

REPORT SUSPECTED CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECT

All school district employees are required under California law to report suspected child abuse and neglect.

Any of these acts involving anyone under the age of 18 must be reported.

- ▶ Sexual Abuse
- ▶ Physical Abuse
- ▶ Emotional Abuse
- ▶ Neglect

The District employee must report to the appropriate law enforcement authorities any reasonable suspicion that a child has been abused or neglected. Responsibility for investigating suspected abuse lies with law enforcement or other legal authorities. You are not to investigate on your own.

Your job is to REPORT.

"Reasonable suspicion" occurs when "it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing, when appropriate, on his or her training and experience, to support child abuse or neglect." (Penal Code 11166)

YOU MUST REPORT BY PHONE AND IN WRITING.

Police Department	Phone: 926-7540	Fax: 926-3601
Child Protective Services (CPS)	Phone: 841-4200	Fax: 842-6277
Sheriff's Department	Phone: 926-2552	Fax: 842-0160

1. PHONE: Immediately contact by phone your local police, Child Protective Services (CPS) or sheriff's department and report the suspected abuse or neglect.

2. WRITING: Within 36 hours of phoning law enforcement, a written report must be sent, faxed or submitted electronically to your local Police, CPS or Sheriff's department. The written report should be completed on a state form which can be downloaded at http://ag.ca.gov/childabuse/pdf/ss_8572.pdf. The form also is available in the school principal's office and at district headquarters. The form should be faxed to the same agency that received your phone report. Save the fax confirmation sheet with the written report.

By law, the name of the employee who makes the report is strictly confidential.

It is provided only to investigators working on the case.

Failure to report suspected child abuse or neglect is a crime punishable by six months in jail and a $1,000 fine.

CHILD ABUSE REPORTING STATEMENT

All employees who are child care custodians or health practitioners, as defined by Penal Code 11166.5, are required to report known or suspected instances of child abuse.

Persons in the above positions shall sign a statement to the effect that the employee knows of the legal requirement to report known or suspected instances of child abuse and is prepared to comply with the law. (Penal Code 11166.5)

The following are definitions as to what constitutes child abuse.

Penal Code Section 11165:

2. "Sexual assault" means conduct in violation of the following sections of the Penal Code: Sections 261 (rape), 264.1 (rape in concert), 285 (incest), 286 (sodomy), Subdivisions (a) and (b) of Section 288 (lewd or lascivious acts upon a child under 14 years of age, and Sections 288a (oral copulation), 289 (penetration of a genital or anal opening by a foreign object), and 647a (child molestation).
3. "Neglect" means the negligent treatment or the maltreatment of a child by a person responsible for the child's welfare under circumstances indicating harm or threatened harm to the child's health or welfare. The term includes both acts and omissions on the part of the responsible person.
 - a. "Severe neglect" means the negligent failure of a person having the care or custody of a child to protect the child from severe malnutrition or medically diagnosed nonorganic failure to thrive. "Severe neglect" also means those situations of neglect where any person having the care or custody of a child willfully causes or permits the person or health of the child to be placed in a situation such that his or her person or health is endangered as proscribed by subdivision (d), including the intentional failure to provide adequate food, clothing, or shelter.
 - b. "General neglect" means the negligent failure of a person having the care or custody of a child to provide adequate food, clothing, shelter, or supervision where no physical injury to the child has occurred.
4. "Willful cruelty or unjustifiable punishment of a child" means a situation where any person willfully causes or permits any child to suffer, or inflicts thereon, unjustifiable physical pain or mental suffering, or having the care or custody of any child, willfully causes or permits the person or health of the child to be placed in a situation such that his or her person or health is endangered.

7. "Child abuse" means a physical injury which is inflicted by other than accidental means on a child by another person. "Child abuse" also means the sexual assault of a child or any act or omission proscribed by Section 273a (willful cruelty or unjustifiable punishment of a child) or 273d (corporal punishment or injury). "Child abuse" also means the neglect of a child or abuse in out-of-home care, as defined in this article.

Who has the obligation to report child abuse?

Penal Code Section 11165:

1. "Child care custodian" means a teacher, administrative officer, supervisor of child welfare and attendance, or certificated pupil personnel employee of any public or private school; an administrator of a public or private day camp; a licensed day care worker; and administrator of a community care facility licensed to care for children; headstart teacher; a licensing worker or licensing evaluator; public assistance worker; employee of a child care institution including, but not limited to, foster parents, group home personnel and personnel of residential care facilities; a social worker or a probation officer.
2. "Medical practitioner" means a physician and surgeon, psychiatrist, psychologist, dentist, resident, intern, podiatrist, chiropractor, licensed nurse, dental hygienist, or any other person who is currently licensed under Division 2 (commencing with Section 500) of the Business and Professions Code.
3. "Non-medical practitioner" means a state or county public health employee who treats a minor for venereal disease or any other condition; a coroner, a paramedic; a marriage, family or child counselor; or a religious practitioner who diagnoses, examines or treats children.
4. "Child protective agency" means a police or sheriff's department, a county probation department, or a county welfare department.

What is "Reasonable Suspicion" of child abuse?

The reporter does not need to investigate the circumstances of the alleged abuse; it is up to the authorities to determine whether child abuse has actually occurred. The duty to report arises as soon as there is "reasonable suspicion" of abuse. "Reasonable suspicion" exists whenever other persons, in the same occupation and under similar circumstances, would conclude that child abuse may have occurred.
