Due to being homeschooled, ________________________________ will be given

Mastery learning examinations (exit examinations) for ___________ grade in English, social studies, science, and mathematics, etc. Placement of the student will be in grade ________ on a probational basis pending the outcome of the examinations. If the student’s scores indicate non-mastery of the subject matter, the student will be placed in a lower grade.

I understand the above statement and agree with the outcome.

____________________________________________________
Parent’s signature

____________________________________________________
Student’s signature

____________________________________________________
Counselor’s signature

____________________________________________________
Date