Commerce Cheerleaders

Commerce High School Cheerleaders took second place in the state cheerleading trials on October 2 at Choctaw, Ok. Congratulations to our squad for making a great showing at State.

FCA news by Tony Blazer, reporter

The student organization, FCA (Fellowship of Christian Athletes), has started off with a good year. We had our yearly See-You-At-The-Pole on September 15, with roughly 35 people attending. We read scriptures, prayed for our school and nation and had a time of worship. Joey Grieshaber, youth minister of Commerce First Baptist gave a challenging message. A special thank you to all the churches that helped out.

Ms. Bliesath is our awesome sponsor this year and the officers are as follows:

President, Manuel Aguilar; Vice-President, Tim Osborn; Secretary, Jessica Bauer;

Treasurer, Amber Jones; and Reporter, Tony Blazer. The FCA currently has about 40 members.

Pride of Commerce Marching Band

news by Josh Fanning

On October 2, 2004 the band entered the heat of the battle at the Pittsburg State University homecoming parade. Under the scourging eyes of the judges, the Pride of Commerce came out on top with a superior rating. On October 9, the band marched their way into first place in NEO's homecoming parade. Good job CHS band.

4-H Meeting

Commerce 4-H Club had will have a meeting on November 14, at 2:00 at the High School. They will have Debbie Gaines from the OSU Extension Office. She will be teaching them how to make Hydro powered rockets. Students need to bring an empty two liter pop bottle in order to make their rockets. The NEO Rodeo team will be working with 4-H members on November 18 at the NEO Areana.

TSA

TSA will be attending a mini conference on December 7th at Jay. They will compete in about 10 different areas. Students are currently doing research and preparing for this competition.

High School Academic Team

Congratulations to the Commerce High School Academic Team. They won their District competition and will be going to the regional tournament this Saturday at Adair. If they place in the top four teams, they will be going to State.
