School Safety Parent Night September 11, 2019 Gardiner Area High School Gymnasium 6:00 - 7:00 pm

Dear Parents/Guardians,

Please join us on Wednesday, September 11 for an informational session about the work MSAD#11 is doing in collaboration with the Gardiner Police Department to help keep our students and employees safe in the event of an active shooter incident. Officer Stacey Blair of the Gardiner Police Department, Karen Moody, Principal of Laura E. Richards Elementary School, and Chad Kempton, Principal of Gardiner Area High School will be sharing information about the ALICE (Alert - Lockdown - Inform - Counter - Evacuate) protocols that are being put into place in MSAD#11.

The meeting will include:

- A welcome by Chad Kempton, Principal.
- A brief history of active shooter incidents in the United States by Officer Blair.
- An overview of the A.L.I.C.E. protocols by Officer Blair.
- Information about how the A.L.I.C.E. protocols are being implemented with MSAD#11 staff by Karen Moody and Chad Kempton.
- Information about how the A.L.I.C.E. protocols will be implemented with students in MSAD#11.
- A question & answer session.
