Principal Newsletter

Dear Parents and Guardians,

As we celebrate women during the month of March, it is with great enthusiasm that Lima Central Catholic School announces that it has entered into a partnership agreement with BSN SPORTS, entitled Women of Will (WoW). The uniform and apparel agreement outfitting athletes and coaches in Under Armour gear will debut Spring 2023, unlocking partnership benefits for the organization as members of the exclusive Women of Will Program, the first high school sponsorship program designed distinctly for women's athletic programs. Partnership benefits for the Thunderbirds Athletic Program include custom Women of Will branding and apparel packages, fanwear platforms, athlete leadership opportunities, social media exposure, Women of Will awards and branding designs through BSN SPORTS over the next 3 years.

"We are thrilled for the opportunity to partner with Lima Central Catholic School, who continue to establish their presence as a driving force in celebrating female athletes and supporting women's sports," said WoW National Account Manager Tisha Hill. "The Women of Will program was created in partnership with Under Armour to recognize the determination and ambition that female athletes bring to the playing field every day as they set new standards and blaze paths for women's athletics programs. By leveraging our scale and unmatched partnerships with a global brand like Under Armour, we have an opportunity to enhance the experience of the Lima Central Catholic School Thunderbirds athletes, coaches, and supporters through our extensive product selection, innovative team shop platforms, and dedicated service teams."

"At LCC we strive to lead and challenge the status quo of our area. Partnering with Women of Will sets us apart in our community, aligns perfectly to our core values as an institution, and shows that we are intentional about standing with our students and their development as human beings. For LCC, it's not just another program, it is who we are", said AD Mike Rumschlag.

One of our two awesome female Varsity coaches, Julia Miller was nominated to be featured in the Women of Will who inspire other female athletes by striving to be a positive role model for their student athletes. WOW is just one of the many examples of signature programs we are pleased to offer our Thunderbirds!

Blessings,
Ms. Williams

School Choice Matters

School Choice is in the spotlight in Ohio and across the country. It is more important than ever for people to hear why school choice matters. If you have a parent or a student that would be willing to share their story that would be great. When parents and children share their story, it can be a powerful tool in helping others understand the impact educational choice has already made in the lives of Ohio students. Responses will be used to illustrate the impact that School Choice makes for students and families as the Ohio legislature debates the issue of school choice in our state.

Will you forward to your families so they can share their school choice story?
