Algonquin's Beliefs

We, the educators and staff of Algonquin, believe:

- ★ All students are capable of learning at high levels..
- ★ All students are provided with a high quality education.
- ★ All students will enter a safe & supportive environment.
- ★ Education is a partnership between the school, families, and community.
- ★ In the development of the whole child's needs (physical, social emotional, and academic).

Attend Today, Achieve Tomorrow

#schooleveryday

Being in attendance at school each day (on time) plays a significant role in student achievement. Our Preschool program sets the foundation for future success as it prepares students for Kindergarten and beyond.

In the event of an absence, please be sure to call the attendance line at 708-668-9250 prior to the start of the school day and provide the following information: student's name, parent's/guardian's name, date(s) of absence, and reason for absence.

- You are invited to join our monthly Family Play Groups at 9:30 AM or 1:30 PM. These engaging sessions provide opportunities to spend time as a family through hands-on activities. Light refreshments are always provided. Flyers will be sent home prior to each Play Group session.
