DISTANCE LEARNING

Andes Central School District #11-1 will allow students to enroll in one online course per semester. The district will contribute one half of the tuition, not to exceed $200.00 as upfront costs. The district will reimburse an amount equal to one-half the upfront cost paid by the parent/guardian not to exceed $200.00 only if the student completes the course and earns a letter grade of a C or better. The total district's contribution shall not exceed $400.00 for one course per semester.

If a student receives credit from a post-secondary institution, the entire expense of the course will become the family's responsibility.
