know most of the names? Sometimes you may think that everyone knowing everyone is a bad thing, but, most of the time, it just makes our community and our school seem more like a family.

Everyone who has ever set foot into Magazine Schools has special memories. None of us seniors will ever forget our first day of school at Magazine or the day we have to say goodbye to these hallowed halls we have walked through so many times as we made the many memories that we will carry with us for the rest of our lives.

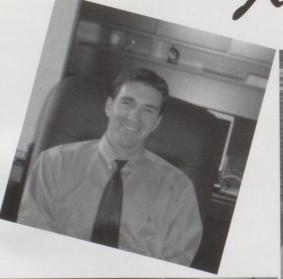

We should all be proud to call Magazine our home. No matter how many miles away we are from here, the memories will keep Magazine a part of us forever, and Magazine, and all those people who know our names, will always be here for us to come home to.

Tyler Catlett shows excellent form on this long jumper.

Coach Whittington calls a timeout to motivate his players.

How did you think your season went, even with a new coach?

It was all right, but we could have been better if everyone would have stuck to it.

Seth Holt

Coach W. tried his best. I think our team just had a rough time adjusting to the change. Justin Collins

I think my teammates say it better than what I could.

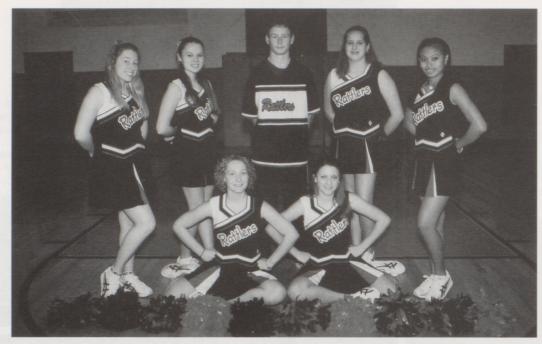

We did the best we could. Some people quit, but we still had fun.

The cheerleaders pass out gifts to the senior football players before their last home game.

I really enjoyed this year. We had a lot of fun cheering together.

Lacie Hamilton

I think it went well because she has a lot of experience with cheerleading.

Noime Tritt

It was really good, and we had a lot of fun.

It went well, and I'm looking forward to next year.

Coach McAnally talks things over with his team. Jason Bonner holds on for the tackle.

How do you think your season went?

It was all right, but we should have played better as a team.

Michael Mena

We could have been better. If we work harder, we can do better next year. Brad Terry

We could have done better.

We had a lot of talent, but we just couldn't seem to bring it all together.

What a special gift from God you were. Every day has been such a joy to watch you grow from a silly little girl into a beautiful young woman. We are so very proud of you and hope that all your dreams

Michelle,

Congratulations, We are very proud of you. Your smile has always brought joy to our lives.

Love you, Mom, Sissy & Dad

April,

Young woman, my daughter, my joy in my heart, you've reached the end only to find a new start.

The world sees the young woman with her charm and smile, but behind the woman I will always see the child.

Love, Mom

Hope... We love you,

We are so proud of you.

We love you,

Our Dearest Seth,

Of all the blessings that God has sent our way, you are one of the best. You have always been thefamily peacemaker, and as the second child that is a role that was your calling in life. We have had one of the worst experiences that any family could endure, and you have been our rock for surviving. Now you have been appointed a new role. You have been given the responsiblity of being the oldest one in the family. We are so proud of the way you have stepped forward to take on this new challenge. Your family wants to wish you the best that life has to offer, and we want to wish you great happiness as you begin a new road down the path of life. May Sod's blessings always be with you.

Kaleb,

I can't believe that you're graduating high school. I'm so very proud of you. All of your life you have done well at anything you have ever wanted to do. I know as you make this big step into life, as an adult, it will be the same. I'm confident that you will succeed at anthing you decide to do, because you let God make your decisions for you. And I'm so very proud of that. I'm proud of YOU! I love you bunches!

Kaleb,

There is much to say, a lot of which you don't want said in your yearbook. I love you much, pray for you always (don't forget), and wish all blessings on you. May the lessons you've learned thus far make the lessons to come much easier to learn. Pray your prayers!

P.S. Keep your hair cut!

"For My Teenager" Words I Want You to Remember

I have so many wishes for you, and I want them all to come true • I want you to use your heart as a compass as you grow and find your way in the world, but I want you to always have an appreciation for the direction of home • I want you to be self-reliant, selfmotivated, and self-sufficient, but to know that you will never be alone • I want you to be safe and smart and cautious • I want you to be wise beyond your years . I don't want you to grow up too fast . I want you to come to me with your fears • I pray that you won't rush the future, and that you'll slowly build on the steppingstones of the past . You have a strong foundation of family and friends and joy that will always last .

I love you beyond all words • And I promise that I will love you beyond all time • So many treasures await you in your journey of life...and being blessed with you...has been mine•

Charlie,

We are so proud of you and what a remarkable young man you have become.

We love you, Dad, Mom, Zachary, and Whitney

Amber,

This time has come much too soon. But you have grown into fine young woman. I'm very proud of you as always.

Love ya, Dad

Amber,

No words can express how proud I am of my baby girl. You've grown up to be a beautiful, loving, and smart young lady.
