A Letter to the Seniors

Seniors 2005:

As a student at Commerce, I would like to thank the Seniors for all the fun and excitement you have given to this school over the last four years. You guys are great people to hang out with. There are always moments of laughter when there's a Senior around.

The school year is coming to a close. We all remember how the first day of school is dreaded and how we are so ready to be done. For you, this is your last go-around. You won't get the chance of having to go through another year of immature high school drama. So I would like to encourage you, though the end is near and time is running out, to take the time to enjoy the friends that are around you. This could be your last time to see some of them. You are about to begin another section of your life. You may choose college or you may not, but either way your life is about to change. Whatever you choose to do, I hope you will always choose to remember all the great times you have had at Commerce High. We will miss you class of 2005, don't forget us!

A Letter to the underclassmen

The Seniors are about to make a change in their lives that will happen to all of us. I would like for you to think about how life has been over the last 11 or so years; It has been long & filled with memories we will always remember. I want to encourage you to stay in school, work hard, and always push for your dreams. You have worked so hard over the years, so why not finish. The end of the year is close for all of us, but our Senior year is not too far down the road either. So enjoy your friends, enjoy the laughter, & don't make big deals out of little things.

For the guys: Please grow-up. It will help everyone.

For the girls: Stop trying to steal everyone's boyfriends. You don't always have to have one. Life will go on.

And for everyone Don't talk about people it doesn't get you anywhere, and it only makes things worse.

If it doesn't benefit anything, keep your mouth shut.

So try to have fun & have a great Summer!!.... See you next year!!
