Community Service Completion Form

- Minimum Graduation Requirement is 15 hours of community service.
- Community Service can be anything you do without receiving payment for your services (i.e., yard work for senior citizens, church related activities, etc.)
- This form is to be completed by the student and signed by the supervisor with whom you did the most community service for.
- This form along with a two page typed evaluation must be turned in. Two page typed evaluation requirements below:

Name: _____

Please write your answers to the following questions in the space provided.

1. Briefly describe your completed community service:

2. When was this service performed? _____

3. How many hours were served? _____

4. Who supervised you? _____

5. How may your supervisor be contacted? _____

Please return this form along with a two page typed evaluation of your experience(s) with this service project. What were its strengths and weaknesses? What did you gain from the experience? What changes, if any, would you recommend?

The above mentioned student has successfully completed _____ hours of community service, while under my supervision.
