“ From the moment that a student sets foot in a Catholic school, he or she ought to have the impression of entering a new environment, one illuminated by the light of faith, and having its own unique characteristics.”

- The Religious Dimension of Education in a Catholic School, 1988, Sacred Congregation for Catholic Education

Dear Lima Central Catholic Alumni, Parents and Friends:

Keeping this quote (to the left) in mind, I recently asked the faculty and staff to participate in a Catholic school culture project by analyzing the physical space and policies of our school. As physical spaces are important indicators of beliefs and values, several critical spaces were discussed as to how each area conveyed or did not convey a clear Catholic school culture. Our main entrance has been transformed within the last five years to welcome students and others with a mural declaring “Be it known to all who enter here that CHRIST is the reason for this school.” Good start, but do the rest of our spaces measure up? How can we improve?

We took the exercise a step further and looked at operating norms, or the behaviors that make visible the beliefs and truths of a school culture. What is distinctive about Catholic school culture? Do our policies, procedures and programs reflect our core values and the desired school culture? These intentional evaluations are important so that as a school, we can examine ways to improve and build upon our faith community.

It could be argued that Catholic school culture is a culture of relationships. We aim to help students develop a relationship with God, self, others and the community. We strive to provide a safe environment to encourage and nurture these relationships. We challenge our faculty and staff to provide a better product than we did yesterday, with limited resources. After four years, we challenge our graduates to use their Catholic education as a lens for seeing, appreciating and contributing to a better world. The culture we create is a result of the challenges we accept and the changes we make.

A well-developed faith community is the distinguishing feature of a Catholic school. Now, more than ever, the world needs what Catholic schools have to offer. Though each student is made in God's image, each comes to us with different needs, talents and gifts. Our challenge is to meet individual needs and help students identify their own unique talents and gifts. By working to develop every student's individual potential and providing opportunities for students to pool their talents for the collective benefit of our school community, we are graduating exceptional young people armed with the tools necessary to meet any challenge. Your ongoing prayers as well as financial support helps a student's mind, heart, and soul take shape when they experience an inviting, supportive school culture grounded in faith.

Blessings,

Friends of LCC:

From an early age, I was taught by my parents, relatives, coaches, and mentors to take on, and not shy away from challenges; and be a part of the solution. There are always challenges in funding a Catholic school. These must be met with creative thinking and the willingness to sacrifice, to streamline the operation to meet budgetary goals. I continue to be humbled and amazed at the number of people who sacrifice their time, talent, and treasure to make the operation of Lima Central Catholic High School work. We have an incredibly dedicated staff and faculty, who continue to take on more responsibilities in an effort to reduce costs. We have a growing number of generous donors, of all ages and financial means, who see the value of what LCC offers our families, even if many may not reside in the area to directly see the benefits of their investment.

Many of the lessons we teach at the high school level involve challenging our students to have a plan to pursue long term goals by making smart choices, even sacrificing, in the short run. There is always a temptation to think only of the here and now, and that will often compromise the attainment of long term success. Our Bishop, Governing Board, and the school administration are committed to the fiscal responsibility necessary for LCC to thrive in both the short and long run.

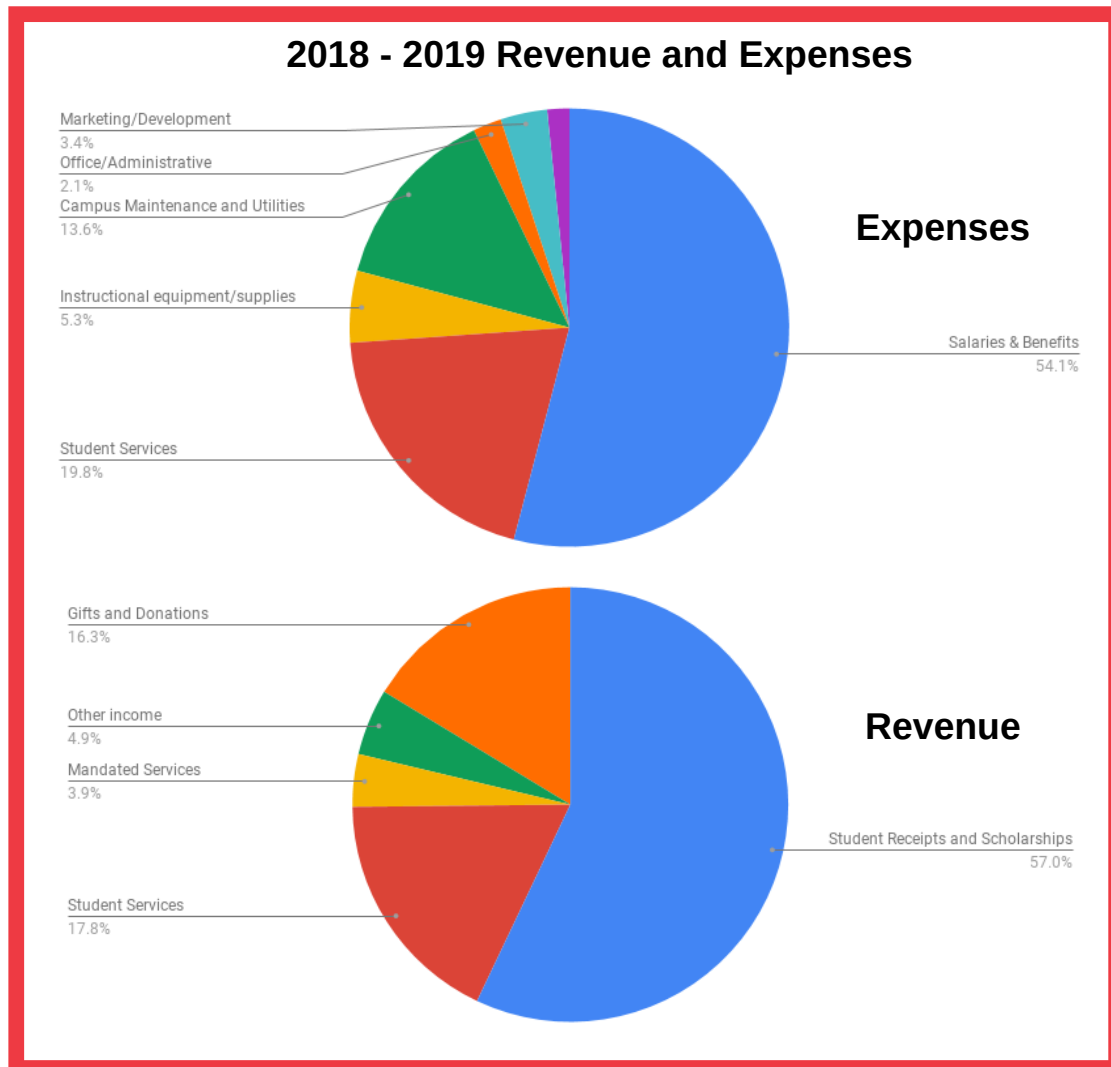

New initiatives have been in the works and are on the verge of becoming public, and these are designed to help our school through a short term enrollment decrease, but also and more importantly, set Lima Central Catholic High School on a path of long term sustainability.

I feel very blessed and fortunate to be involved in such an important effort, one that will ensure that this great institution can serve my three young children as it has the thousands before them.

Join us in the next year, and every year, in being a part of the solution. Your stewardship, in whatever form, guarantees that our mission at Lima Central Catholic carries onward. Come all ye T-Birds!!

Sincerely,

John Schnieders

LCC Welcomes

Mary Kay Musyt as the new Director of Institutional Advancement

It has been a long time since I was this excited for summer to end. Don't get me wrong, summer is great, but as a new staff member I'm excited for students, faculty and staff to return, for the halls of the school to be full. There is something special about working in education, especially Catholic education. Everyone is here because they are committed to keeping Christ in their hearts and minds on a daily basis.

I grew up in Scranton, Pennsylvania in a large Irish Catholic family. My elementary school years were spent at our local Catholic school and parish, St. Patrick's. The summer before fifth grade I tried out for the school's cheerleading squad and was so excited to have made it. I couldn't wait to attend basketball games and march in the St. Patrick's Day Parade. Due to unforeseen circumstances, my family could no longer afford tuition for my two sisters and me. I was crushed but understood my family had no choice. I was sad to leave my classmates and teachers behind, but looking back now I think it was all part of God's plan.

When I think back on my time in Catholic school, I realize how special my time there was. I loved my friends and had great teachers, but there was something else. Now, twenty years later, I can put my finger on it: it was a sense of family, a sense of belonging to the Catholic Community. Over the years, I've worked for various Catholic nonprofits and a private school.

When the opportunity to work for LCC presented itself, I knew this is where I was supposed to be. Walking in the doors on my first day was like coming home. The little girl in me will always be a part of St. Patrick's, but my time now is with Lima Central Catholic, and I feel very blessed to be here.

I look forward to meeting you in the months ahead. Please stop by the Development Office - our door is always open. I want to hear your thoughts and stories. Why is Catholic education important to you? What does Lima Central Catholic mean to you? Your continued support keeps cost of tuition down and allows our students to return year after year. Tuition support lets those little girl dreams of being a cheerleader, writer, artist, whatever they are, possible.

God has a plan for all of us, and at this time it is to be here, to be a part of the LCC Community.

God Bless,

Mary Kay Musyt
Director of Institutional Advancement

A Word From the Lima Central Catholic Educational Foundation

The Mission of the Lima Central Catholic Educational Foundation (LCCEF) is to provide funds to help keep tuition costs down and provide tuition assistance for students who might otherwise be unable to attend LCC. The School Administration and the LCC Foundation Trustees are committed to making an LCC education affordable to as many families as possible. The LCCEF is funded by generous individuals by gifts of stock, real estate, memorial gifts, a retirement plan or cash. Some donors are in a position to make these gifts during their lifetime, but many make the gift as a bequest in their will. Planned gifts can offer many benefits to the donor, including tax benefits or the potential for returned income. Please contact the LCC Development office for additional information.

Early this Spring the LCCEF embarked on a pivotal Campaign to increase the assets of the LCCEF, provide near-term operational support for Lima Central Catholic, and to invest in the three Lima Parish elementary schools. This Sustain Retain Enhance Campaign has been quietly building excitement in the early stages and we are proud to say has received over $1 million in commitments to date. We will be making a public announcement soon and the entire Catholic Community will be asked to become involved in this Campaign.

The LCCEF is excited to announce that on October 26th, 2019 we will be presenting a special evening to honor Bob Seggerson in his lifelong achievements as a Coach and as an outstanding member of our LCC family and community. This event will be held at LCC and we expect to fill the gym! Reservations will include a dinner and reception. Please contact Mary Kay Musyt, Director of Institutional Advancement, for more information.

Sincerely,

Brian Walter
Educational Foundation President

LCC Community:

I want to give my deepest gratitude to all who have been so supportive of Lima Central Catholic High School and of me personally over the years. Without all of you, LCC would not have been able to be so successful.

It was an honor to have worked with many great people and raise money that is needed for our school. I am looking forward to the future and know that LCC will be in great hands.

All the best,

Cameron Jacobs

Professional Achievement

Richard Steinke, LCC '60

Richard Steinke joined the army shortly after graduating from LCC in June, '60. He served 3 years in the Washington D.C. area in the Missile Defense Program. Richard graduated from the University of Arizona in August, '67, majoring in International Economics and International Political Science. Following his graduation, he served on the staff to re-elect Barry Goldwater to the Senate representing Arizona. In '69, he got involved in oil and gas exploration and in the mining of precious minerals. It was during this time that he came across the polyurethane material, used at that time as only insulation. He started to use it as a roofing material which became his first invention.

Throughout his career he has made a large amount of products and patents that have been essential in polyurethane chemicals and removing gasses from a gas stream. He has received several patents in tire design, equipment, and manufacturing processes. Along with Manuel Chacon, he invented a polyurethane chemical system for the replacement of rubber tires. This is the only urethane system to pass Department of Transportation tests. He also invented a polyurethane foam that contains a closed cell system used for low-duty cycle tires such as wheel chair, bicycle, and lawn and garden tires.

Currently, he serves as President and CEO of Wind Sail Receptor, Inc. He has invented a new windmill technology using polyurethane blades and has received the patent on the Wind Sail Receptor design for wind and water turbines. The design has been tested, and the new technology is presently being deployed.

Mike and Barb (Stolly) O'Connor were both graduates of Lima Central Catholic class in 1982. They have four children all of whom graduated from LCC, Mike has been a volunteer coach for the 25 years for the LCC boy's JV and Freshman basketball program working alongside Coach Jim Carder and Coach Seggerson. They were honored with Entrepreneur of the Year Award and Small Business of the Year Award shortly into starting their businesses and took their civic responsibility seriously. They have supported over fifteen school districts, first responders, churches and charities with discounted or free internet throughout the companies' life and currently lend their support locally to the four parishes and schools for their networking needs.

Along with running WCOIL, Mike and Barb felt strongly about volunteering in the community and schools. SPIRITUAL RETREAT PROGRAMS

Of all the programs offered at LCC, retreats are among the most important and most intricate. LCC has implemented a 4 year retreat program designed to provide a natural progression that coincides with experiences throughout high school.

A retreat can often be one of the most powerful tools at our disposal for bringing students to a face-to-face encounter with the very real presence of God in their lives. They are an essential and necessary part of the LCC faith life allowing students to take the time to consider the truly important aspects of life.

FRESHMAN YEAR

Let my Gifts Change the World

The Freshman Retreat happens very early in the school year. This retreat is action packed and full of fun. This day is designed to help students move out of their own comfort zone towards discovering the plan God has for them. Students are challenged physically while at the same time learning more about each other and themselves in the process.

JUNIOR YEAR

Fully Alive

LCC welcomes NET (National Evangelization Teams) Ministries to conduct our Junior retreat each year. The theme has been: Fully Alive (True Happiness). The pursuit of happiness motivates every decision we make. Why is it, then, that we find ourselves unhappy so often? We explore our search for true happiness, highlighting the one thing that is big enough to fill our deepest desires- God himself.

SOPHOMORE YEAR

The Journey to Encounter the Trinity

Our Sophomore retreat has been designed to give students the opportunity to have experiences with each of the three Persons of the Trinity while looking at big questions such as "What is my purpose?" and "Why am I here?". Students dive into the Father's unconditional love, Jesus' gift of saving grace, and the Holy Spirit's guidance. And ultimately we explore the overriding Christian value that we are called to serve with love.

SENIOR YEAR

Kairos

Kairos has been the senior retreat since 2013. This retreat gives seniors an opportunity to experience where Christ is their lives and where God will be after high school. We remind students that they are perfectly made by God and to experience Him in a deep and personal way. They are then asked to "Live the Fourth" which is truly the rest of their lives. It is our goal that our students will have had a deeper encounter in their Christian life, thereby building on the formation we instill daily in the classroom.

Spotlight on:

GUIDANCE

Gone are the days when counselors sit in their office handing out college applications and scheduling students' for classes. Today's staff plays a vital role in student achievements and are key members of the education team. They help students in academics, careers/college development, bridge communications between students and teachers and provide social and emotional guidance to ensure today's students become successful, well-adjusted adults of tomorrow. Our guidance office consists of Sue Janowski (Guidance Counselor), Alyson Harruff (Guidance Counselor/Testing Coordinator) and Sheila Hairston (Administrative Assistant). The guidance office has been a key part in having a 100% graduation rate for the last six years.

A little peek into the guidance office shows these ladies care immensely for the students at LCC. Sue says, "I love the fact that I can make a difference in students lives. The difference could be academically, spiritually or emotionally, but the impact is what excites me every day." Alyson said, "A goal of mine was to learn every students' name and (hope) that they knew my name (or at least recognized me from the guidance office) as well! I'm pretty confident I know every student now and am excited to continue building on those relationships next school year!" Sheila said she is proud to be able to see "the students and being able to interact with them and help them with a variety of issues that they may have."

Being a Thunderbird fills this office with pride, with a combined 11 years working at LCC. Sue is proud of our 100% graduation rate. "This is due to the combined effort of teachers putting in extra hours to support our students, and the students and parents seeing the value in a LCC diploma." Sheila is proud "when the seniors apply to different colleges and get their acceptance letters. They get excited to be able to highlight the college on the guidance wall and ring the bell." The tradition of ringing the bell started four years ago. Sue said, "The guidance office wanted to find a way to celebrate the success of the students being accepted to colleges. I found the bell online and thought it was a great way to not only celebrate but also for the underclassmen to hear the excitement that can come in applying and being accepted to college. Now, when the bell rings, everyone always asks, 'Who got accepted and where?' It's so much fun!" This is just another example of how LCC helps their students excel.

"Use the power of your words in the direction of Truth and Love", was the theme for the 2018-19 school year. By focusing on God's Word, we hope to instill upon our students how powerful their own words can be and the importance of personal integrity. By accepting God's offer of assistance, we can gain confidence in our own ability to make good decisions, use the right words and do what we say we are going to do. Faculty and staff each chose a word with personal meaning to them. They hammered their words onto MyIntent bracelets so that every time they looked down at it they were inspired and encouraged to embody their message. At the end of the year teachers gave out their bracelets to students who exemplified the words they chose.

Faculty Spotlight

Regina Reynolds
Spanish Instructor

Regina has been at LCC for three years. She incorporates faith into her teaching by organizing the Spanish mass and the Offerings for Day of the Dead.

Her heart fills with joy every time students jump in and commit to help those in need. She tries to attend as many sporting events as she can because she "wants students to know she is rooting for them in and out of the classroom!"

The current student trend that is baffling to Regina is the music selection and dance moves. "Every time I chaperone a school dance, I cannot understand a word when the music is playing," Regina says.

Regina made a bracelet with the word "bold". Regina explained, "I gave it to Khloe Kaskocsak. She is a kid with a huge heart and I just wanted her to embrace change. It is scary but it is also necessary, challenging and full of blessings."

Bonnie Brunelle
Theology Instructor

This is Bonnie's first year at LCC, but is a '98 LCC graduate. "I teach Theology, so I have the privilege of talking about the "Why?" of the Catholic Faith every day. We have a moment at the beginning of each class where we pray, read Scripture, and reflect together, which helps build that community all Christians are called to be a part of."

Bonnie's bracelet word was "curiosity" and she gave it to Bryanna Chambers. "She and several other students have made this semester a fascinating one, thanks to their openness and willingness to ask questions. Bryanna was so brave about these questions because she knew that she was often going against the current, yet she still asked them. I firmly believe that curiosity is the most productive attitude to have when learning something. Once that curiosity is satisfied, you're bound to remember that knowledge and make it a part of yourself."

Mike Thompson
Science Instructor

Mike has been at LCC for nine years and is a '95 LCC graduate. He incorporates faith into his teaching by "[encouraging] my students to think of science as the human endeavor to better understand the Majesty of God's creation. We have been gifted with an unmatched curiosity and by better understanding the natural world we are better able to understand God." Mike likes "seeing what our students go on to make of themselves. I like to think that Lima Central Catholic played some role in that."

Mike's bracelet word was "grit". "I gave it to Madeleine Mohler because she's got grit and I hope she keeps it!"

Eric Kuhlman
Social Studies Instructor

Eric has been at LCC for nine years. He says, "I incorporate faith into my instruction first and foremost by displaying Christian values in my actions and personal interactions. In addition, we begin each class period with a scripture passage and a related prayer. At the conclusion of the prayer, the class completes the phrase "God is good... all the time... and all the time... God is good".

Eric's bracelet word was "Smile". "I chose that word at the beginning of the year to remind myself to smile and not allow stress to take away my smile. I gave my bracelet to a freshman, Allison Young. She is a perfectionist and sometimes puts too much pressure on herself to "be perfect". Earlier in the year, she would let that affect her mood sometimes, but I think she's figured it out. Also I knew she would appreciate the token of my respect as I've gotten to know her over the course of the school year."

Frank Kill
Theology Instructor

Frank is returning to the classroom after serving LCC as the Athletic Director. He has been a part of LCC for seventeen years. "I'm a firm believer that your actions must match up with the words you are preaching and living out the gospel is a high priority in my classroom while living out the Golden Rule. Jesus calls us to love one another. Love is a strong word with so many meanings but it also is a universal word that everyone can appreciate."

Frank's bracelet word was "WOO!" "This stands for WINNING OTHERS OVER. People with the theme of WOO have a great capacity to inspire and motivate others. WOO is not just a cheerleader, rather a WOO is adept and skillful in a social setting. Jordan Young was the young man who I gave my bracelet to. He is rarely at a loss for words and can carry a conversation with strangers. He is very social at work and at school. I felt that Jordan and I are WOOers because we seldom shy away from starting up conversations with strangers and most importantly they probably energize us. In a nutshell...there are no strangers, only friends we haven't met yet."

Brooke Schmerge
English Instructor

Brooke has been at LCC for four years. "During class, faith naturally works into many of our discussions over texts of all kinds. However, my favorite way to incorporate faith into my classroom is at the end of the year; I have each student decorate a small, wooden cross to add to a large cross that hangs on my wall. It is my hope that this is a very real way for them to see the image of Christ in themselves."

Brooke continues, "I particularly love the little victories that often go unnoticed. It's so rewarding to see a new concept finally 'click' with a struggling student or to have an open and honest conversation with a student who might be experiencing something troubling outside of the classroom."

Brooke's bracelet word was "embolden". "I gave it to Leiahnni Smith because she has worked so hard this last semester. I hope she feels emboldened by the work she has put in and the knowledge she has gained."

Tessa Joe Caprella

Carla Caprella, class of 2017, will be graduating in August of 2019 from OSU with her bachelors in psychology. Thanks to college credit plus and a hard work ethic. What an amazing head start and opportunity credit college plus has proved to be.

SENIOR CAPSTONE PROJECTS

"Be confident in everything you do. Sounding confident while giving your presentation is half of the battle that students face. If you are confident, you will sound more educated on your topic, so make sure you practice!
Now that I have completed Capstone, I think that I will go into my future knowing that though a task may seem difficult or demanding, it is very possible to succeed if you put forth your best effort and practice until you have no doubt in your abilities."

-Avery Rice, 2019 Graduate
Subject of Capstone: The Detrimental Effects of Participation Awards for Children
Attending Ohio Dominican University

"I learned a lot about deadlines and not procrastinating. You have to make sure you are doing everything on time in life, and Capstone gives you a lot of deadlines you have to meet. The thing that was cool about my Capstone was that I could actually use my information to help me decide where I wanted to go to school and what I wanted to do. So my Capstone definitely was worth it in that regard."

-Derek Pignataro, 2019 Graduate
Subject of Capstone: Career Opportunities for Students with Music Degrees
Attending Bowling Green State University

"Capstone taught me how to balance my academics with my sports life and social life. I also gained more confidence in myself after being successful in this project. During Capstone I learned that practice makes perfect and that I must challenge myself in order to achieve excellence. In the future I will use my resources and research to my advantage...I also believe that public speaking will be a skill I will have to use every day in my future career."

-Khloe Kaskoscak, 2019 Graduate
Subject of Capstone: Children's Participation in Sports with Concussion Risk
Attending Bowling Green State University

"Capstone gave me a good idea of what writing college research papers would be like. I will also use the skills learned by presenting my capstone in the future presenting things such as research or cases to fellow students or colleagues."

-Sam King, 2019 Graduate
Subject of Capstone: Regulations for CRISPR-Cas9 Technology
Attending The Ohio State University

WHAT IS A CAPSTONE PROJECT?

Lima Central Catholic High School has implemented a senior Capstone Project which is a graduation requirement. This project is designed for the student to orally present a combined research project, and to provide a visual presentation which details the relevance of their topic to the community. Each senior is given the opportunity to have a faculty mentor to address the expected rubrics. Each presentation will be approximately 15 minutes long and will be presented in front of a panel of judges. The intent is to prepare the students for college where they will have many project-based learning experiences.

Girls Varsity Golf

LCC gets to hang another banner in the gym! Congratulations to our Girls Golf team on winning the Division II Girls Golf State Title this past year. This marks the ninth State Championship for Lima Central Catholic in school history (3 Boys Golf, 3 Boys Basketball, 1 Volleyball, 1 Boys Track and Field). The Lady T-Birds were coached by Dan Reinicke and assisted by Pete Hubbell. Seniors on the Championship team were Meghan Mulcahy who finished 16th overall and Hannah Garver placed 35th. Mary Kelly Mulcahy finished 6th place and Erin Mulcahy finished 8th place overall while they both earned 2nd team All-State honors. Emma Mayers finished 31st as a freshman on the State Championship team.

Football

LCC Football continues to have a dominant impact at the state level. The T-Birds reached the Regional Semi's this past fall. They posted a 9-2 overall record. The T-Birds finished the season ranked #7 in the state polls and ranked 2nd in the region. Coach Palte and staff have big plans for the 2019 season. Senior Micah Pearson received 1st Team All-Region, 1st Team All-State. Ethan Truex received special mention All-State.

Wrestling

The LCC Wrestling team was well represented at the State Tournament this year. Senior Joey Caprella finished his career off by placing 3rd on the podium and with a record of 46-3 as a senior. Chase Caprella was a state participant who will return for his senior year in 2019-20, the future is bright for Chase and his little brother Gavin Caprella who was a state alternate.

Victoria Lauck received 2nd team All District. Six players received Academic All Ohio: Jocelyn Morrissey, Victoria Lauck, Cassidy Meyer, Hannah Riepenhoff, Rosie Williams and Jaylen Roehm.

Girls Varsity Soccer

Reaching the Regional level for any sport is an accomplishment in itself. The Girls Soccer team reached the regional level for the 3rd time in school history. The Lady T-Birds were coached by Mike Santaguida and Jason Rice. The girls soccer team was fun to watch last year and will graduate 7 seniors who will be greatly missed. Avery Rice was nominated 2nd Team All-State from the Ohio Scholastic Soccer Coaches Association. WOSL Scholar Athletes: Peyton Craig, Mary Kate Dee, Madi Gendreau, Khloe Kaskocsak, Hailey Koenig, Megan Latham, Sophia Luchini, Josie Mohler, Madeline Quatman, Avery Rice, Jenna Rose, Cassie Rose, Sophia Santaguida, Kitt Siatkosky, Jessica Wilker, Annika Wilker and Allison Young.
