DEDICATION

WE, the Class of 1993, proudly dedicate our 1993 BOMBER Yearbook to You.

MAYNORD SHERBERT — the man who can do everything! You work so hard for us, and you always have a smile.

Maynard, we all appreciate you, and what you do for us, and the entire Wakefield community.

WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE TO AN UPCOMING JUNIOR?

I would tell them to live it up because you'll only have one more year after this one. And once you're a senior, you can't go back and do it all over again.

ACTIVITIES

Homecoming 1992

The Wakefield Homecoming 1992 activities were held the week of October 5, 1992. P.J. Day, Western Day, and Blue/White Day were among the themes enjoyed by the student body.

The FHA Homecoming Parade was held on Friday, October 9, 1992, with the Rebeccas winning first prize. The Sophomore Class received Second Place and the Freshman Class received Third Place. The crowning ceremony was held before the Wakefield-Tescott game, with Amy Rickson and Brandon Inman being crowned Queen and King. The crowning ceremony was made by the 1991 Homecoming Queen Sheri Adams. The Flower Girl was Jessica Stein and the Crownbearer was Spike Lloyd.

After the game, which Tescott won, 22-20, the Bombers Homecoming Dance was held in the multi-purpose room.

Candidates: Kindra Monroe, Janet Smith, Amy Rickson
