

august 2019

THE BIG 3:

Treat others right. Make smart decisions. Maximize your potential.

Starting off the school year right is a big deal – it sets the tone for many months of learning! This month, we're focusing on three guiding principles for having a successful year. At home, we know you want your students to live these out in a big way. That's why we call them the Big 3.