

The board reserves the right of exclusive access to the professional services of licensed employees in accordance with the terms of the contract.

Recognizing that circumstances may dictate some variations from this policy, the board reserves the right to make exceptions.

Parents who feel their children need tutoring may discuss the situation with the grade level principal, counselor or the teacher. Tutoring assignments may be accepted by the teacher involved when recommended by the principal and superintendent and approved by the board prior to the beginning of any such instruction.
