

Metro Schools
One-to-One Laptop Program
Computer Liability Release

Because we value the use of technology in education, Metro Schools provide a One-to-One Laptop program. Metro students will be assigned either an iPad or a MacBook Air. The annual student fee covers the cost of the computer's operation for the year, including manufacturer's warranty, software/hardware upgrades, and necessary maintenance. It does NOT cover damage or loss.

By accepting the liability agreement, you agree to assume full liability, including financial responsibility, for the device, accessories and software assigned to your student as a part of Metro's One-to-One Laptop Program. This agreement does not permit the use/loan of the school device to others. The device remains the property of Metro Schools and is to be returned at the end of the school year. Failure to do so will result in an invoice for the full amount of its replacement.

Liability Agreement

I agree to assume the responsibility and liability for any inappropriate or illegal acts by my student using this equipment. These inappropriate uses include, but are not limited to, software licensing violations, software piracy, and inappropriate or illegal activities carried out in part or whole using email, online chat, online forums, or the Internet. Metro does not bear any responsibility or liability for inappropriate or illegal use of this computer. I further agree that my student has no right of privacy in the use of this computer, and that I will assure its immediate return upon request.

I agree that I am responsible for the full cost of replacing the device, any of its accessories, or any of its software in the event of loss or theft, and that I am responsible for costs associated with repair of damage, whether from accident, negligence, or any other cause including unreasonable wear and tear. Replacement costs: iPad - $375 including case, MacBook Air - $1000. *

 Note: Replacement costs may be covered under your Homeowner's or Renter's insurance. Additional insurance coverage is available for purchase from a third party vendor at <https://my.worthavegroup.com/metroschool>. Metro provides this information as a service to you and not as an endorsement of the company, their products, or services. Should you opt to purchase insurance, the agreement is between you and Worth Avenue; Metro cannot act as an intermediary.
