Hartford is made up of 17 neighborhoods.

DOWNTOWN is the central business district. It’s home to many historical sites, landmarks, entertainment, and restaurants.

BLUE HILLS borders Keney Park and is a suburban neighborhood. Much of the University of Hartford campus is located in the Blue Hills neighborhood.

NORTH EAST borders Keney Park and has a variety of housing choices. Keney Park includes a golf course, tennis courts, a swimming pool and playgrounds.

UPPER ALBANY is an historic district that is quickly becoming home to shopping, arts centers, and more thanks to investments from community groups and businesses.

ASYLUM HILL was once home to notable figures such as Mark Twain and Harriet Beecher Stowe. Their homes are now open to the public for tours. Asylum Hill is within walking distance of Downtown.

WEST END is an historic district with larger, Victorian homes. It borders Elizabeth Park.

FROG HOLLOW is located near the State Capitol and several large employers including The Hartford and Aetna.

PARKVILLE has a mix of art, restaurants, and housing. Visit Parkville Market for a taste of the many different cultures that make up the city.

BEHIND THE ROCKS is named after the former Rocky Hill Quarry. The quarry is now a park with a playground and sports fields.

SOUTH WEST borders the town of Newington and is known as a quiet, suburban area.

SOUTH END is a large residential area. Goodwin Park is located in South End and offers a golf course, community pool, and playground.

BARRY SQUARE is near Trinity College, Hartford Hospital, and the Institute for the Living. It’s Hartford’s original Irish neighborhood.

NORTH MEADOWS is home to Riverside Park, which offers live music, food trucks, boat launches, and more. The area is mostly industrial and commercial.

CLAY ARSENAL located just north of Downtown, Clay Arsenal is an older neighborhood with many rental properties.

DOWNTOWN is the central business district. It’s home to many historical sites, landmarks, entertainment, and restaurants.

SHELDON CHARTER OAK is located along the Connecticut River and is home to the restored Colt Armory, which is now a commercial and apartment building.

SOUTH GREEN is home to Congress Street, which is on the National Register of Historical Places. The founders of Pratt & Whitney lived on Congress Street.

SOUTH MEADOWS is mainly an industrial area. The Hartford Regional Market and Brainard Airport are located here.
Bradley International Airport (BDL) is about halfway between Hartford and Springfield, Massachusetts. Convenient parking, plentiful charging stations, free Wi-Fi, good restaurant options, and a relaxed atmosphere.

Tweed-New Haven Airport saves time by flying to thirteen destinations! Skip the drive and avoid the hassle and stress of flying out of larger, congested airports.

CTfastrak is Connecticut's first Bus Rapid Transit system. A stress-free ride equipped with WiFi, riders can take advantage of their travel, using their time to do something more productive than driving, or to just relax. Even travelers located many miles away from the CTfastrak corridor are able to use express transit routes that travel on the dedicated CTfastrak guideway to swiftly transport them to their destination.

Local bus routes make frequent stops, typically every 2 to 3 blocks, linking neighborhoods with urban centers and providing connections within and between communities. Although individual trips on some local buses operated in a limited- or skip-stop fashion, local bus routes primarily serve city streets and may also operate into malls, hospitals or shopping centers.
Hartford is home to a wide variety of restaurants, markets, and cafes to fit every taste. The diversity of the city is reflected in the cuisine.

PARKVILLE MARKET

1400 PARK STREET

Parkville Market is the first food hall in Connecticut. Located in the former Lumber Co. building in the Parkville neighborhood. Home to 19 food stalls, each offers authentic, international cuisine.

Restaurants include Mofongo, J’s Crab Shack, Jamaican Jerk Shack, Que Chivo, and Twisted Italian Cafe.

HARTFORD REGIONAL MARKET

101 RESERVE ROAD

The Hartford Regional Farmers’ Market provides a space for farmers and wholesalers to sell and distribute food and products. There are 144 stalls and 230,000 square feet of warehouse space.

Open Saturdays and Sundays from 6 am - 9 am.

PIZZA

Connecticut is famous for its New Haven-style pizza, which has a thin, crispy crust and is cooked in a high-heat oven. White Clam Pizza is one of the most popular varieties of New Haven Style pizzas. There are several spots in the city of New Haven that are nationally acclaimed for their pizza including Frank Pepe, Modern and Sally’s, but you don’t have to make the 45 minute drive to the Elm City to sample a slice. There is a Frank Pepe location in West Hartford. Other local favorites include Angelina’s Pizza, Bro’s Dough Pizzeria, Nevin’s Pizza Bar, & George’s Pizza House.
