

The FFA Mission: To make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education.

FFA students participate in activities all year long through State and National Conventions, FFA Camp, Local Hog Shows and many more.

Students follow a pathway of studies that might include: Ag Science, Nursery Management, Forestry and Wildlife Management.

Future Farmers of America

Learning to Do Doing to Learn Earning to Live Living to Serve