- Schedule two district wide parent/teacher conferences.
- Have available educational information and resources, community resources, and parenting information at each campus parent center.

2: Building Staff Capacity through Training and Technical Assistance

(Describe/List how the district will provide support and technical assistance to all its Title I schools in planning and implementing effective parent and family engagement practices, inclusive of school parent and family engagement policies/plans, school-parent compacts, and all Title I parent and family engagement requirements. Describe/List activities such as workshops, conferences, trainings, webinars, and online resources that will be used with school staff to build their capacity to work with parents as equal partners.

Include information about how the district and/or schools will provide information related to school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities to parents in a format, to the extent practicable, and in a language that parents can understand.)

Does the District Parent and Family Engagement Plan describe how the district will accomplish each of the required components?

- Title I schools will jointly develop with parents a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire staff, and student will share the responsibility for improving student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the state's high standards.
- Provide professional development for all teachers, including special education teachers, designed to enhance understanding of effective parental involvement strategies. Include information to address the differing parenting needs of various sub-population groups.
- Provide administrators professional development for parental involvement.
- The district will develop training that schools can use to provide parents information on the District's curriculum and ways they can assist in their child's educational needs through math and literacy family night engagements.
- The district has parent resources available on the district website where information about the district and schools, curriculum, policies and handbooks, available programs, checking of student's grades, supplemental services, faculty contact information and Parent Center.
- Provide, as much as possible, school forms in a language parents can understand.
- Handbooks will be sent home with every child at the beginning of the year. Handbooks include rules and policies information on communicating with teachers and school administration. Handbooks are also located on the district website.
- The district will monitor each school to ensure that they have developed a parental involvement plan with parent input, offer parent's flexible meeting times to ensure that all parents have the opportunity to be involved, and provide information to parents about the school's programs and plans.
- Monitoring will be done through agendas, sign-in sheets, observations, and scheduling.
- District personnel will conduct ongoing school visits to observe parental involvement practices. Schools will enter parent and family engagement activities on a district calendar.

3: Building Parent Capacity

(Describe/List activities, such as workshops, conferences, classes, online resources, and any equipment or other materials that may be necessary to support parents in helping their student's academic success. If applicable, describe how each discretionary item your district and parents chose will be implemented.)

Does the District Parent and Family Engagement Plan describe how the district will accomplish each of the required components?

- Each school will hold an annual meeting to inform parents of the school's participation in Title I, the requirements of the program, and the right of the parents to be involved in planning, reviewing, and improving the school's Title I program. Parents will be provided a description and explanation of the curriculum used in the school, types of assessment, proficiency levels, and information about national, state, and local goals including parents' rights as defined in Title I, Part A.-Paulette Sherrer-Asst.
