

The board of education reserves to itself the functions of developing and revising policies for the school district. The formation and adoption of policies will constitute the primary method through which the board exercises its leadership in the operation of the school district.

Legal References: G.S. 115C-36, -47; Leandro v. State, 346 N.C. 336 (1997)

Cross References:

ADOPTED: August 9, 2004

Revised: May 2, 2016