

Mrs. Barsanti's Class News 9/30/19

Reading

Theme- Critter Cribbs! Week 2- so much to do!

Skills- 3.RI.1 Ask and answer questions to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as a basis for answers

Vocabulary- Word-a-Day: locate, possessions, significant, ascend

Social Studies

Vocabulary- human-environment interaction, population, segregation
3.G 1.4 Explain how the movement of goods, people and ideas impact the community.

Writing

Skill- Using a Thinking Map

Genre- Narrative

Homework

Monday- Thursday: Read for at least 15 minutes and complete the section for the day on the homework page. Get planners signed!

Featured Writer of the Week Mackenzie Styons

In the beginning of summer, we were playing outside. My mom was reading her book and Kerigan and I were playing tag. Then our ride finally showed up. It was one flying Pegasus! There was only one because I was the only one who knew how to control a horse. We flew up into the clouds. Above the clouds were all of the Greek Gods- Neila the Moon Guardian and shine the Sun Guardian were my favorite, so I ran over to them. Unfortunately, Mom forgot her phone, so I didn't get to take a picture.

I saw Neila put the moon in the sky and Shine make the sun rise. We got to go in Neila's group of future goddesses and gods. We were on Mt. Olympus with gods and goddesses! I couldn't believe it!

The first thing we did was race Pegasus. I won! Then we had a contest to see who could throw a lightning bolt down the best. We went to see the original Pegasus in Zeus' stables. Zeus even let us throw down lightning to make a storm! He made all the thunder and rain.

Then an evil spirit came in! "AHHHH!" all the gods and goddesses screamed. Zeus and Hera, the lead god and goddess ran over. "Be gone, Hades," they shouted. He told me to come. I didn't want to go, but I was afraid he would strike me with lightning if I didn't. We all said, "Be gone, Hades!" Our eyes lit up and we started floating! Hades went away. "Yay!" everybody screamed. I guess I'm a goddess, I said to myself. That was the end of my trip and my story.

