If there is a snow day, the schedule will still follow this exam order. For example, if there is a snow day on January 17th, then on the 18th period 1 and 3 exams will be given. If there is a delay, lunch will be provided and school will be in session for a full day. Make-Ups will be held after school each day of exams until 2:05pm.

Monday, January 23, 2023 students will follow their semester 2 schedule.

All school expectations remain in effect during the exam schedule. This is a very important time for all students and a very serious atmosphere will prevail at Lyman Memorial High School. Students will not be admitted to an exam late, as this will disrupt the class. Students will remain in their classrooms during the exam time. If you are here and do not have an exam scheduled, you will report to the cafeteria and remain there during the exam block. No make-up exams will be scheduled for any student who is absent unless the parent calls the main office to reschedule due to an unforeseen emergency such as a severe student illness. Students that are more than 15 minutes excused late will need to make-up their exam after school. Students should pay particular attention to the exam schedule and plan to arrive 15 minutes before their exam. Every effort is expected of each student and parent to ensure that he or she is present for their exams.

School is dismissed at 11:55AM. Bus transportation will be provided for all students.
