3. How will your school provide information to parents about volunteer opportunities (must include state mandated parent training)?

Teachers will be required to have the state mandated 2 hours of parental involvement training, and administrators will receive the 3 hours of parental involvement training.

The school will provide examples of use of and provide information to parents to allow them to access the Department of Education website tools for parents.

We will also provide access to assistance with nutritional meal planning and preparation as well as other appropriate informational support appropriate for our community that has been approved by the Department of Education.

4. How will your school work with parents to create a School-Parent-Compact?

The principal will work with staff and parents to create a School-Parent-Compact.

5. How will your school provide opportunities for parents to be involved in the development, implementation and evaluation of the school wide school improvement plan, and the Annual Title I Meeting to engage them in the decision-making processes regarding the school's Title I, Part A Program?

Creating an alumni advisory committee will be taken under consideration to help in providing advice and guidance for school improvement.

A Parent Teacher Association or organization that will foster parental and community involvement within the school will be allowed to form and advise/coordinate with school efforts.

6. How will your school provide resources for parents?

Informational packets will be distributed that include information about school communication and family engagement. There will also be an opportunity for parents to fill out surveys to show their interests in volunteer opportunities. Any parent/family engagement activities planned for the year will be announced through various channels in an effort to inform all parents.

Maintain our parent center by continuing to purchase and update information available to parents. Inform parents of the location of the center and times of operation.

We will include in the school's handbook policies the school's process for resolving parental concerns, including how to define a problem, whom to approach first, and how to develop solutions.

A certified staff member who is willing to serve as a parent facilitator will be designated by the principal.

7. How will your school engage parents in the evaluation of your parent and family engagement efforts?

As part of the annual evaluation of the Title I, Part A Program's parent and family engagement efforts teachers, parents and school staff will fill out a comprehensive needs assessment survey. The Title I committee will use results from the survey to determine the effectiveness of the parent and family engagement plan and make changes if warranted. In addition to collecting evidence about the satisfaction with the current program information will also be collected to document growth in parent participation, needs, effectiveness of specific strategies and the level of parental engagement in activities that support academic growth in students.

8. How will your school use the parent interest surveys to select, plan and implement parent and family engagement activities that will be offered throughout the year?

Parents will be given an opportunity to fill out a parent interest survey at the end of each school year to get information about what activities they felt were most beneficial in the efforts to support their child academically. It will also allow for input for suggestions of other activities that parents would like to see.

The school will use the results of the parent interest survey will be used to plan the parent and family engagement activities for the following year.

The school will evaluate the activities that were suggested by the parents at the end of the year as part of the annual parent and family engagement plan evaluation.

The school will have informative meetings/seminars to give the parents of high school students information about how to help in the decisions affecting course selection, career planning, and preparation for post-secondary opportunities.

9. When will your school plan the Annual Title I Meeting that must be conducted separately? (It CANNOT be held in conjunction with any other meetings or activities.)

The school will conduct an Annual Title I Meeting for parents of the students who participate in the Title I, Part A Program. This meeting will provide descriptions of school curriculum and provide information about academic assessments and expected proficiency levels. These meetings will have an agenda, sign-in sheet and minutes that will be kept on file.

*After completion of this form, the school should to the district for review, feedback, and approval. Once approved, the school is required to post their School Parent Plan on their website.
