

I think every one should like
alligators because they can beat
a lion. Can eat meat. Swim and walk. They are reptiles. They stay under water then attack without warning like a ninja.

They are cold blooded and need heat. Never eat plants. and that is why I think every one should like alligators
