St. Patrick's Day

By Austin W.

St. Patrick's Day is a worldwide celebration of Irish Culture on March 17th. It remembers St. Patrick, one of Ireland's patron saints during the fifth century. This holiday is all for fun, so wear lots of green. Remember, no pinching!

March Jokes

By Turner M. & Lilly B.

Q: Why can't you straight iron a four-leaf clover?

A: You don't want to press your luck

Q: What type of bow can't be tied?

A: A rainbow

Q: where can you always find gold?

A: In the dictionary!

Thriving Third

By: Jade C.

The third grade teachers are keeping the students very busy! In Math, the students are looking forward to trying to find the area and perimeter with shapes. In Social Studies, the students will be digging into the geography of Arkansas. Science will look at traits passed down from generation to generation. Last but not least, (my personal favorite!) is English with the students learning about author study and story structure. Hope you have a fantastic month third graders!!!

Fantastic Fourth!

By: Emerson G.

In the lucky month of March, the fantastic fourth will be having a wonderful month! In Science, they will be learning weathering and erosion! In Math, they will start geometry and angles. In Literacy, informational writing and tall tales will be the focus. Lastly, in Social Studies, they will discover the Louisiana Purchase and the Trail of Tears!

Famous Fifth!

By: Lauren I.

In March, the subjects will be very interesting! Math will be learning about fractions. In Literacy, the students will study argumentative writing, the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and founding documents. In Social Studies, they will be learning about the Revolution, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights. Science will be very fun! This will be all about cells. I think that 5th grade will enjoy the song that teaches you about cells. I'm sure you'll want to sing along! I think March will be fun for fifth grade!

Awesome Activity

By: Brayden W.

In the month of March, the activity teachers have some neat things to do up their sleeve. In P.E., Coach Bell will have us doing the Fitnessgram pacer test like the sit up test, push up test, the flexibility test etc. In Music, the musical Mrs. Mosley will be letting the kids do keyboards and learn notes, chords, key signatures, and playing with accompaniments. In Art, Ms. Turner will continue paper mache and most grades will start painting theirs. In Library, Mrs. Casey will be teaching us about internet safety. She has a friendly reminder- Charlie May Simon and Diamond books are due after Spring Break, and Off The Shelf is due May 5th.

Super Sixth

By: Victoria M.

In the month of March, Sixth grade will be still reading and target narrative writing. Sixth grade will also be fixing grammar throughout many things. In Math, we will be learning about inequalities and numberlines. In Science, the students will be finishing space and diving into the body system! Finally, Social Studies will move past the Ancient World and begin to explore

SCIENCE FAIR

BY LILLY B

The science fair experiments are coming to an end, and the glue and tape will be coming out to build a fabulous board to showcase the experiments. All projects are due March 9. They will be judged on March 16. The winners will get their awards at SIS CSI night on March 30. There will be 4 categories: Earth Physical, Animal, and Plant. The top 3 winners will go to regionals. Good the Middle Ages.

luck to all the entries!!
