I, ____________________________, agree that my child and I have read and will comply with all policies and procedures within the “1:1 Device Policies and Procedures” document. We wish to purchase the school-provided protection plan for $35 annually which is non-refundable. I understand that this plan covers one (1) Apple device that is the property of the Rock County Public Schools described within for one student. I also understand that by paying $35, my child is allowed to take their school issued device out of the building.
