

Cash in School Building

No money is to be left overnight in any school building by any employee.

When cash is collected by any employee, it will be receipted and turned in to the designated custodian of the fund for which the collection was made. Any General Fund money collected will be turned in to the District Treasurer for depositing. Each and every transfer of money will be receipted.

This information should be freely disseminated.