Class Song

(TUNE: MY HAPPINESS)

We will miss you Dear ole Jones
Because of all the things you've done
We can ne'er express our thanks
Dear Jones to you.

When we are all far away
Will you ever think of us?
In you we will always trust
Dear Jones in you.

(Chorus)

We'll think of daily guides
You have given to each of us
Remembering you always
As a friend so true and so brave.

We are very proud of you
You have done your very best
Now we'll gladly do the rest
Honoring Dear Ole Jones.

Mamie Lucille Muldrow

Class Poem

Our fight here in Jones is over
But the battle has just begun;
We must keep on fighting
Until the Victory is won,

We must keep on striving
Until we reach our shinning goal;
What the future holds for us is untold.

To our comrades as we from
Dear ole Jones go,
Let us strive to live so that the World may see,
The fruits of truth and honesty.

Let us face the future, striving
Always to build, upon the foundation
Of learning we here received.
Let us ever be observers of the Golden rule, taught us here in the
Dear old Jones High School.

Out from Dear ole Jones we go,
Pushing on with that "Don't quit will,"
We have labored, toiled, and struggled
Trying to reach the top of the hill
So Farewell Dear Ole Jones,
We'll see you another day,
As we drift far apart, alone down the way.

CLASS HISTORY

We, the Seniors of 1949 have finally reached one of the highest peaks of our lives. In our great struggle of securing the historical backgrounds of our class, we have found that this information is worth remembering. As we delve into the worn recordings of the Senior Class, it all began one sunny morning in the first grade of Scipio A. Jones School in the year of 1937.

Our First Grade teacher was Mrs. E. V. Anderson. Among this group were: Willie Lee Golden, Elouise Higgins, Freddie Mae Givens, Peggie J. Henderson, Mamie L. Muldrow, Herbert L. Wesley, and Andrew Stephens.

In our struggle through grammar school, we were joined later by Mildred Mackston, Neomah Moore, Dorothy Cross, Frederick Smith, Robert Williams, Albert Lee Sims, and Mable J. Anderson.

In September, 1944, we started another perfectly new experience, "Our High School Career." Beginning with the Seventh grade, our Home-room Teachers were: Mrs. Ruth Smith and Mr. U. S. Harris. Here we were joined with Mattie Grace Woodard, Mildred Woods, Marceil Marshall, Jerline Williams, Mary Lee Jones, William McFadden, Linwood Mahone, Willie Pearl Wisham, Dorothy Jean Moss, Arelia Rose Jackson, Lowayne Nash, Vivian Dupins, Edward Dupins, Ora Lane and Charles Gray.

We continued on, later, we were joined in the Eighth Grade with Audrey L. Jackson, Bernie Anderson, Belle Murphy, Lawrence James, Leroy Terrell, William F. Williams, and Gladys Smith.

We were joined in the 11th Grade with Earnestine Williams, Mae Ella Jordan, and Minnie Bynum. With Mrs. V. R. Robinson as our sponsor, we gave the Seniors of 1948 a wonderful prom and banquet to express our sincere and very good wishes to them in the future.

In our Senior year, our class was increased by an addition of one member, Ruby Neal.

There are two graduates from the evening school, they are: Mrs. Golden C. Byrd and Miss Dorothy Mae Greenwood.

There are 26 veterans graduating from the Veteran School. Our educational beginning varied. Our total number of seven have passed their entire school career at Jones, while thirty-five of the group have entered from various ward-schools of this city. The number was distributed as follows:

George Washington Carver	11
Hill Side	6
East End	4

The remaining twenty were transferred to Jones from various parts of Arkansas and other states of the great Southwest.

The most coveted honor of the school goes every year to the Senior Class, from which is selected the young lady to be crowned Miss Scipio A. Jones, and her escort.

Willie Lee Golden and Mamie Lucille Muldrow were given the honor of being crowned Mr. and Miss Jones of 1948-49.

CLASS PROPHECY

I see the year 1969 approaching. Although it is generally known that I possess the remarkable power of projecting myself forward through the years into any given time in which I am interested. Tonight, being restless and weary with the cares of the day, I longed for a change of scene and time.

So closing my eyes and relaxing, I wished myself into the public library of this town, twenty years from now. I found myself in the reference room of a magnificent new building. As I glaced at the shelves, my eyes were attracted by a thin little volume. Taking it down, I saw the title was Class Prophecy 1949, Scipio A. Jones High School. Eagerly, I turned the pages and read the preface. When I saw how interesting it was, I fled back into the Now, bringing the book with me. As I must hurry into the future again, in an hour, before the book is missed, I shall read it aloud to you. I am certain you will be interested.

Robert Williams, three times Governor of the State of Arkansas, is leader of the new progressive party. His motto is "All for one and that one is me"; was candidate for the presidency last year and defeated by one vote cast by his Campaign Manager.

Miss Belle Murphy, former coach of the Jones High Dragonettes, has been offered a contract with the Chicago Bears.

Linwood Mahone studied theology over a period of seven years, he is now pastor of the largest Methodist Church in Chicago, Ill.

In New York City, I saw a sign which read Mable's Beauty Salon owner and operated by Mable Jean Anderson.

William McFadden always did like sports, but I never thought he would be head football coach at the University of Idaho.

It was really a surprise to know that Mae Ella Jordan was one of the Highest paid teachers of English at Fisk University.

Freddie Mae Givens has succeeded and accomplished her aim to be a nurse, and is the best at University Hospital in Little Rock, Arkansas.

While dancing in a exclusive Ball Room, I found that it was owned by Frederick D. Smith, A New York play boy worth millions.

Dorothy Mae Cross, a premiere dansease of the Japanese Dancers, the Chinese Ballet, and the Topeka Tap Dancers, married and divorced three times, introduced the popular ballroom steps, the grapevine glide and the thistledown float has a wonderful hobby. It is: Prevention of corns.

While reading the sports page in my daily paper, I read where Herbert Wesley and William McFadden pitched and hit the ball, to lead the Brooklyn Dogers to a second world series in the last three seasons.

Arelia Jackson decided to be an old maid and never get married. She lives on her income from the largest night club in Reno, Nevada.

Jerline Williams went to work in a rug factory. She now nows the largest place and has hired Earnestine Williams as her assistant.

While in New York City, I saw Capt. Willie Lee Golden of the Los Angeles Rams Football team run two touchdowns against the New York Yankees.

Marcell Marshall after marching down the aisle in Holy Matrimony with Curtis Walker, is living in Cleveland, Ohio.

Because Dorothy Moss was so interested in Shorthand, she wrote a book of her own, now most of the leading schools use Moss's Shorthand Book, instead of Mr. Gregg's.

Elouise Higgins married a very prosperous man. She has been happy ever since.

In a recent tour over the State of Colorado, I heard that Lawrence James had completed his study of foreign languages and is now Professor of Foreign Language at the University of Colorado.

Mattie Grace Woodard received her Master's Degree and is teaching Science at the University of Canada.

Ora Lane, sixtieth president of the United States, elected by the Independent Party. She has been mayor of her town three times, United States Senator Two terms, United States Senator two terms, sponsored the bills for disfranchising saxophone players, radio crooners, and talkative fishermen, noted for her unique foreign policy. It has not yet been publicly known as yet and probably never will be. Her Hobby is Crocheting Bathmats.

When I picked up a newspaper I was surprised to read that General Albert Sims led his troops to another victory for the good old U. S. A.

Visiting the University Hospital in Chicago, I saw Bernie Anderson, one of the head nurses there.

I never would have guessed that Peggie Henderson would own and operate a sewing shop. She specializes in "Hard to Fit Women."

Charles Gray went to college, then to law school, he is now the smallest and best detective in Harlem.

Neomah Moore is a stenographer for a large firm in Washington D. C.

Zelmarie Zachery is teaching Bookkeeping in Dallas, Texas.

Willie Pearl Wisham, B.S., A.B., M.A., Ph.D., D.D.S., F.O.B., and S.O.S., Dean of the Dormitory College for Girls for the past ten years, and an educator of note. Author of "What Isn't Wrong With Education" and "How to teach Russian to a Low I. Q., prides herself on having the most expensive and best college in America. Hobby: Failing to pass intelligence tests.

As I was walking down Main street I noticed a sign which read—COMING SOON, LOWAYNE NASH, the Boogie Man.

Mary Lee oJnes took up Beauty Culture. Now she is one of the best Beauticians in Arkansas.

Mildred Mackston is Associate Editor of the "Better Home and Gardens" Magazine.

Ruby Neal turned to music and has written some good songs. Among her best sellers are, "Love Me Forever," and "Kiss Me Again."

Minnie Bynum has majored in English and is now teaching at U. C. L. A. She is living with her husband in a fine two flat.

Audrey Lee Jackson first decided she would go to college. After one year her mind changed, she now lives on Park Hill with her hard working husband and two lovely children.

Edward Dupins owns and manages a huge chain of restaurants known all over the world as the "Eat and Run Restaurant." Selfmade prides himself on his rise from proprietor of a hot dog stand on South street to plate dog stand on South street to owner of one hundred plate glass white front restaurants. He is married to Lizzie, the champion pancake flopper of the state. Hobby: Analyzing hash.

Earlene Farr, married a millionaire playboy in Ohio, and has settled down to him with her two kids is the fair city Cleveland.

Gladys Smith, who always was a good seamstress, now owns a tailor shop in a local city known as Pine Bluff, Ark.

Lional Hampton made a national survey to find two young ladies to sing with his orchestra. Vivian Dupins and Mamie Muldrow won. They now have their own Orchestra and will soon make an appearance at the Robinson Auditorium.

Andrew Stephens has become the highest paid professional Basketball player.

I always thought Leroy Terrell would make a good teacher but to my surprise, he is a millionaire playboy and owns two of the biggest night clubs in New York City and Cleveland.

Mildred Woods wanted to be a nurse, but she fell in love and became a No. 1 Homemaker.

Before returning the Book to its place on the library shelf of the future, may I congratulate the class of 1949 on the brilliant success each of its members is about to achieve and on its famous future.
