In Memory of . . .

Joseph Allen Bray
September 15, 1983
March 17, 1997

In My Memory

In my memory will be Joey,
In my memory he will be.
His laugh, his smile to cheer up the day will always stay with me.
In my memory will be Joey,
In my memory he will be.
His jokes, his love for fun and always thinking of everyone.
In my memory will be Joey,
In my memory he will always be.
So think of him when you laugh and say. . .
"Please remember me."

- Marinna Robinson
8th Grade

Joey displays a prized find - a sea urchin. Joey loved the seashore.

Oh boy, cake!
Joey was an active member of the local Boy Scouts.

Joey looks over the front seat during one of the family road trips.

" Would you know my name, if I saw you in Heaven? Would you be the same, if I saw you in Heaven? I must be strong, and carry on, 'cause I know there'll be no more, tears in heaven."

- Eric Clapton
Tears in Heaven

Sweet innocence, so quickly stolen from our lives, not yet a mere eight years of age, the vibrant life of this special soul was taken away. Now, close to ten years later, those of us who got to have a glimpse of Abby while she was alive remember her for that lock of bangs that always hung across her eye, or her amazing ability and love for skiing. For those of you who didn't get that chance, she could have become your lab partner, the class clown, a fellow team member, or your best friend. The answers to the questions asked by Eric Clapton in Tears in Heaven, I know, would be
"yes", and "yes", because Abby would remember us, just as we remember her. She was an unbelievable child and an indescribable friend with the potential to have done great things as part of the class of 2001. On June 4th, 1991, we on earth, lost someone special, and Heaven got a new angel.
All my love Abby Marie -

"We cherish every memory
we have of being with you.
Above all else, the thought of your smile and laughter remains in our hearts."

One of the new high school fads is belly button rings. Kaylee Cooper shows off her fashionable belly ring.

Fads, fads, and more fads. Take your pick, at a price.

Different fads happen every year - from the seventies bell bottoms to the nineties big baggy jeans, from nobody trusting body piercings, to getting anything pierced!

Although eyebrow rings are not as popular as belly button rings, a few people are willing to try out this new fad. Ashley Sharifian is one of those few.

Bunches of bracelets are another fad at school this year, just as Courtney Levesque is showing us.

Pat Brown is sticking his tongue out to show another fad at Hermon High. Even though tongue rings may look gross, they are still a popular fad.

Marcia Fieger proudly shows her tongue ring.

FADS

Fads this year include belly button rings to tongue rings, and wearing a million bracelets on your arm. Every year it's something different. We can only imagine what's next.

Dances

Reid Frye and Gavin Speaker look as shy as can be in order to catch all the ladies' eyes.

Mike MacDonald and Tonya Laughlin get close while dancing at the Hermon High Winter Solstice.

Harold Sherwood and Brad Spratt look pretty sure of themselves, but can they really dance?

Amber Smith and Carlos Graves are trying to decide if they want to get up and shake their boodies or stay close and snuggle.

Lindsay Duplisea, Taren MacDonald and Josh Danforth still remain close even though they all came with different dates. These friends are inseparable.

Jason Ouellette is the man you will see dancing or being the famous DJ of HHS. You can always count on him to have a variety of music on hand.

Hangouts

Places to go, People to meet, Always on the go.....

Gotta' love those "cheap seats". $1.00 on Tuesdays! Movie City - where you can be scared out of your wits, fall in love, or just have a great time with friends.

Ummmmm good. Remember those late night snacks, and the friends we met there?

Jason Shorey

Freshman

"I remember at Hermon Mountain when my friend rolled all the way down."

Megan Garland & Jessie Wiggin

Sophomore

" We remember one night at Dysart's when a bunch of us were sitting around and talking and, oh yeah, 'Hey Shane, how long did it take to clean up that water!?!' "

Chad Spann & Wayne Shaw

Junior

"We remember at Movie City Cinemas when 21 Hermon students went and saw 'What Lies Beneath'. Bub Mayhew fell asleep during the movie and started snoring."

Carrie Butterfield

Senior

"I remember when we all went to Denny's after the senior play. We took up half of the restaurant for hours and Kaylee and I kept playing oldies songs on the jukebox."

Dysart's is probably the most common place for students to congregate. It's close to home, warm inside, and the atmosphere is friendly.

Miami North - Wanna' play pool?

Located on Main Street in Bangor, the Bounty has provided many hours of dancing fun and socializing. Have you ever danced on the speakers?

Skiing, snowboarding, just having a ball with your friends. The weather outside may be frightful, but we don't care, as long as we are there.

STRIKE! SPARE! Those stupid bowling shoes! But for some reason we kept going back. Maybe it was the food?

What can we say about the Bangor Mall? We work there, meet friends there, hang out there, and of course shop there.

Spirit Week

October 10 - October 13, 2000

At the Spirit Week Pep Rally, Seniors Nick Bemis and Sasha Bladen blow by Juniors Briana Bruce and Kevin Goodspeed, who are leaving Freshmen and Sophomores in the dust.

Who's the Hermon Hawk? Could it be Lucas Brewer?

The Senior Hall..... #1....need we say more?

Juniors Katie Vashon, Noelle O'Clair, Erin Lucey and Natalie Bell spend some after school time preparing their hall for the Spirit Week competition. Although they fell a bit short of First Place (Seniors) they did an outstanding job!

Spend a quarter to throw a creme pie in a teacher's face. Have fun, it's all part of Spirit Week. Thank you teachers.

This lawn painting mysteriously appeared during Spirit Week. The creators of this masterpiece have remained anonymous until...NOW! See their story below.

Adam Goodspeed stands proudly beneath the Hermon Hawk which he designed and created for the Senior hall.

The Midnight Lawn Painters

"It wasn't me! It wasn't me!"

- Summer Pratt.

"It's all fun and games, until the cops show up."

- Scott Webb

"The Midnight Lawn Painting for Senior Pride was worth being carded at Wal-Mart for the paint."

- Jessica Noyes

"Would you expect anything less than the biggest and the best from the seniors?!"

- Carrie Butterfield

"It was the night of October 10, 2000 - 9:00 PM -when Summer Pratt, Jessica Noyes, and Carrie Butterfield, dressed all in camouflage, and led by the sneaky Scott Webb, stealthily scaled the steep lawn bank along the school driveway, and there they proceeded, using blue, gold, silver and white paint, to paint their senior pride for the world to see." - Marinna Robinson siblings...

sharing a room, sharing toys, riding together in the back seat of the car, fighting for the front seat, who gets the bigger allowance, who gets the car, hugging, caring...as children we competed and picked on each other but as we grow older we learn to compromise and protect each other - brothers and sisters.

It's obvious that the freshmen inherited their good looks from their senior siblings. Adam Duplisea, Lindsay Duplisea, Michelle Burgess, Ashley Burgess, Josh Danforth, Brett Danforth.

Sophomore Alisa Pottle and senior Sonya Pottle - junior Parker Roberts and senior Paul Roberts. See any resemblance?

"What is the best thing about having a sibling in the school?"

"The best thing about having my sister in high school with me is so I can protect and watch over her."

Mandy Rayot
Junior

"I like having a sister in this school, because I always have a ride!"

Ashley Burgess
Freshman

"The best thing about having a sister in high school is borrowing her clothes, and having her bring me where I want to go."

Kylee Butterfield
Sophomore

Would you have guessed?

Siblings? Who would have guessed? They don't look alike or anything....L to R, T to B: Mandy & Misty Rayot, Angie & Christy Stokes, Carrie & Kylee Butterfield, Scott & Adam Webb, & Matt & Scott Riendeau.

The Shorey brothers - Josh and Jason. Back to back through Josh's senior year.

The creative and artistic ability is being passed down the line from senior Liz Perkins (center) to junior Gabby Williams (left) and finally to freshman Phil Williams.

Good thing this is Harold Sherwood's last year at HHS or his sister Desirae may think of transferring to another school!

Nick Moulton and Mr. Bennage? Yup. They're brothers. For real.

"What is the worst thing about having a sibling in school?"

"The worst thing about having my brother in the same school is all of his girl friends giggle when they see me."

Joshua Danforth
Senior

"The worst thing about having my sister in school is that she's always ready and willing to point out my faults."

Stephanie Schreiber
Senior

"The worst part about having my sister go to the same school is she always knows when I'm doing something wrong."

Harold Sherwood
Senior

"Teens have changed a lot since I started teaching. More teens are working and having to juggle their schedules. This means there is less time spent with family, and students have more money to spend on clothes and entertainment. Because many of the students have vehicles, they are more mobile."
