

CHS

Volume 2, Issue 2 October 2004

Commerce Cheerleaders

The Commerce Cheerleading Squad has done very well in competitions for several years. They received second place in the State Cheerleading competition.

They won the district competition in order to qualify for the state competition.

Commerce High School Football

The High School team is having another great year of football. We have a winning season that will lead us into district playoffs in November. Friday night we will play Fairland at Fairland.

OCTOBER CALENDAR

Football	Friday Nights
FCCLA	Tulsa State Fair Blue & Gold Sausage Sales
4-H	Horse Club
S.A.D.D.	Red Ribbon Week
STUCO	Fall Conference State Conference
Science Club	Zoo and Aquarium

Seniors Order Announcements

Seniors will order their graduation announcements on October 20. They must have an $80 deposit.

Seniors will take pictures on Thursday, October 14. They will need $15.00 for this.

TSA

Commerce is honored by having two of our students hold State TSA offices. Trent Kisse is the President and Jessica Bauer is the Reporter. The group will go to the fall conference on October 28th.

4-H Meeting

Commerce 4-H Club had its October meeting at the home of Jeremy and Aimee Meyers. Members voted on club officers and discussed items they will need for future competitions. They also held a pumpkin decorating contest as part of the events. They will be working on hydro powered rockets at their November meeting.

English III

Miss Bliesath will take the English III class to a play at the NEO Fine Arts Building on Friday October 15. The students will leave at 8:30 and return by 12:00. Students will be seeing the Play "A Street Car Named Desire" by Tennessee Williams.

FCCLA is awarded $1,000

The Commerce FCCLA group was awarded a $1,000 cash prize from the American Red Cross for their work in the Blood Drive. They were 2nd in the state on Blood Drives.

They are also selling Blue and Gold Sausage at this time. People may order sausage or chicken to be delivered this fall and again in the spring. Sixty-one members went to Tulsa State fair last Thursday.