(“DonorsChoose.org originated in a Bronx high school where teachers experienced first-hand the scarcity of learning materials in our public schools. Charles Best, then a social studies teacher, sensed that many people would like to help distressed public schools, but were frustrated by a lack of influence over their donations. He created DonorsChoose.org in 2000 so that individuals could connect directly with classrooms in need. Our mission is to improve public education by empowering every teacher to be a change-maker and enabling any citizen to be a philanthropist. Our vision is a nation where students in every community have the resources they need to learn.

How it works: public school teachers from every corner of America post classroom project requests on DonorsChoose.org. Requests range from pencils for a poetry writing unit, to violins for a school recital, to microscope slides for a biology class. Potential donors browse project requests and give any amount to the one selected.. Once a project reaches its funding goal, the materials are delivered to the school. The donor receives photos of the project taking place, a thank-you letter from the teacher, and a cost report showing how each dollar was spent. If the donation is over $100, the donor receives hand-written thank-you letters from the students. At DonorsChoose.org, one can give as little as $1 and have the same level of choice, transparency, and feedback that is traditionally reserved for someone who gives millions. Donors Choose refers to it as citizen philanthropy.”)

- 2. Accept Building Conditions Survey (BCS) by Stieglitz Snyder Architecture
(Acceptance of this report does not obligate the Board of Education to take action on any specific component of the BCS. The purpose of the Building

Condition Survey [BCS] for the Greenville Central School District [GCSD] is to satisfy the New York State Education Department's requirement for assuring that school districts have the detailed information necessary to properly maintain safe and healthy school environments. Included in the survey is the collection of mechanical equipment data for incorporation into web-based facilities maintenance management software the District owns.

The Stieglitz Snyder Architecture team also identified improvements proposed under a prepared Master Plan and demonstrated how those master plan improvements may affect the cost of work at the existing facilities identified within the Building Condition Survey.

The information gathered has been prioritized into a 5-year Capital Facilities Plan that can serve as a tool for the District to address repair, maintenance and capital needs of facilities in a logical and cost effective way through informed decision making. The attached prioritization chart presents three scenarios:

- 1. Full implementation of the Master Plan with integration of Building Condition Survey items.*
- 2. Selective implementation of some Master Plan site components with integration of Building Condition Survey items.*
- 3. Identification and prioritization of Building Condition Survey items where no Master Plan implementation is anticipated. (This is the 5-year capital facilities plan.)*

This assessment has been a collaborative effort by the following groups:

- Architects, engineers and cost estimators.*
- District Administration*
- Buildings and Grounds*
- District Planning Committee*

The process included field work to identify facilities deficiencies, quantity takeoffs, data collection, construction estimating, meetings and prioritization discussion that took place June 2010 through December 2010. The information was submitted electronically to the New York State Education Department 15 January 2011.

The survey identifies $22,246,500 in Building Condition repairs and Program and Site Improvements. By no means is all this work recommended to be done. The cost items are presented with various priorities ranging from "urgently required" to "desirable if funding permits". Furthermore, this survey has been coincident with long range planning initiatives that will affect the selection of work items for final inclusion in the 5-Year Capital Plan. [Reference GCSD Conceptual Estimate] The 5-Year Capital Plan is a document that is kept by the District and only requested when permitting a capital project with NYSED.)

✓ F. School Management

1. Approve School District Calendar for 2011-2012

2. Approve Health & Welfare contract between the South Colonie Central School District and the Greenville Central School District for $1,809.60 for 2010-2011

(This contract provides health and welfare services for one [1] district resident students attending Christian Brothers Academy for $603.20 and two [2] district resident students attending Our Savior's Lutheran for $603.20 each.)

3. Approve Health & Welfare contract between the North Colonie Central School District and the Greenville Central School District for $983.80 for 2010-2011
(This contract provides health and welfare services for two [2] district resident students attending Loudonville Christian School for $491.90 each.)

That resolution must be transmitted, in writing, to the Clerk of the Board of Cooperative Educational Services at least thirty (30) days prior to the election date. Chapter 818 does not alter the authority of the Commissioner of Education to approve the purchase of a school bus.*

IX. Executive Session

It is expected that the Board of Education will adjourn to Executive Session to discuss matters concerning particular persons. The Board will return to public session after Executive Session but will not be taking any action and then will adjourn.

Conduct of Executive Sessions: Upon a majority vote of its total membership, taken in an open meeting pursuant to a motion identifying the general area or areas of the subject or subjects to be considered, a public body may conduct an executive session for the below enumerated purposes only, provided, however, that no action by formal vote shall be taken to appropriate public moneys:

- matters which will imperil the public safety if disclosed;
- any matter which may disclose the identity of a law enforcement agent or informer;

- information relating to current or future investigation or prosecution of a criminal offense which would imperially affect law enforcement if disclosed;
- discussions regarding proposed, pending, or current litigation;
- collective negotiations pursuant to article fourteen of Civil Service Law;
- the medical, financial, credit, or employment history of a particular person or corporation, or matters leading to the appointment, employment, promotion, demotion, discipline, suspension, dismissal or removal of a particular person or corporation;
- the preparation, grading, or administration of exams;
- the proposed acquisition, sale, or lease of real property or the proposed acquisition, sale, or exchange of securities, but only when publicity would substantially affect the value of these things.

With certain limited exceptions, no official action can be taken on issues discussed in executive session without first returning to public session. An exception includes voting on charges against a tenured teacher. No public body, including a school board may vote to appropriate money during an executive session. All members of the board of education, other than a student board member, and any other person authorized by the board may attend an executive session. Thus, only those people invited by the board may attend. It is important that a school board exercise discretion in deciding whom to invite into executive session because of important confidentiality issues. Board members must maintain confidential information acquired in executive session.
