

Group Counseling

Check out all the different groups at DCMS!

From friendship to family concerns, the school counselors are here for you! Please take a look at the groups below to see which one is right fit:

Family Concerns: dealing with divorce or family separation

Friendships: having trouble making and keeping friends

Salvaging Sisterhood: this girls only group is for girls that are having difficulties with their friends and who are dealing with drama

Please sign up in the counseling office or scan the QR code!

