

Greenville Central School

Budget Vote

Tuesday, May 17, 2011

On Tuesday, May 17, 2011 voting on the proposed 2011-2012 School Budget took place in the Elementary School Cafeteria between the hours of 1:00 and 9:00 p.m. Voting was by voting machines. All official figures and papers in connection with the voting are in the official file (FY2011-64, 65). Board President Wilton Bear, Jr. announced that the polls were open at 1:00 p.m.

The following individuals served as Inspectors of Election: Susan Haskin, Johanna Albert, Ashleigh Brandt, Brian Cannon, Sydney Carella, Aidan Grennan, Milissa Silvia, Emily Evans, Erin Kne, Kimberly Herwick, Kristina Vitale, Kelly Olmsted, ShiaLee Ray, Ryan Murphy

The following individuals served on the Board of Voter Registration: Barbara Soldner, Lillian Wood, Kathy Gasper, and George Solder.

At 9:00 p.m. Board President Wilton Bear, Jr. announced that the polls were closed. The registers were counted for the number of people voting and the machines were totaled. District Clerk Jacqueline O'Halloran announced the unofficial results, with the absentee ballots still to be counted. The budget passed.

Seventeen (17) absentee ballots were opened and those results were added to the machine totals. District Clerk, Jacqueline O'Halloran, announced the results of the vote as follows:

Total number voting: (840 machine ballots and 17 absentee ballots)

Proposed budget 2011-2012: YES: 582 NO: 255

Board of Education: (in order as they appeared on the ballot)

Gregory Lampman 630

Rosanne Stapleton 582

Gregory Lampman and Rosanne Stapleton were re-elected to serve three year terms from July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2014

Greenville Library: YES: 531 NO: 285

The Rensselaerville Library did not request additional appropriation for 2011-2012 and will remain at the 2010-2011 appropriation of $20,000.00.

School District Clerk

President Board of Education