

Millersburg Area School District Profile of a Graduate

- Students will set both short and long-term goals.
- Students will utilize time and manage workload within realistic parameters.
- Students will monitor, define, prioritize, and complete tasks independently.
- Students will go beyond basic mastery of skills to expand learning and opportunities.
- Students will demonstrate commitment to learning as a lifelong process.

- Students will articulate thoughts and ideas using oral, written, and non-verbal communication skills in a variety of forms.
- Students will actively listen to develop deeper understanding.
- Students will communicate effectively in diverse environments.
- Students will responsibly utilize technology and multiple media platforms, and understand their impacts.

- Students will demonstrate the ability to work effectively and respectfully with diverse groups/individuals.
- Students will exercise flexibility in making healthy compromises to accomplish a common goal.
- Students will assume shared responsibility for collaborative work, and value the individual contributions made by each team member.
- Students will demonstrate the ability to support the consensus of a team decision.

- Students will collect and analyze relevant information and validate its source.
- Students will think outside the box and demonstrate perseverance.
- Students will reason effectively in both the short and long term.
- Students will make sound judgments and decisions – considering the larger community.
- Students will identify, define, and solve problems and resolve conflicts.

- Students will demonstrate originality and inventiveness.
- Students will analyze, evaluate, refine, and elaborate ideas in order to maximize creative efforts.
- Students will recognize existing limits and develop alternatives to overcome those limits.
- Students will act on creative ideas to make impactful and useful contributions.
- Students will view failure as an opportunity to learn.
- Students will understand that creativity and innovation are long-term, cyclical processes of small successes and frequent mistakes.

- Students will act responsibly, demonstrating accountability and ownership of actions and decisions with the interests of the larger community in mind.
- Students will model personal integrity, honesty, and ethical behavior.
- Students will be aware of personal health and choose healthy lifestyles.

Empowering 21st Century learners, one student at a time