SUBMITTED BY: ASHLEE CUNDIFF

On Friday 27th at 7:30 the Science Club and Mr. and Mrs. Sharp's history classes left Commerce High School. We went to the Sam Noble Natural History Museum at Oklahoma University and the Oklahoma History Center across from the State Capital. At the Sam Noble Museum, we saw Columbian Micrimoth fossils, Sauropod, Allosaurus, and the Paleo Indian exhibit.

Then at the Oklahoma History Center there were exhibits of Oklahoma inventions, space, and Oklahoma Governors. On the way home we stopped at Tulsa to eat at Cici's pizza. We got back at 9:00pm. We all had a great time.

SOUTH ROLLS TO WIN IN LIONS CLUB SENIOR BOWL

BY: DANIEL WALKER

The South scored a touchdown on its first offensive play, setting the tone early for a 32-14 romp over the North. This victory tied the overall series at 18 games each. Despite the loss, Commerce was well represented in the game by seniors Jared Dopp, Jordan Beckwith, Daniel Walker, Kyle Long, Trent Craghead, Anthony Inman, Corey Snowden, and Nathan Webb, who all played solidly for the North Squad.

FINAL FAREWELL BY: MICHELLE TUNKS

"What is our aim? I answer in one word: VICTORY- - victory at all cost, victory in spite of terror, victory, however long and hard the road may be; for without victory there is no survival."

Winston Churchill

As we seniors leave and move on with our lives we are faced with a tough decision. Will we succeed or will we fail? We are the only ones to make that decision, but I say to my fellow seniors, I hope you succeed in whatever you decide to do. Whether it be to own your own gas station or to find the cure for cancer.

As for the upcoming seniors, you will not replace us. You will simply move on to your own place in life, as will the seniors after you and so on. For as people we cannot be replaced, someone can always move into the place we left behind to make a new place for themselves but then, doesn't it make that their place?

As for all the other underclassmen, I know school is tough but hang in there. It will all be over soon enough. Don't give up on your goal because you've had a bad day, week, month, or even year. It is worth it in the end.

I believe I speak for most of the seniors when I say, "Goodbye CHS and thank you for everything you've given us." You all will be missed but it is time now that we start our new journeys in life and achieve our own goals we have set for ourselves.
