Dear Parents and Guardians,

As we embark on Catholic Schools Week, a well-developed community life is widely regarded as the distinguishing feature of Catholic schools. Catholic schools are communities of faith, where students are openly taught about God, where God is worshiped regularly, and where students and staff put their faith into practice on a daily basis. Secondly, Catholic schools exist to pass on knowledge-not just the practical knowledge of academic classes, but also the knowledge of God and truth, which is our spiritual heritage as Catholics. Finally, we know Catholic schools are communities of service, places where helping one another and service to others are the normal way of living life. Here is an outline of some of the highlights next week to celebrate #CSW23.

If you have young kids or teens who would like to participate in these ministries, consider volunteering to make it happen!
