School Board Recognition Month–May 2023

Thank you for your service! In partnership with the school community, parents, and citizens, school board members make a difference for students and help ensure they have the building blocks needed for future success. This May, we salute you!

Purchase a Yearbook

Click HERE to obtain an order form for ordering a yearbook. Cost is $35 for regular or $38 with a name on the yearbook. Deadline to order is May 24, 2023.

National Child Identification Program Information Letter

Please click on the link to learn more about the National Child Education Program. Identification kits will be sent home to students next week.

Lifeguards Needed:

The Jim Wood Aquatic Center needs applicants for the positions of lifeguard and bathhouse worker. Lifeguards start at $8.50 an hour, bathhouse workers begin at $6.35 an hour. We are looking for full and part-time workers. Lifeguards need to be certified before they can be hired. The Crew Center in Woodbine can do certification classes. Applications may be picked up at City Hall. If we can't get enough guards, we won't be able to open the pool, or we will have reduced hours and possibly no swim lessons.

Housing Needed:

Logan Magnolia has a teacher who is in need of a 3 bedroom house to rent for next school year. If you know of anything available please contact the high school office at 712.644.2250.
