Commerce Tiger Football

The Tigers made it to the first round of the playoffs and finished third in their district after beating the Chelsea Green Dragons 49-45. We had to travel to Haskell, OK to play the Haskell Haymakers, who finished second in their district. We knew it would be a tough game because they had a lot of size and speed. They had an advantage because they were playing on their home field. We did not play our best game by any means and it definitely showed. The final score of the game was 54-14. The Tigers finished their season with a 6-5 record.

Week 0: Yale	W 47-6

The World Series 2015

The World Series involved the Kansas City Royals and New York Mets. The Mets second baseman, Daniel Murphy, had a promising postseason. He broke a record for the most games in a row with a homerun. He hit a homerun 6 games in a row.

The pitcher for the first game was Edison Volquez. He had a good day on the mound but behind the scenes his father had passed away. His family didn't tell him about his father's passing because they knew he had a game to play and they didn't want to make him upset. When the manager pulled Volquez from the game he went into the clubhouse with his family and that's when his family told him.

Volquez and the Kansas City Royals stopped him from hitting all those "dingers". The Royals took the first two games of the series. The Mets took the next game but the Royals came back and took the next two games. They were then announced as World Series champions. It was a good series for The Royals.

Update: Baseball Starts in 4 months!!!

Modern Wild Turkey History

During the late 1800s, the future of the wild turkey in North America was grim. Overhunting and deforestation were taking their toll on the birds' population, and numbers of wild turkeys were dwindling. Conservation measures were put in place to protect the birds, including highly successful trapping and relocation programs. In 1947, the first unofficial presidential pardons were granted to a symbolic pair of Thanksgiving turkeys, giving this much maligned bird more respectability and bringing it to the focal point of United States symbolism as well as November dinner tables.

In 1973, the National Wild Turkey Federation (NWTf) was founded with a mission including the conservation of wild turkeys and the preservation and restoration of suitable wild turkey habitat. Education is also a strong goal of the NWTf, and the organization leads many programs aimed to benefit wild turkeys.

Today, there are more than 7 million wild turkeys roaming forested areas of the United States, Canada and Mexico, and every state in the U.S. except Alaska has a stable enough population to allow regulated hunting of the birds. From being honored birds to decimated populations to an astonishing recovery, wild turkeys have a wild history as proud and bold as they themselves

Student Council State Convention

Some of the Student Council Junior and Senior members went to Oklahoma City to our annual state convention. We attended cluster meetings, listened to many motivational speakers, ate wonderful food, enjoyed each others company, fell down a few times, and made some new incredible friends along the way! We learned how to become better leaders through our incredible adult role models . The dance this year had a “spy” theme. Everyone was dressed in black! Sunday night we got to go to Frontier City to ride rides and let loose! We had a blast!!!

Carlitos: What time is it, essay?

Kolton: I don't really use paper towel, dude.

Carlitos: Essay, na, what time is it?

Kolton: I don't believe in time.

Are you going to hit the Quan this upcoming break?

Kolton: What's a "Quan"?

Amaro: I don't know how...

Carlito's quote of the month:

"I'm not scared of no shank, Holmes."

Kolton's quote of the month:

"Carlito, you're bleeding essay."

Carlito's attitude towards Thanksgiving will settle the stomach of any homeboy. They tried with defibrillators, but with no peak of success. Rest in peace, buddy.
