The Clarence Johnson & Eunice Iwen estate established a foundation in 2005. This fund benefits youth and community projects as well as activities in the Arthur, ND area.

The foundation is managed locally by a group of volunteers whose main activities are building the fund and recommending grants annually.

FALL 2016 GRANTS:

- Northern Cass School - $50,000 toward bond payment on school gymnasium
- Clarence Johnson and Eunice Iwen named Scholarship Fund - $2,864
- Northern Cass Dollars for Scholars - $5,000 for local scholarships
- Community of Care - $4,000 toward one stop service center community nurse program
- JDA - $3,000 Arthur Mall entrance project
- JDA - $49,000 toward debt payment on the Arthur Mall
- City of Arthur - $8,540 ADA Bathrooms
- City of Arthur Beautification - $3,300 Christmas decorations

SPRING 2016 GRANTS:

- Good Samaritan - $3,000 for the home day program
- City of Arthur - $650 for flowers on Main Street
- City of Arthur - $650 for new flags for Main Street
- Arthur Fire Department - $15,000 for payment on new fire truck
- Northern Cass School - $4,000 for a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) Camp
- Northern Cass Dollars for Scholars - $5,000 for local scholarships
- Clarence Johnson and Eunice Iwen named Scholarship Fund - $5,009
- JDA - $41,700 toward debt payment on the Arthur Mall
- Northern Cass School - $50,000 toward bond payment on School Gymnasium

The impact of the foundation on the communities and school district has been profound. Their generous donations have allowed more opportunities for students while also enriching the communities in our district.