

EDUCATION AIDE

The Board of Education recognizes that class size and its respective characteristics of those students along with age will create a variance of needs.

The needs of a class, as a whole, will be carefully considered by the administration and the assistance of a paraprofessional will be recommended by the building principal and/or Superintendent.

The following concerns will be addressed before making a decision:

- curriculum needs of the students
- number of students requiring special services
- social/emotional needs of students
- academic level of students
- maturity level of students
- age of students

Education aides who hold a teaching certificate shall be compensated at the rate of pay established for their position as an education aide. It shall be the responsibility of the principal to supervise education aides.
