Handbook changes for 2022-23 (First reading)

We will vote next month, there are still changes to be made.

Information:

Mr. Rademacher talked to Ron Soderstrom regarding a resource officer. They are hard to come by and he thinks it is headed to private security in the future. We might be able to get a resource officer going through Rossville police since Bismarck does not have police for our town.

Rossville village board and Bismarck village board would have to approve this. In Rossville they pay 80% for resource officer and the village pays 20%.
