TIGER CHAT

Stopping by the Woods on a Snowy Evening

by Robert Frost

Whose woods these are I think I know.
His house is in the village though;
He will not see me stopping here
To watch his woods fill up with snow.

My little horse must think it queer
To stop without a farmhouse near.
Between the woods and frozen lake
The darkest evening of the year.

He gives his harness bells a shake
To ask if there is some mistake.
The only other sound's the sweep
Of easy wind and downy flake.

The woods are lovely, dark and deep.
But I have promises to keep,
And miles to go before I sleep,
And miles to go before I sleep.

SPEECH COMPETITION

by Kevin Black

The Speech club went to a competition Jan. 19 at Olive, Oklahoma. Out of all the competitors from Commerce three placed. Justin Burrow, Kevin Black, Jesse Black, Micheal Garza, and Brittney Hines all participated. Jesse Black placed first in domestic extemporaneous speaking and I placed first in Foreign extemporaneous speaking. Brittney placed third in poetry. Commerce has not had an active speech team since 1990. The team is off to a strong start.
