Administrative Update

- Nurse Kelly working on a grant to pay for vape detectors for restrooms.
- The combined BHJH/BHRA Christmas concert was a great success. We had an excellent crowd.
- Current Spanish APPL test scores presented. Still have some students finishing up testing.
  - APPL test is an aptitude test for Spanish.
  - Students may earn a seal of biliteracy that is attached to their diploma and transcript.
  - Scores so far are great.
- Key Club continues to raise their volunteer hours.
- Currently wrapping up the fall semester.

- Christmas tournaments at the building December 27, 28, & 29.

Did you know?

- Received a thank you from the U of I for allowing pre-student teachers to visit in Mrs. Guminski's class.
- We will have 2 student teachers in the building next semester. One with Coach Dodd and one with Mrs. Guminski.
- Landon Potter was named student of the month. Landon has done a remarkable job keeping up with his work while facing the adversities he has had the past year.

Building update

- Science Labs - Meeting Wednesday
  - Numbers were really high
  - Working on getting new numbers from local contractors
- Concessions Building
  - Colors have been chosen - Blue siding & charcoal roof
  - Plan to put the same blue siding on the dugouts
  - Meeting with architects & FBI buildings on Thursday.

Motion made by Steve Lane and seconded by Robert Danner to approve the resignation and allow the transition to volunteer coach of Harley Grubb as Assistant Wrestling Coach.
