Principal Newsletter

Dear Parents and Guardians,

For those of you who had students at LCC last year, you may remember that one of our own received the most prestigious teaching award given by the Diocese of Toledo, the Golden Apple. Eric Kuhlman, social studies and gym teacher, was nominated and selected to be one of two recipients at the high school level. Traveling to Toledo and seeing Bishop Thomas award this to one of the many deserving teachers made my heart so happy knowing just how much our teachers do for our students. It is that time of year again, to make another plea to nominate another deserving teacher. Here is a little about the award:

The award is given to seven (7) preschool and/or elementary school teachers and two (2) secondary teachers each year. Elementary and high schools may only have one winner per school per year. K-12 schools may have one elementary, and one high school winner. The award consists of a cash award of $5,000 and a Golden Apple with 24 carat gold cross.

Specific information on the awards can be found at this link:

All nominations are due to me by Wednesday, February 28, 2023. Thank you for considering nominating a deserving teacher at LCC.

Blessings,

Ms. Williams
