Board of Education-Regular Meeting Summary- May 16, 2019

5:00 p.m.-Shoemaker Education Center

Members Present: Clodfelter, Neuwirth, Edwards, Bradley, Jester
Members Absent: King

- Steve Dyer recognized Carriage Hills Elementary fourth grader Nora Diallo's recent win as the LPS 2019 Future Chef winner. The competition teaches healthy food and preparation. Both thanked teachers, parents and local community members.

-Executive director of secondary education Kelly Trinidad, along with high school principals Dr. Regina DeLoach, Mr. Tony Jones and Mrs. Laura Puccino, presented special awards and recognition to National Merit and National Hispanic Scholars, Oklahoma Academic Scholars and Outstanding Performance on ACT (30+).

-Architect Cory Miller, of the Architects in Partnership firm, presented an update on the miscellaneous projects going on around the district. Mike Cheney, of Crossland Construction Company, provided the board with an update on the Eisenhower Middle School project. Josh Jacox, of Crossland Construction Company, provided the board with an update on the safe room construction projects.

-As an informational item, updated reports from Business Operations and Educational Services were provided to the board, sharing both recent and pending activities in their departments to ensure board members stay informed about the district functions and initiatives.

- Assistant Superintendent of Business Services Barbara Ellis presented the End-of-Year Big Rocks report started in Sept 4, 2018. She also shared the Big Rocks report booklet. District executive directors Brenda Hatch, Kelly Trinidad, Mark Mattingly, Lynn Cordes and Chief Financial Officer Elizabeth Brown-Hill reported on all of their department's Big Rocks.

-The consent agenda was approved.

-Upon returning from executive session, the board approved the personnel report and following selection: Shala Cortez-Orndorff, Payroll Coordinator and Steven Eichman, Assistant Superintendent.

There was no action on the selection of Elementary Assistant Director of Teaching and Learning, Middle School Assistant Director of Teaching and Learning, and High School Assistant Director of Teaching and Learning.

The board accepted the resignation of Superintendent Dr. Tom Deighan effective June 30, 2019.

Board President Carla Clodfelter made an appointment of a Board committee consisting of Kent Jester and Patty Neuwirth to consider and make recommendations to the Board regarding an Interim Superintendent.

New Business: Carriage Hills easement passed with a motion by Patty Neuwirth and a second by Kent Jester.
