CMHS NEWS

Principal Haro's Corner

Dear Crow Families:

The High School band is leaving Thursday night at 6:00 pm from Crow High School. We are excited that the trip is finally here. Please watch KVAL news Thursday night, they will be here interviewing our students prior to our departure. Additionally, I will be filming performances and putting them on the CAL Facebook page. We are very proud of our students and Mr. Dixon for being invited to play in Washington DC. I also want to thank all of the donors for helping make this event happen.

Friday is a grading day, grades will be sent out the week of the 12th. If you would like to meet with your students' teachers for a conference, we have conferences on the 19th and 20th of November. Please call Cathy in the main office to set up a time.

Sincerely,

Marci Haro

Please check out the district calendar on our Web Page as it is updated regularly.

Lorane News

On Friday, November 9, Lorane Grange member and longtime Lorane community member, Randy Eshleman will be guest of honor as the 2018 Veteran of the Year at the Linn County Fair and Expo Center. This is to honor Veterans who have given great community service since discharging from the service. On Saturday, November 10th he will ride in the front of the Albany Veteran's Day Parade. Another Lorane Veteran, Mike Cantrall will also be riding in the parade. Point of information--- Veteran's Day Parades are held on the preceding Saturday when November 11 falls on a Sunday.

Adding to your weekend, Lorane Christian Church is hosting their annual Thanksgiving Dinner for the community at Lorane Grange at 5 pm, Sunday November 11. The church provides everything, but if you'd like to bring a side dish or dessert you may. Come have a delightful evening with friends and neighbors.

Great News about the Applegate Panthers!

From Principal Aaron B. Brown

I am proud to announce our students of the month for October. These two individuals stood out this last month with their great attitude, hard work, and enthusiasm. Way to make Applegate a great school!

From Kindergarten: Eli Ott

I am so proud to celebrate Eli Ott as Student of the Month for October! Ever since he set foot in our school in July for the KITS program, he has been a model kindergartner and student. He demonstrates all of the aspects of C.R.O.W. I can always count on him to be careful and safe. When he is in the hall he always uses marshmallow feet and walks under the lights, even when no one is watching him. In the classroom he always remembers to carry his scissors with the tips pointed down, has a calm body when moving from place to place and is aware of his friends when working together.

Eli is so respectful. He always uses his manners. He is friendly and uses kind words with all of his classmates. He makes sure to include everyone and does an amazing job sharing! When it is someone else's turn to share during author's chair, Eli always has his voice off and eyes on the speaker. Then when it is time to give compliments Eli's are thoughtful and specific. It is not just in the class that he shows this respect but everywhere he goes; the lunchroom, music, P.E, the library, EVERYWHERE!

Kindergarten is full of challenging new learning, but Eli embraces it all with a great attitude. He comes to class with a big smile and ready to learn. If something is tricky he asks for help and keeps trying until he has done his very best. He never gives up and loves to learn new things!

We are so lucky to have a student who is so friendly, enthusiastic, respectful and caring in our school! Keep up the amazing work Eli!

Mrs. Glenn

From 6th Grade: Nancy Ramirez

I feel Nancy Ramirez is a shining example of what it means to be a CROW student. Not only does she follow all of the acronyms, but she really strives to be an exemplary student and she has fun while she does it. She is well loved by all of her past teachers and the support staff in the building, but she brightens my day every day. She has many friends and is a friend to everyone. I know that she will continue to have an excellent school year and be rewarded with many successes from all of the hard work she puts in, and all of the successes she has this year will carry her in to the next level of her education. I believe she is a true leader because she makes the work we do fun for everyone.

Mrs. Bloom

Congratulations to this week Perfect Panther!! They are our shining stars! We are very proud of you for being so positive and working so hard. You are an inspiration to all of us.

From 2nd Grade: Levi Betts

Levi is an amazing student. What impresses me the most is how mature he is when it comes to taking control of his own learning. For example, every day he brings me his reading group packet to show me how careful he was in order to practice better handwriting and add great detail to his sentences. I especially love his happy and excited reactions when he has mastered a new skill, read a story passage faster than the day before, or figures out where his mistake was without asking the teacher to find it for him. I could go on about his great work ethic, but I truly just want him to know that I am very proud of him for showing so much responsibility in class.

Levi is also a great friend. He is a student that always puts others first and respects everyone in the building. During partner work I often hear him ask his peer whether they would like to do the activity first or second. In his table group, he is a great team player and makes sure everyone is included. Also, at recess I see him using kind words to solve a problem and listening to his friends to work out a solution.

Thank you for being such a great example in our school!

-Mrs. Barrong

From 6th Grade: Kailani Alvarez

Kailani is a shining example of what it looks like to be a CROW student here at Applegate. She is always careful and safe with how she moves through the building, whether she is inside the classroom or walking to and from recess. She is very respectful and mindful of how she treats her friends, classmates, younger peers and every adult in the building. Her grace and poise often belie her place in an elementary building. I know she will continue to have a great year and I hope every student turns to her for guidance on how to be a shining panther, because she does it so well! Thank you so much, Kai!

-Mrs. Bloom

Project Presentations

This last Wednesday the whole school participated in an assembly to present their autumn themed projects. This was the culmination of two weeks of activities where students selected a topic of interest with a teacher supervisor and studied the topic through hands on activities. Each student presented their projects, art, or routines to the student body. It was nice to see our students speak and perform publically. Enjoy the following pictures from the assembly.

Students presented their web projects and discussed spiders, instructor Mrs. Barrong

They learned about the stars and the solar system, instructor Ms. Ledgerwood

And bats, instructor Ms. May

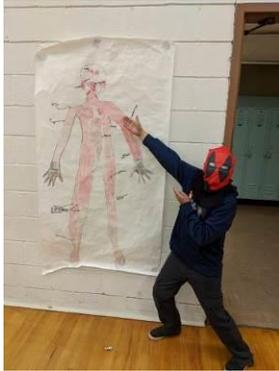

Bones and skeletons, instructor Mrs. Sparks

Next they had a presentation about pumpkins, Instructor Mr. Robertson

Muscles inside and out came next, Instructor Mrs. Bloom

We learned a lot about dragons, Instructor Mr. Dixon

And students found out clouds are fascinating, Instructor Mrs Glenn.

Applegate has a goal of staying above the 95% attendance average for the year. This last month we did not quite meet that goal. We had a 94% student attendance average. Everyday day matters even the half days.

Parents often wonder what happens on half-days of school for students. We keep our routine almost exactly the same as full day mornings. All students still have Team Time, reading and math just like during full days of school. As you can see a lot of learning takes place and it is important for students to be here every day whether it is a full day or half-day.

The Buzz for Applegate will not be published for the next two weeks because I will be traveling with the high school band to Washington DC. For the Veterans Day celebration and the following week is the Thanksgiving Holiday. The next publish date will be November 28th.

The Rural Art Center Presents
a 2018-19 Movie Series:

EVERY 2ND
SATURDAY OF THE MONTH, OCTOBER-MARCH,
AT THE LORANE GRANGE #54

FIVE WOMEN

We're serving soup (with a vegetarian choice) and bread before the festivities. After all, it's about more than entertainment; it's about rubbing elbows with far flung neighbors, getting in out of the cold, supporting local organizations, door prizes, popcorn and coffee, surprises and good movies. Gather at the Lorane Grange at 6PM every 2nd Saturday of the month, October-March. The Grange is located in the heart of Lorane at 80356 Old Lorane Rd.

The poster features five women in various poses, some looking at the camera, others in conversation. The text 'FIVE WOMEN' is written in large, bold, white letters across the middle of the image.
