

DRAGON

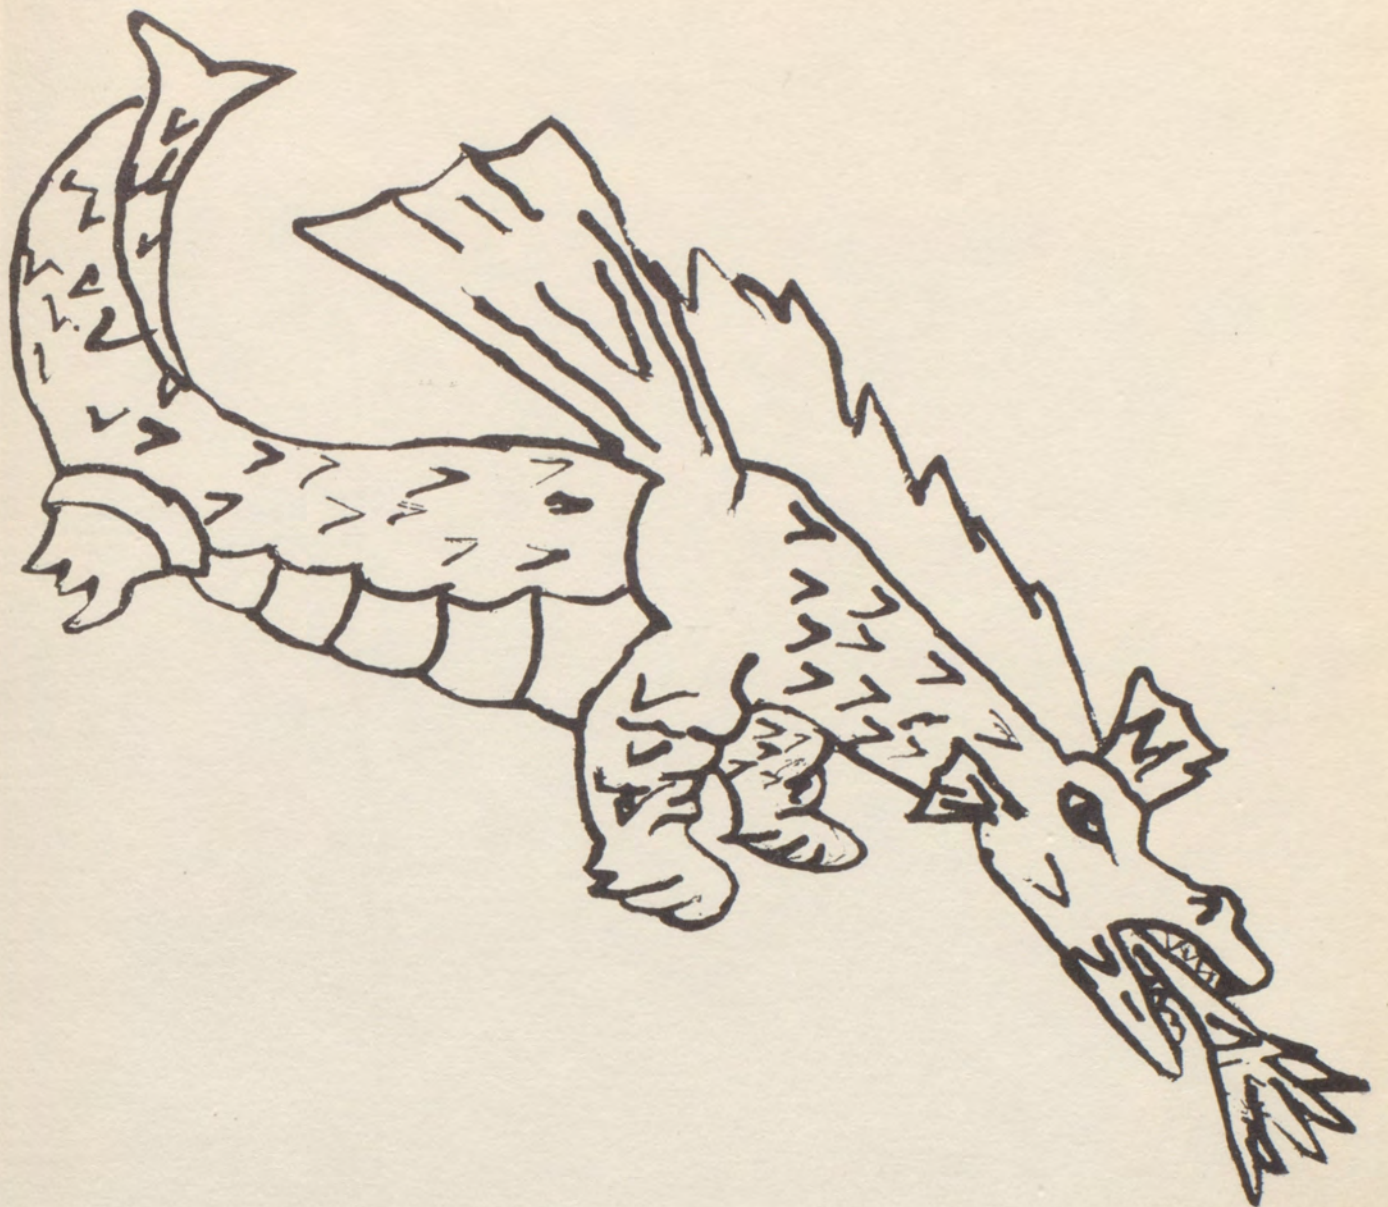

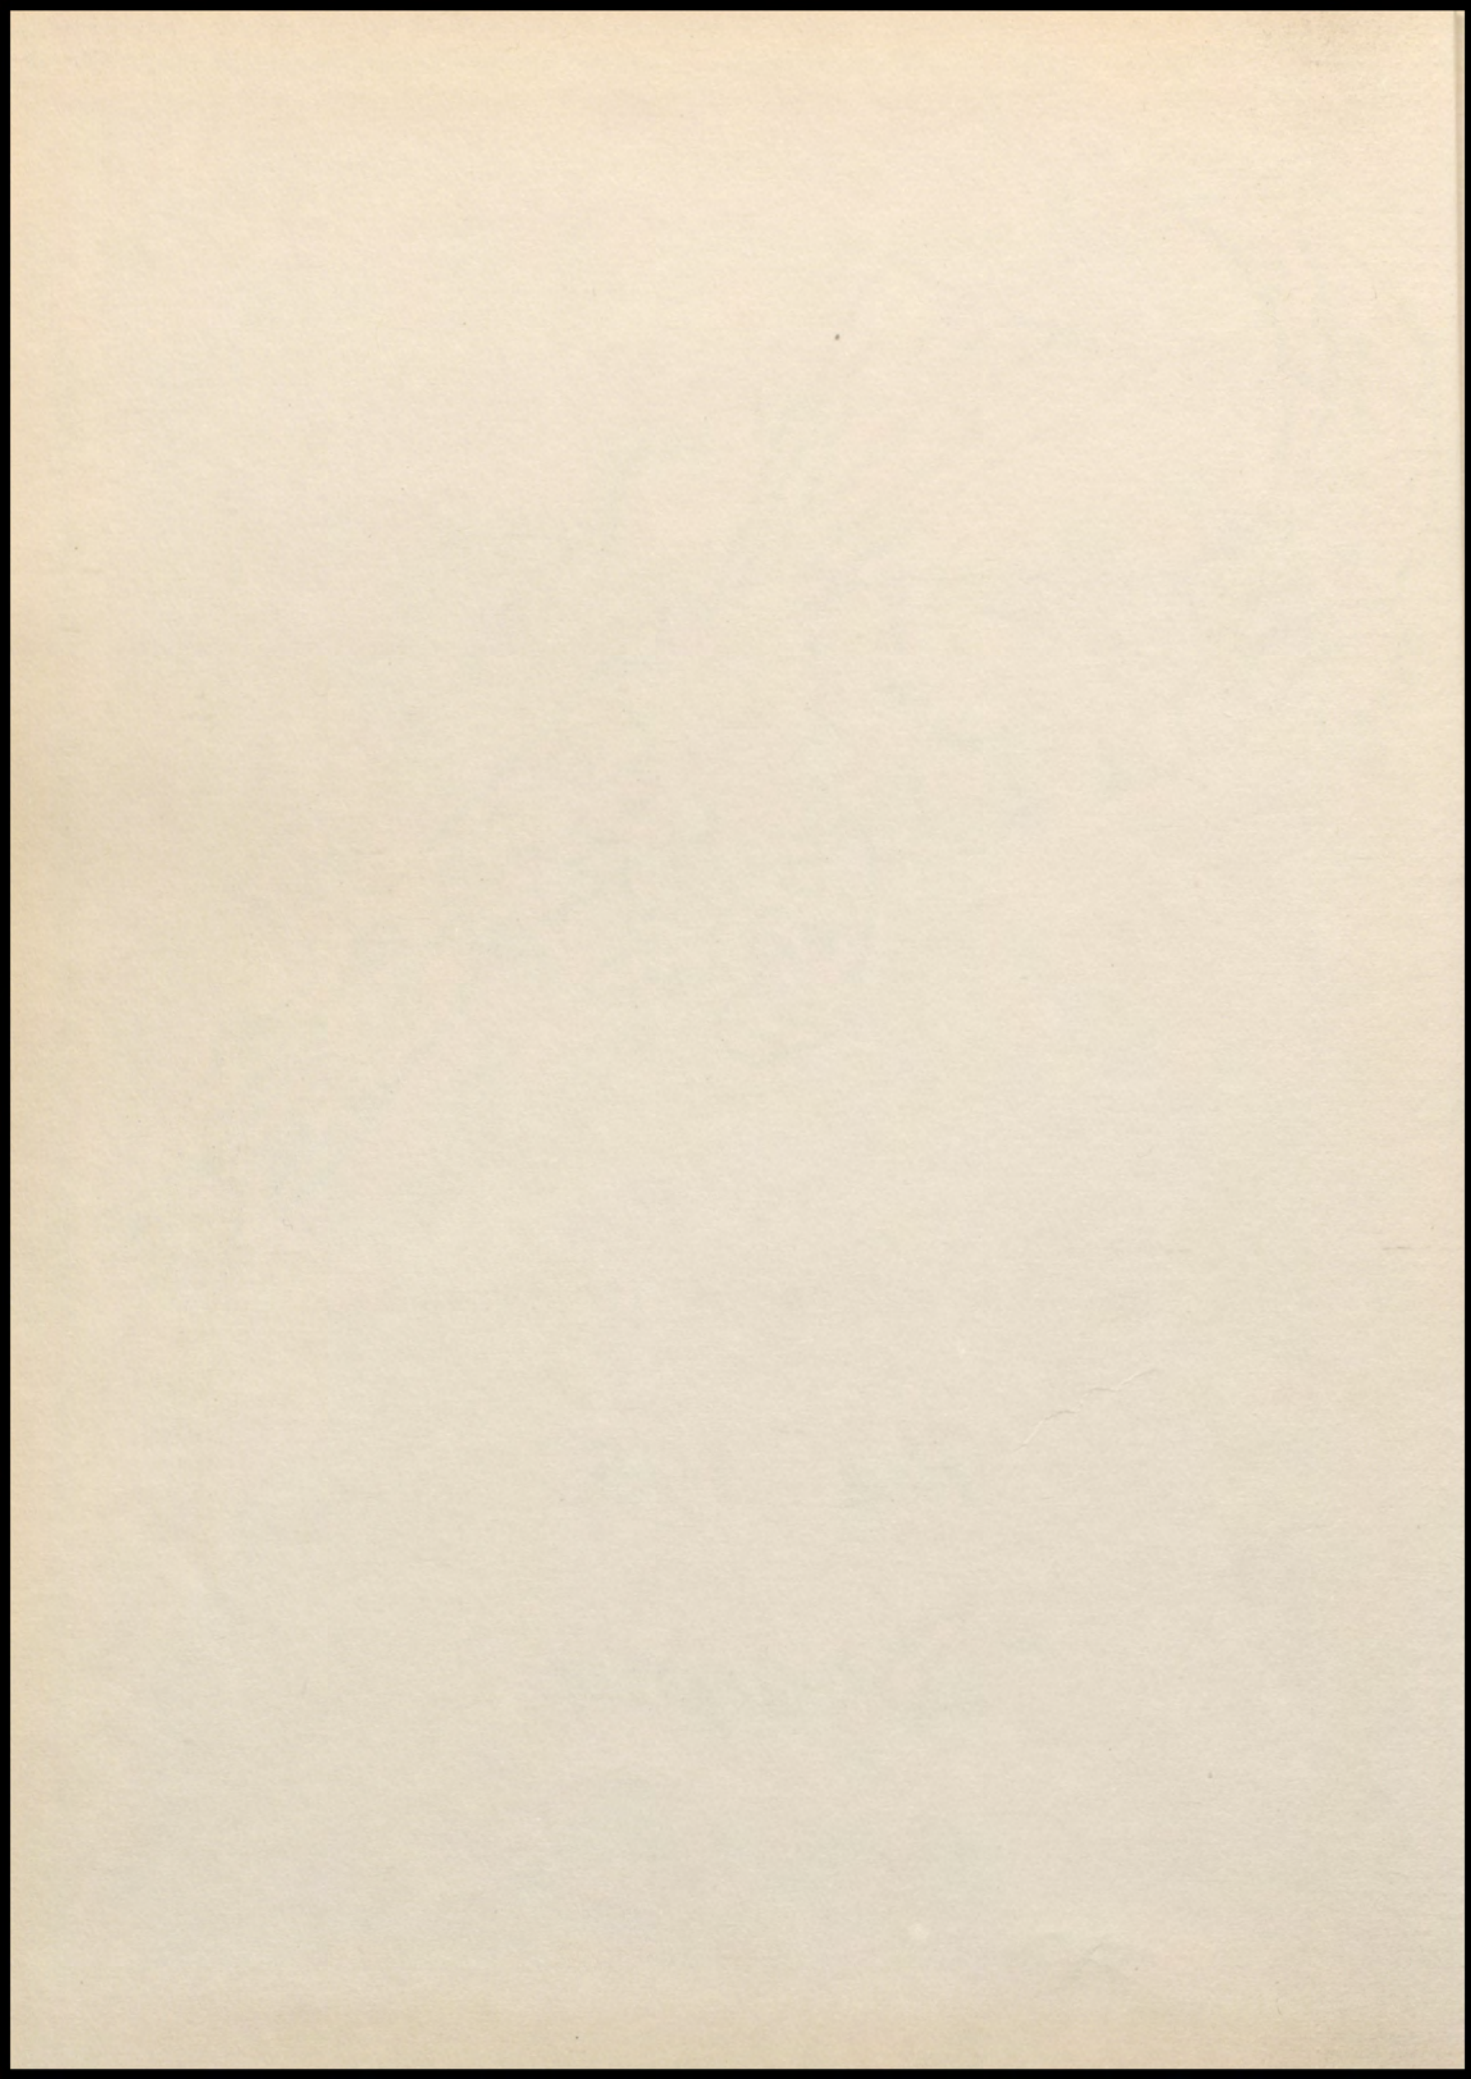

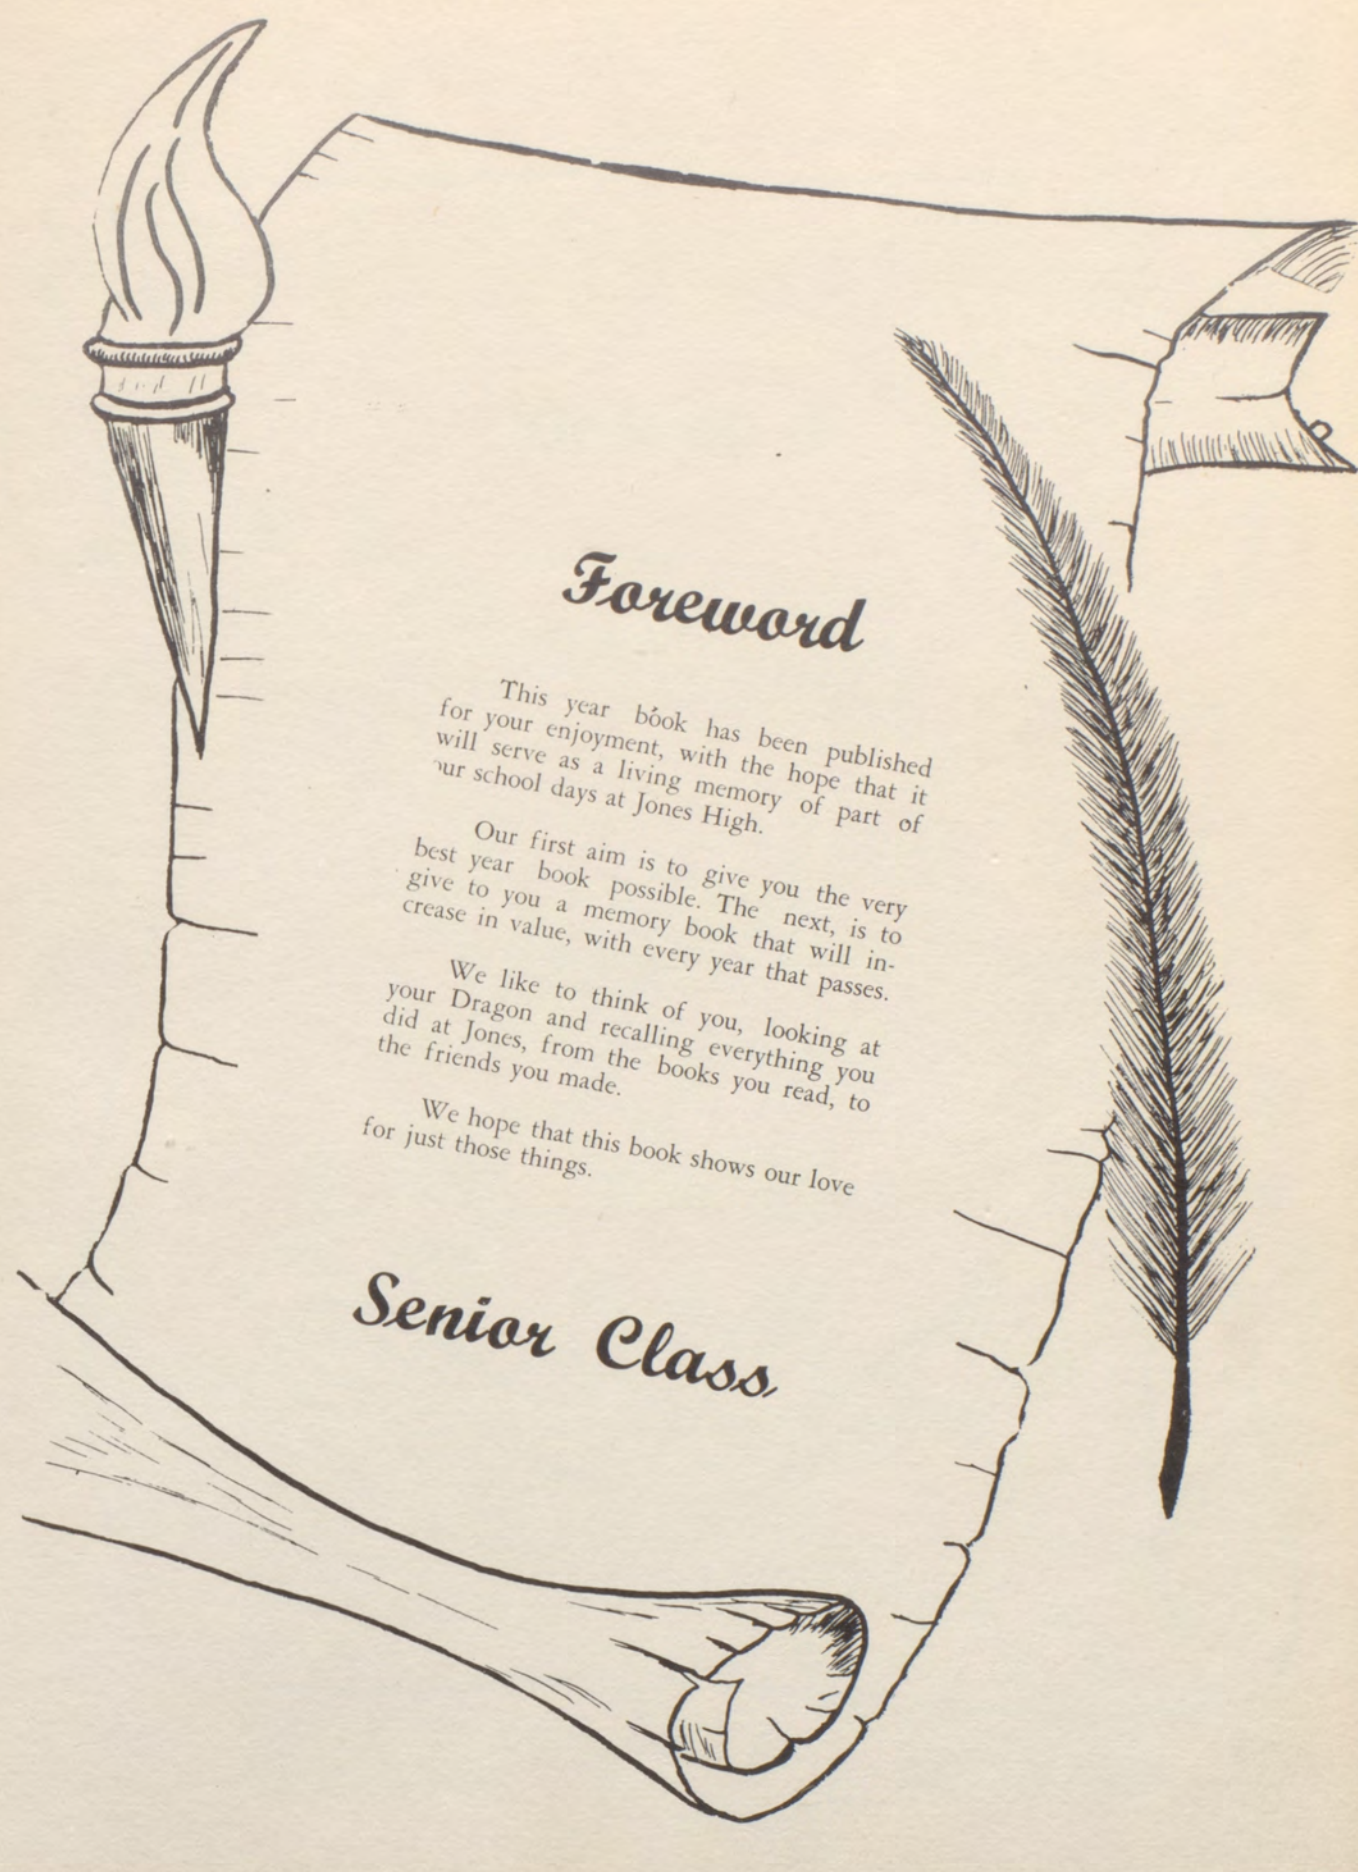

*The 1953
Dragon*

PUBLISHED BY THE SENIOR CLASS OF
SCIPIO A. JONES HIGH SCHOOL
NORTH LITTLE ROCK, ARKANSAS

Foreword

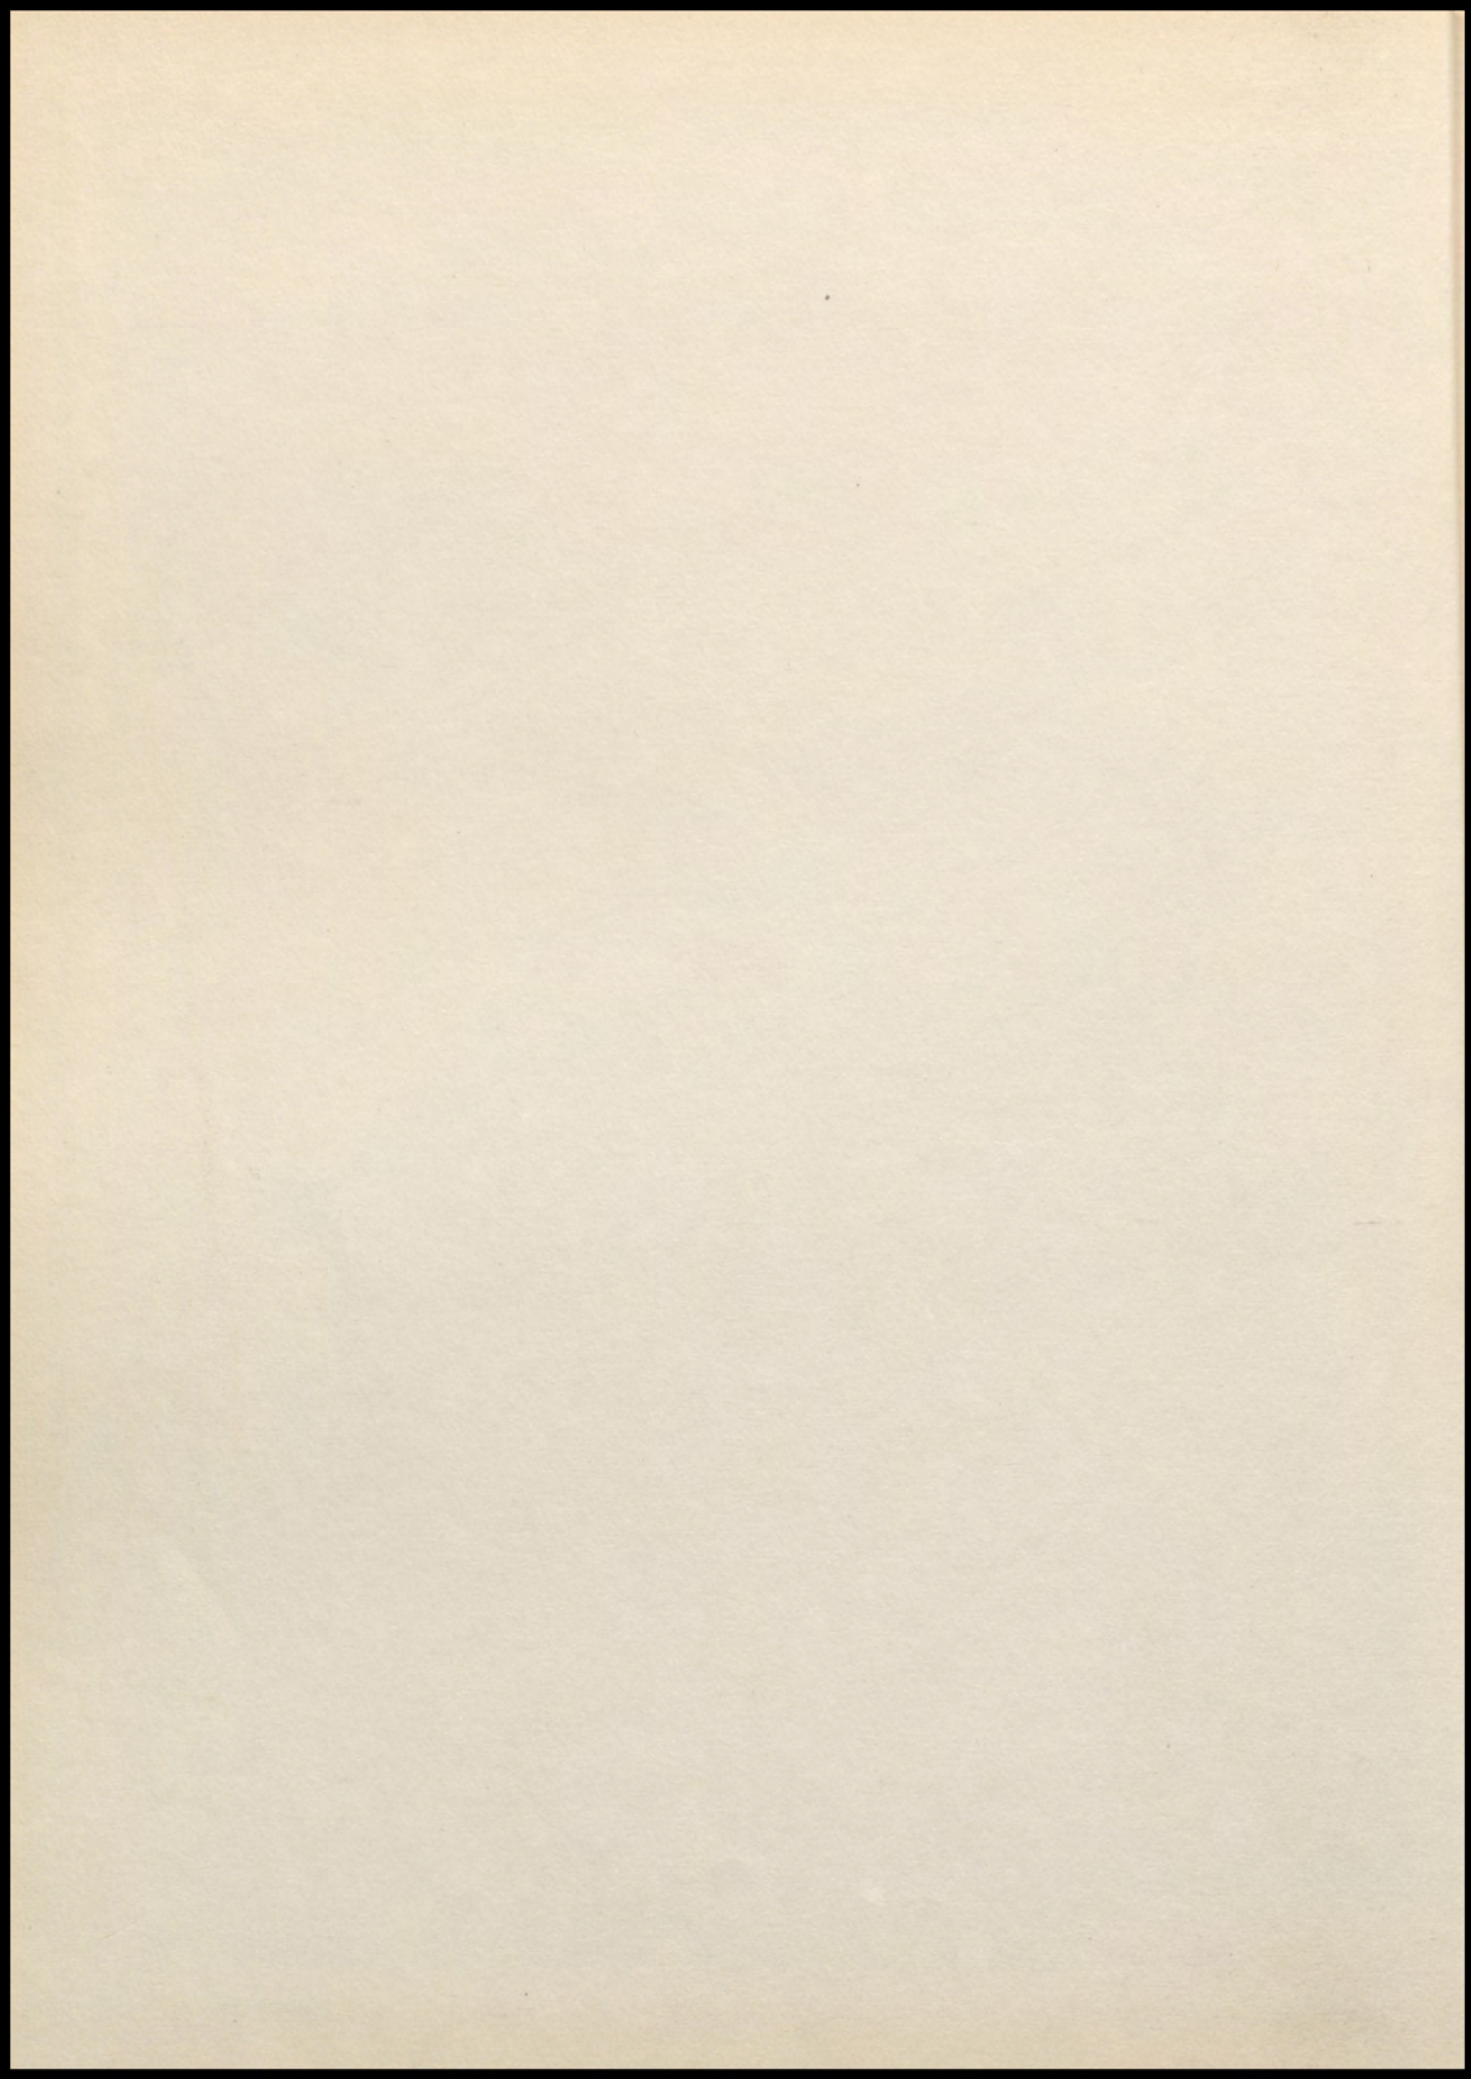

This year book has been published for your enjoyment, with the hope that it will serve as a living memory of part of our school days at Jones High.

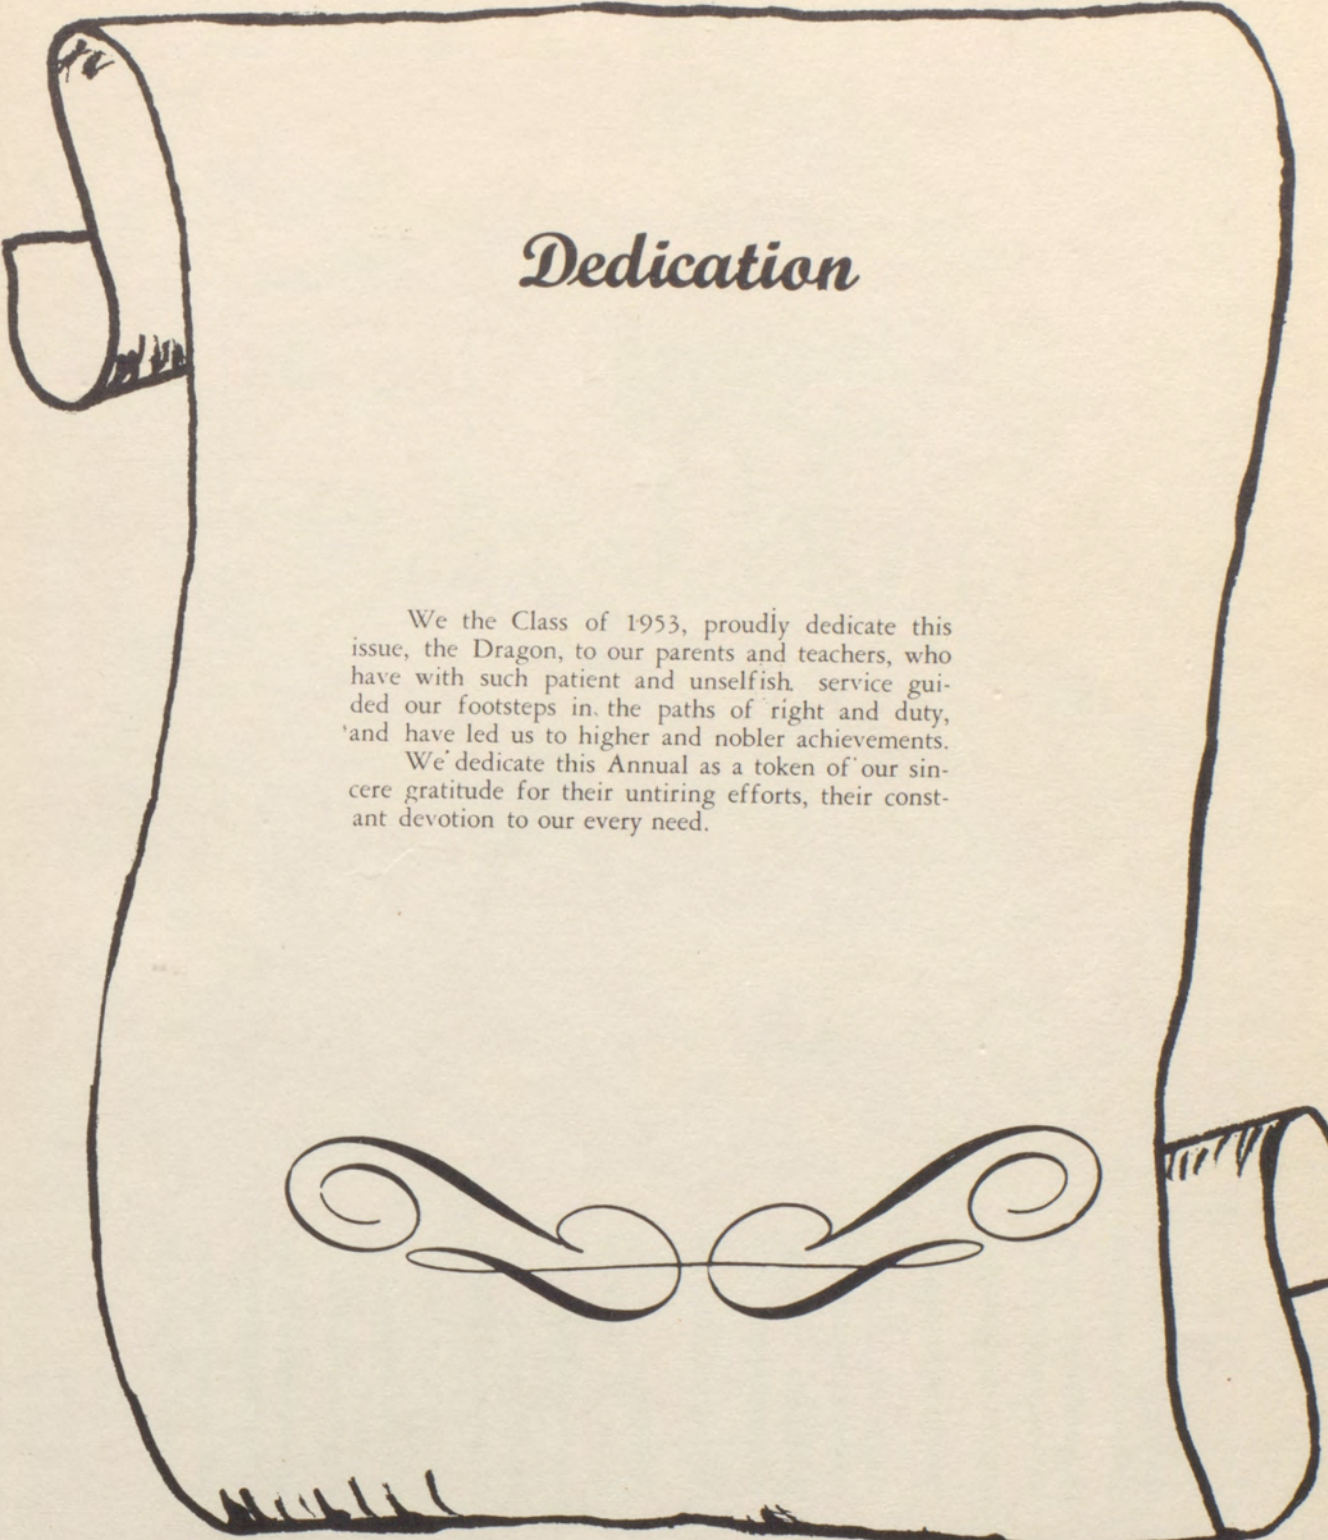

Our first aim is to give you the very best year book possible. The next, is to give to you a memory book that will increase in value, with every year that passes.

We like to think of you, looking at your Dragon and recalling everything you did at Jones, from the books you read, to the friends you made.

We hope that this book shows our love for just those things.

Senior Class

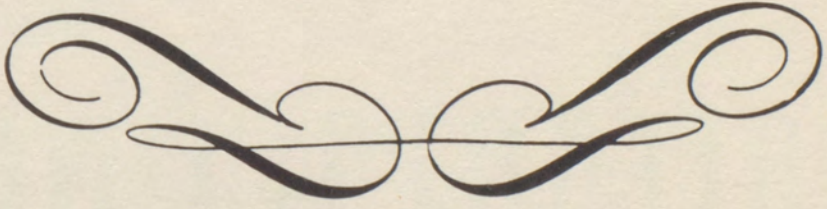

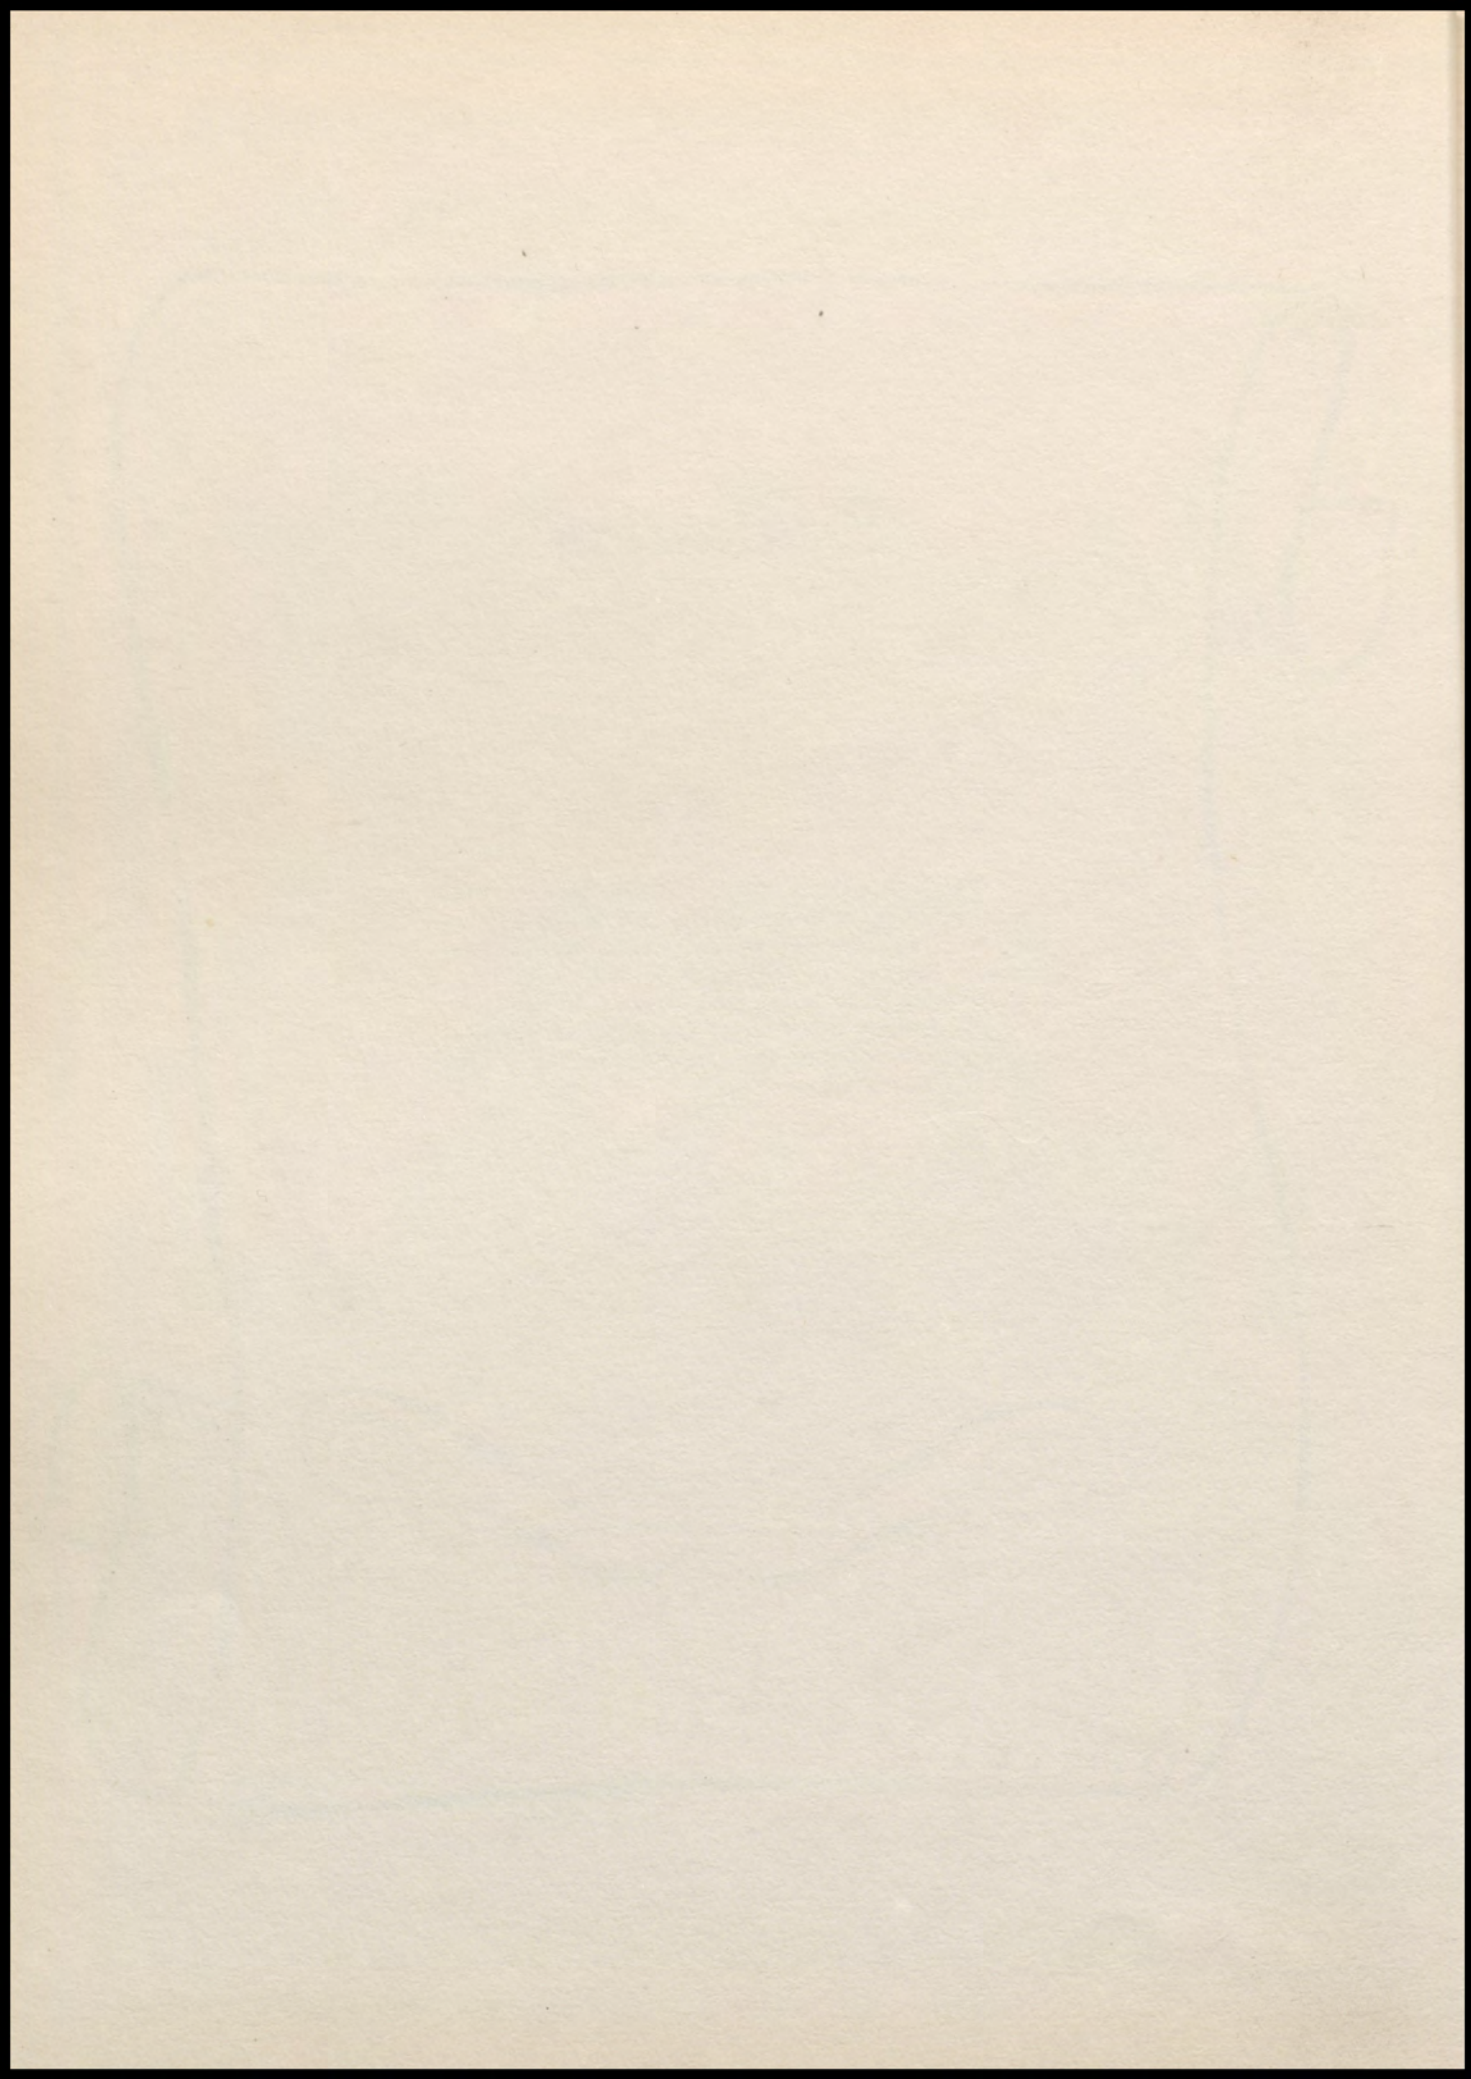

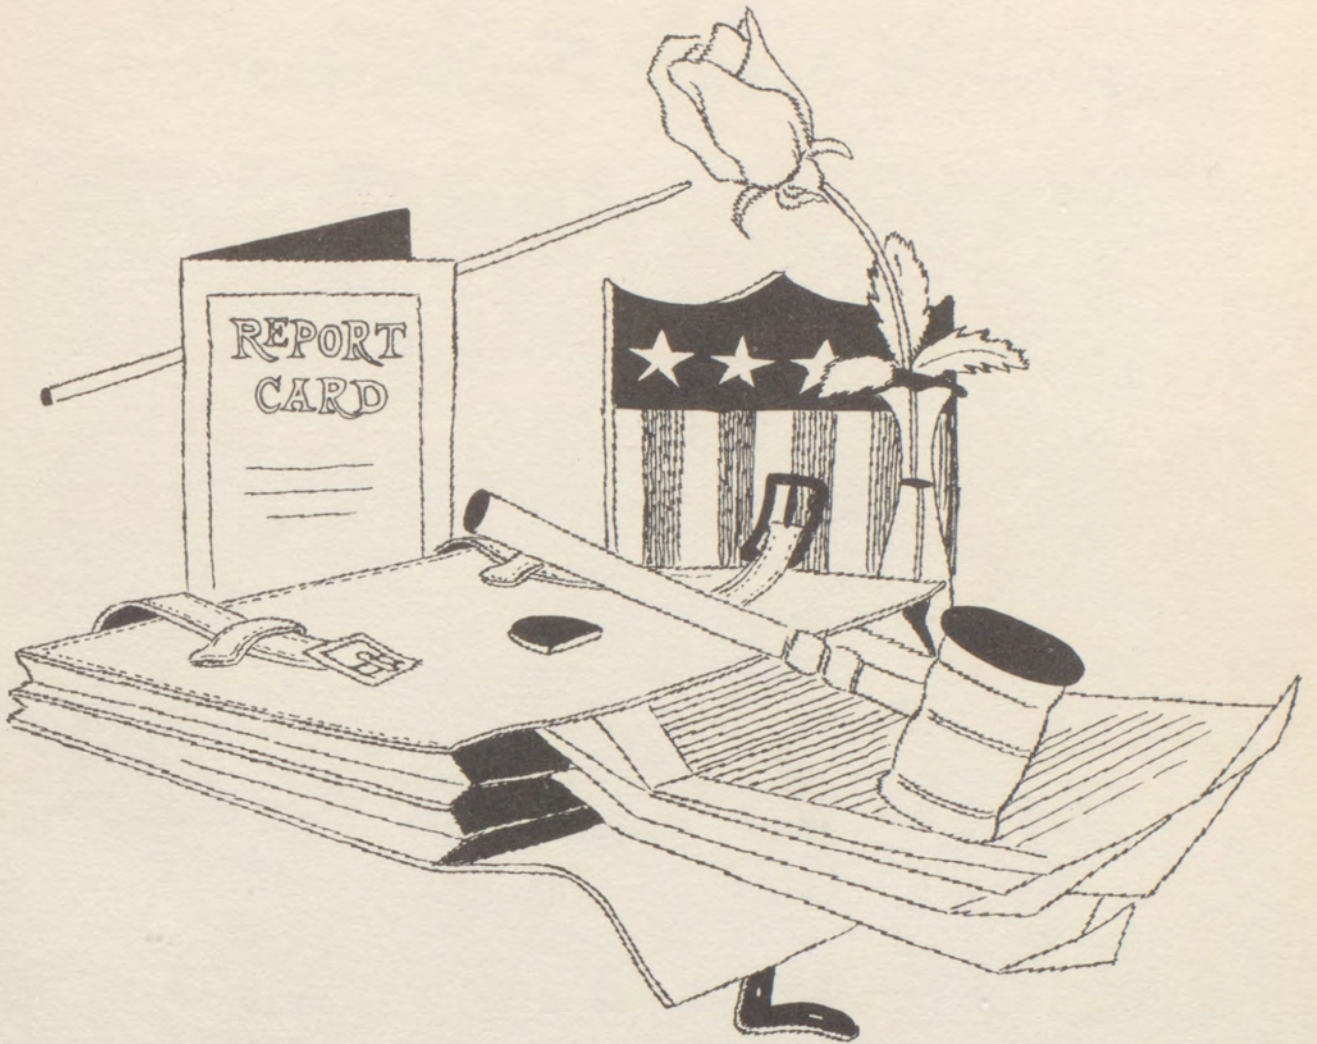

Dedication

We the Class of 1953, proudly dedicate this issue, the Dragon, to our parents and teachers, who have with such patient and unselfish service guided our footsteps in the paths of right and duty, and have led us to higher and nobler achievements.

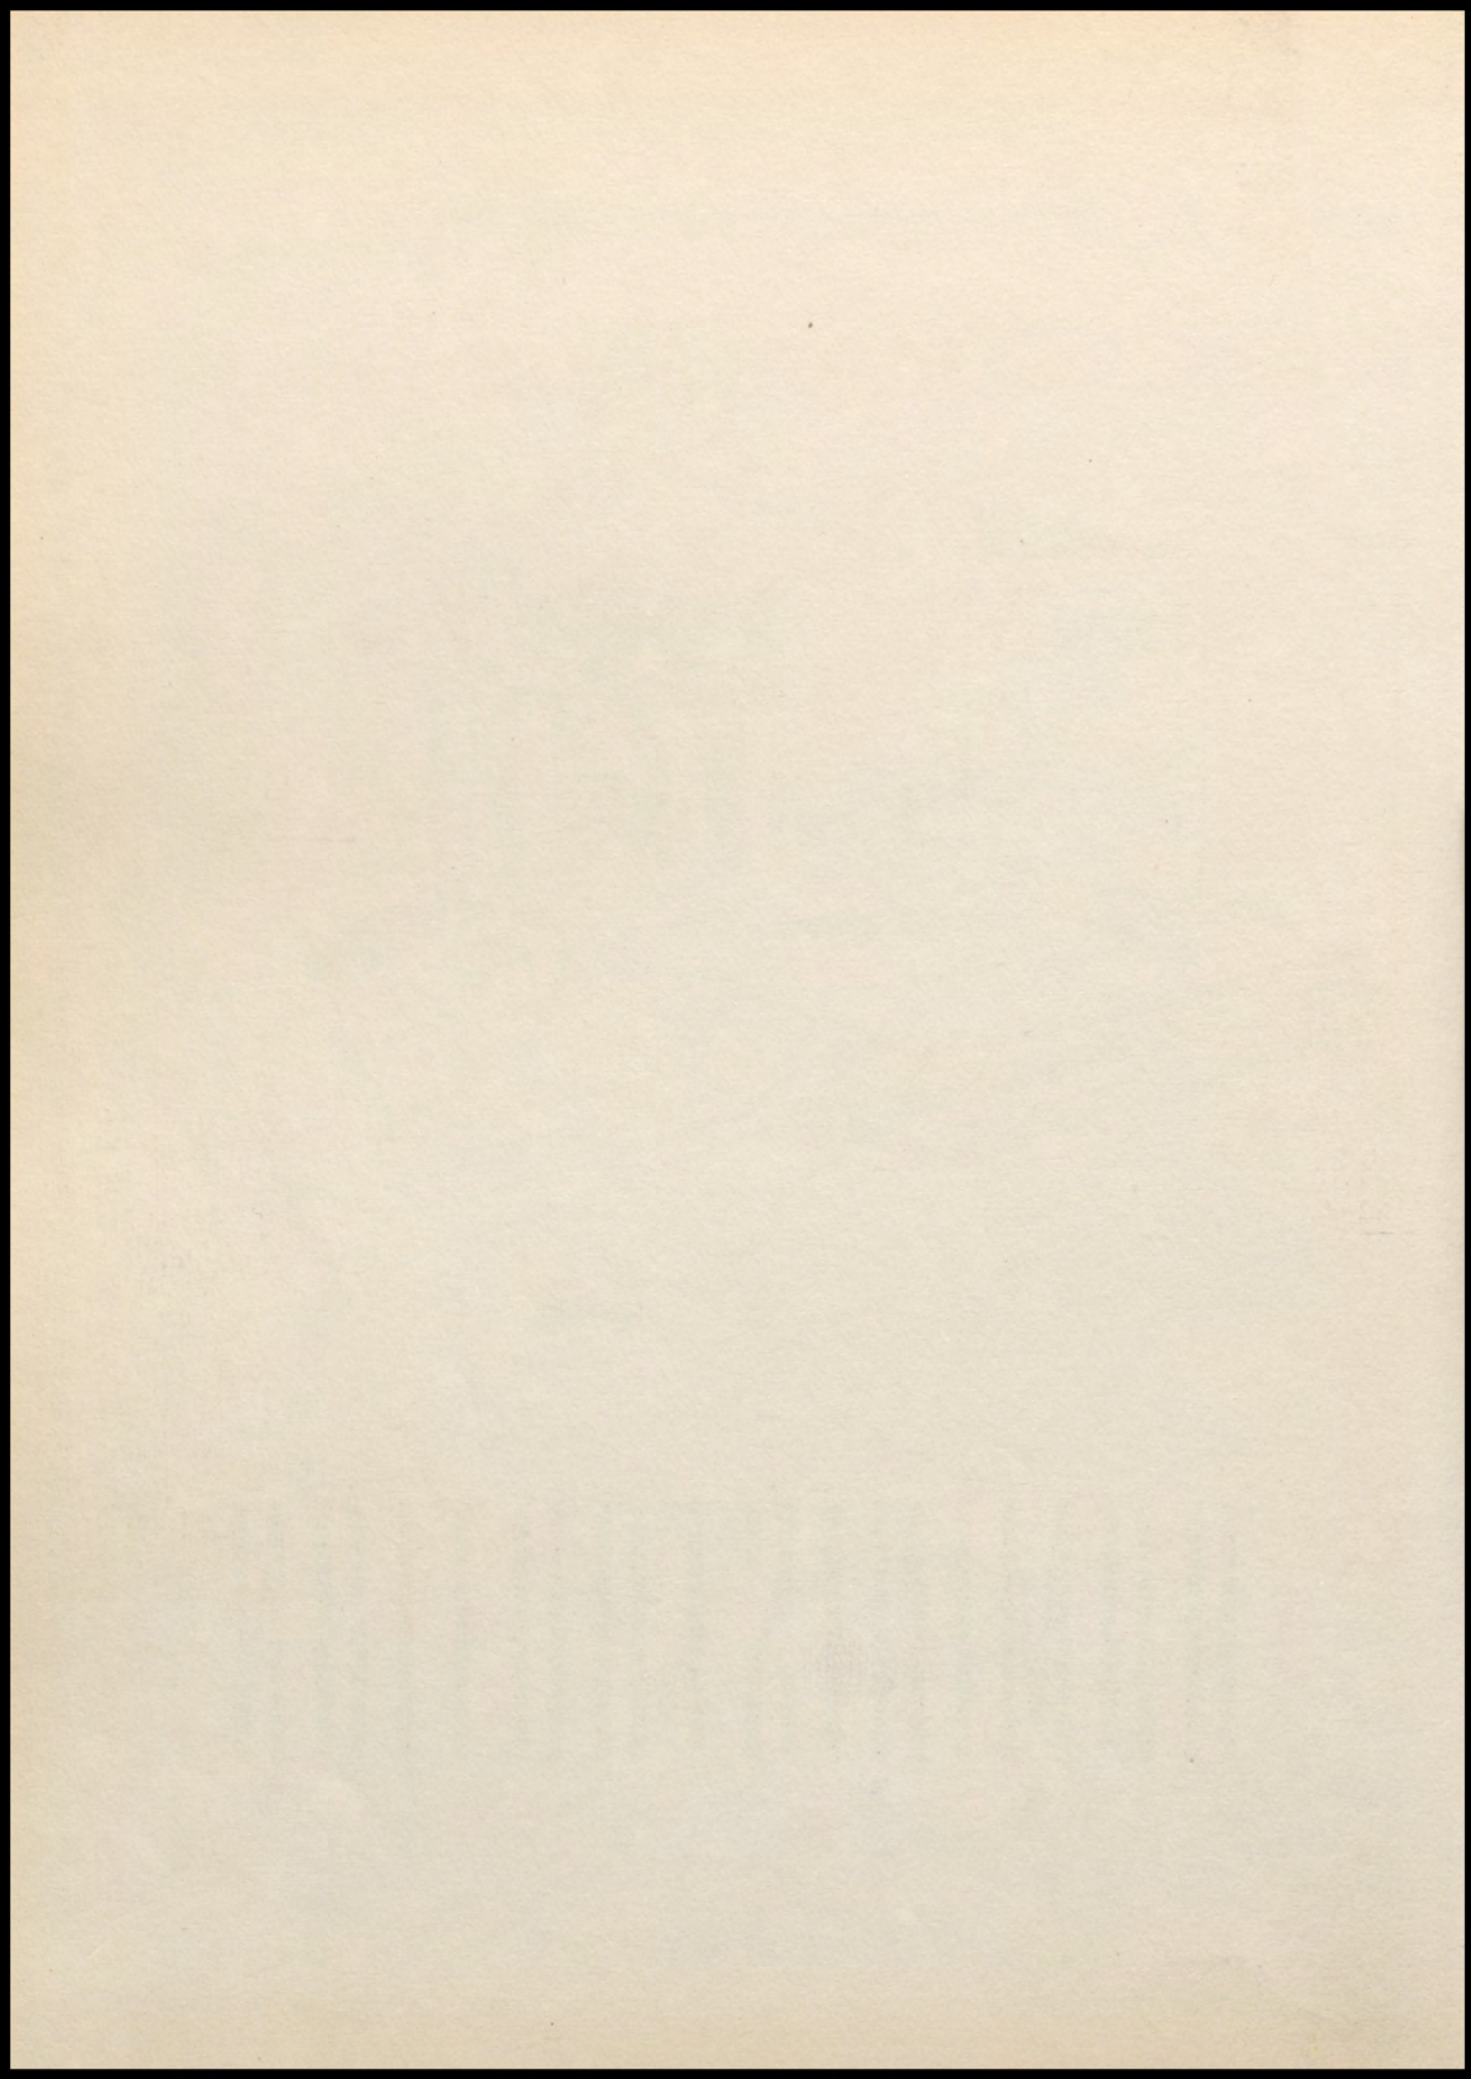

We dedicate this Annual as a token of our sincere gratitude for their untiring efforts, their constant devotion to our every need.

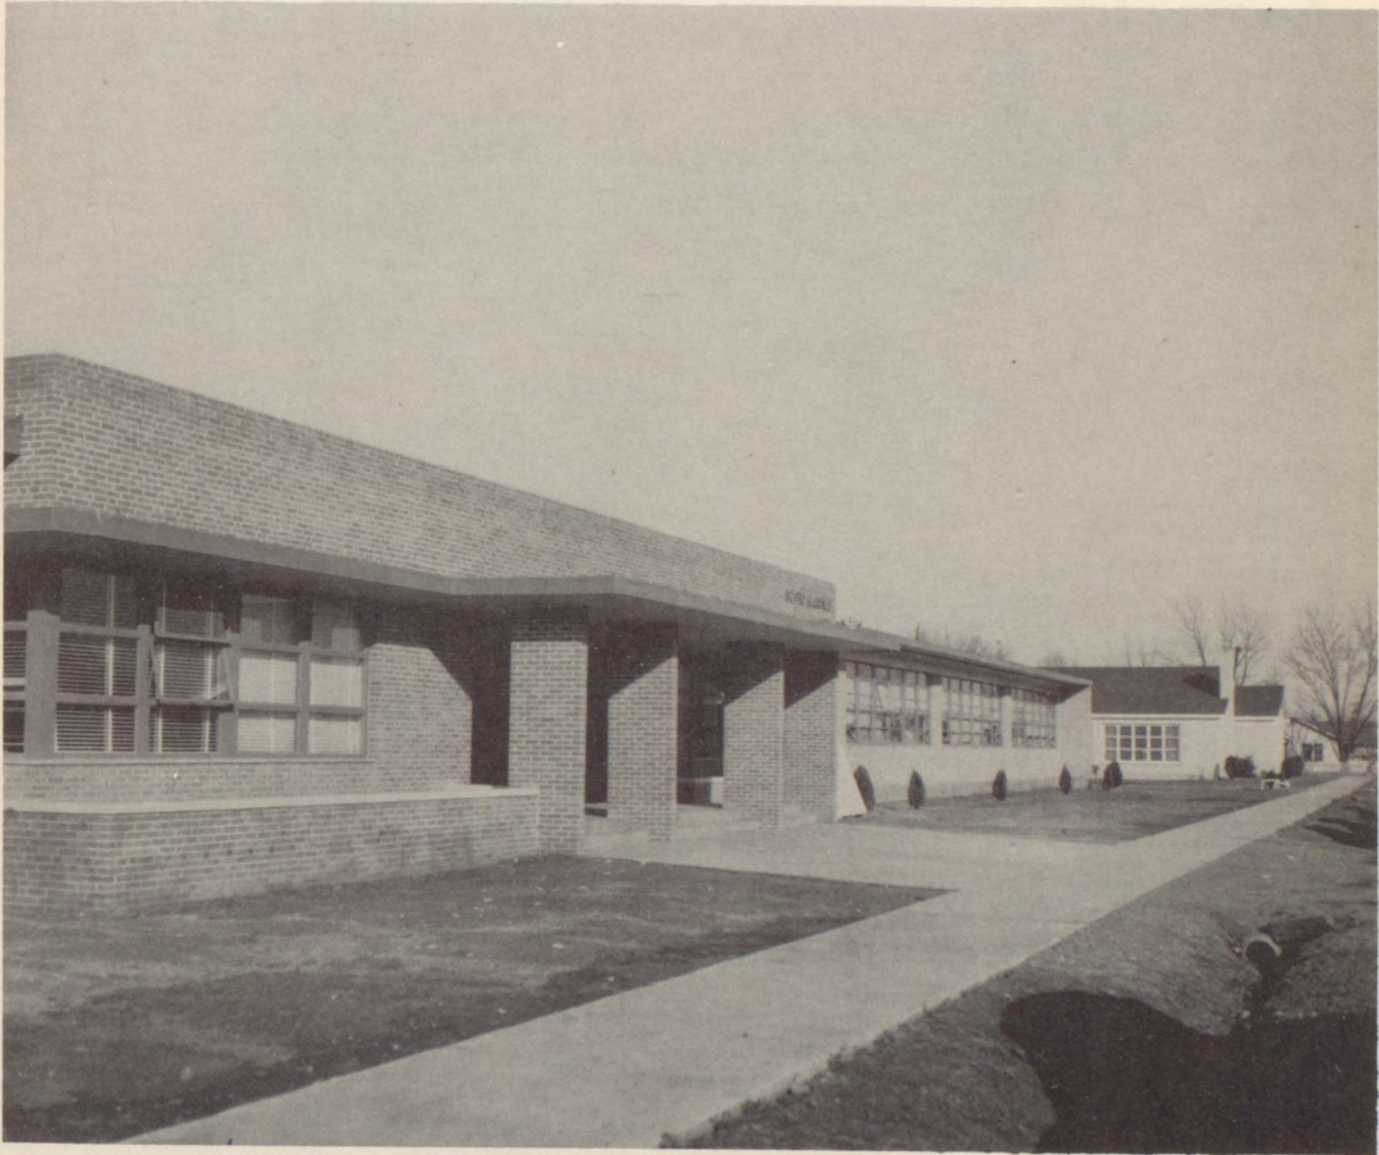

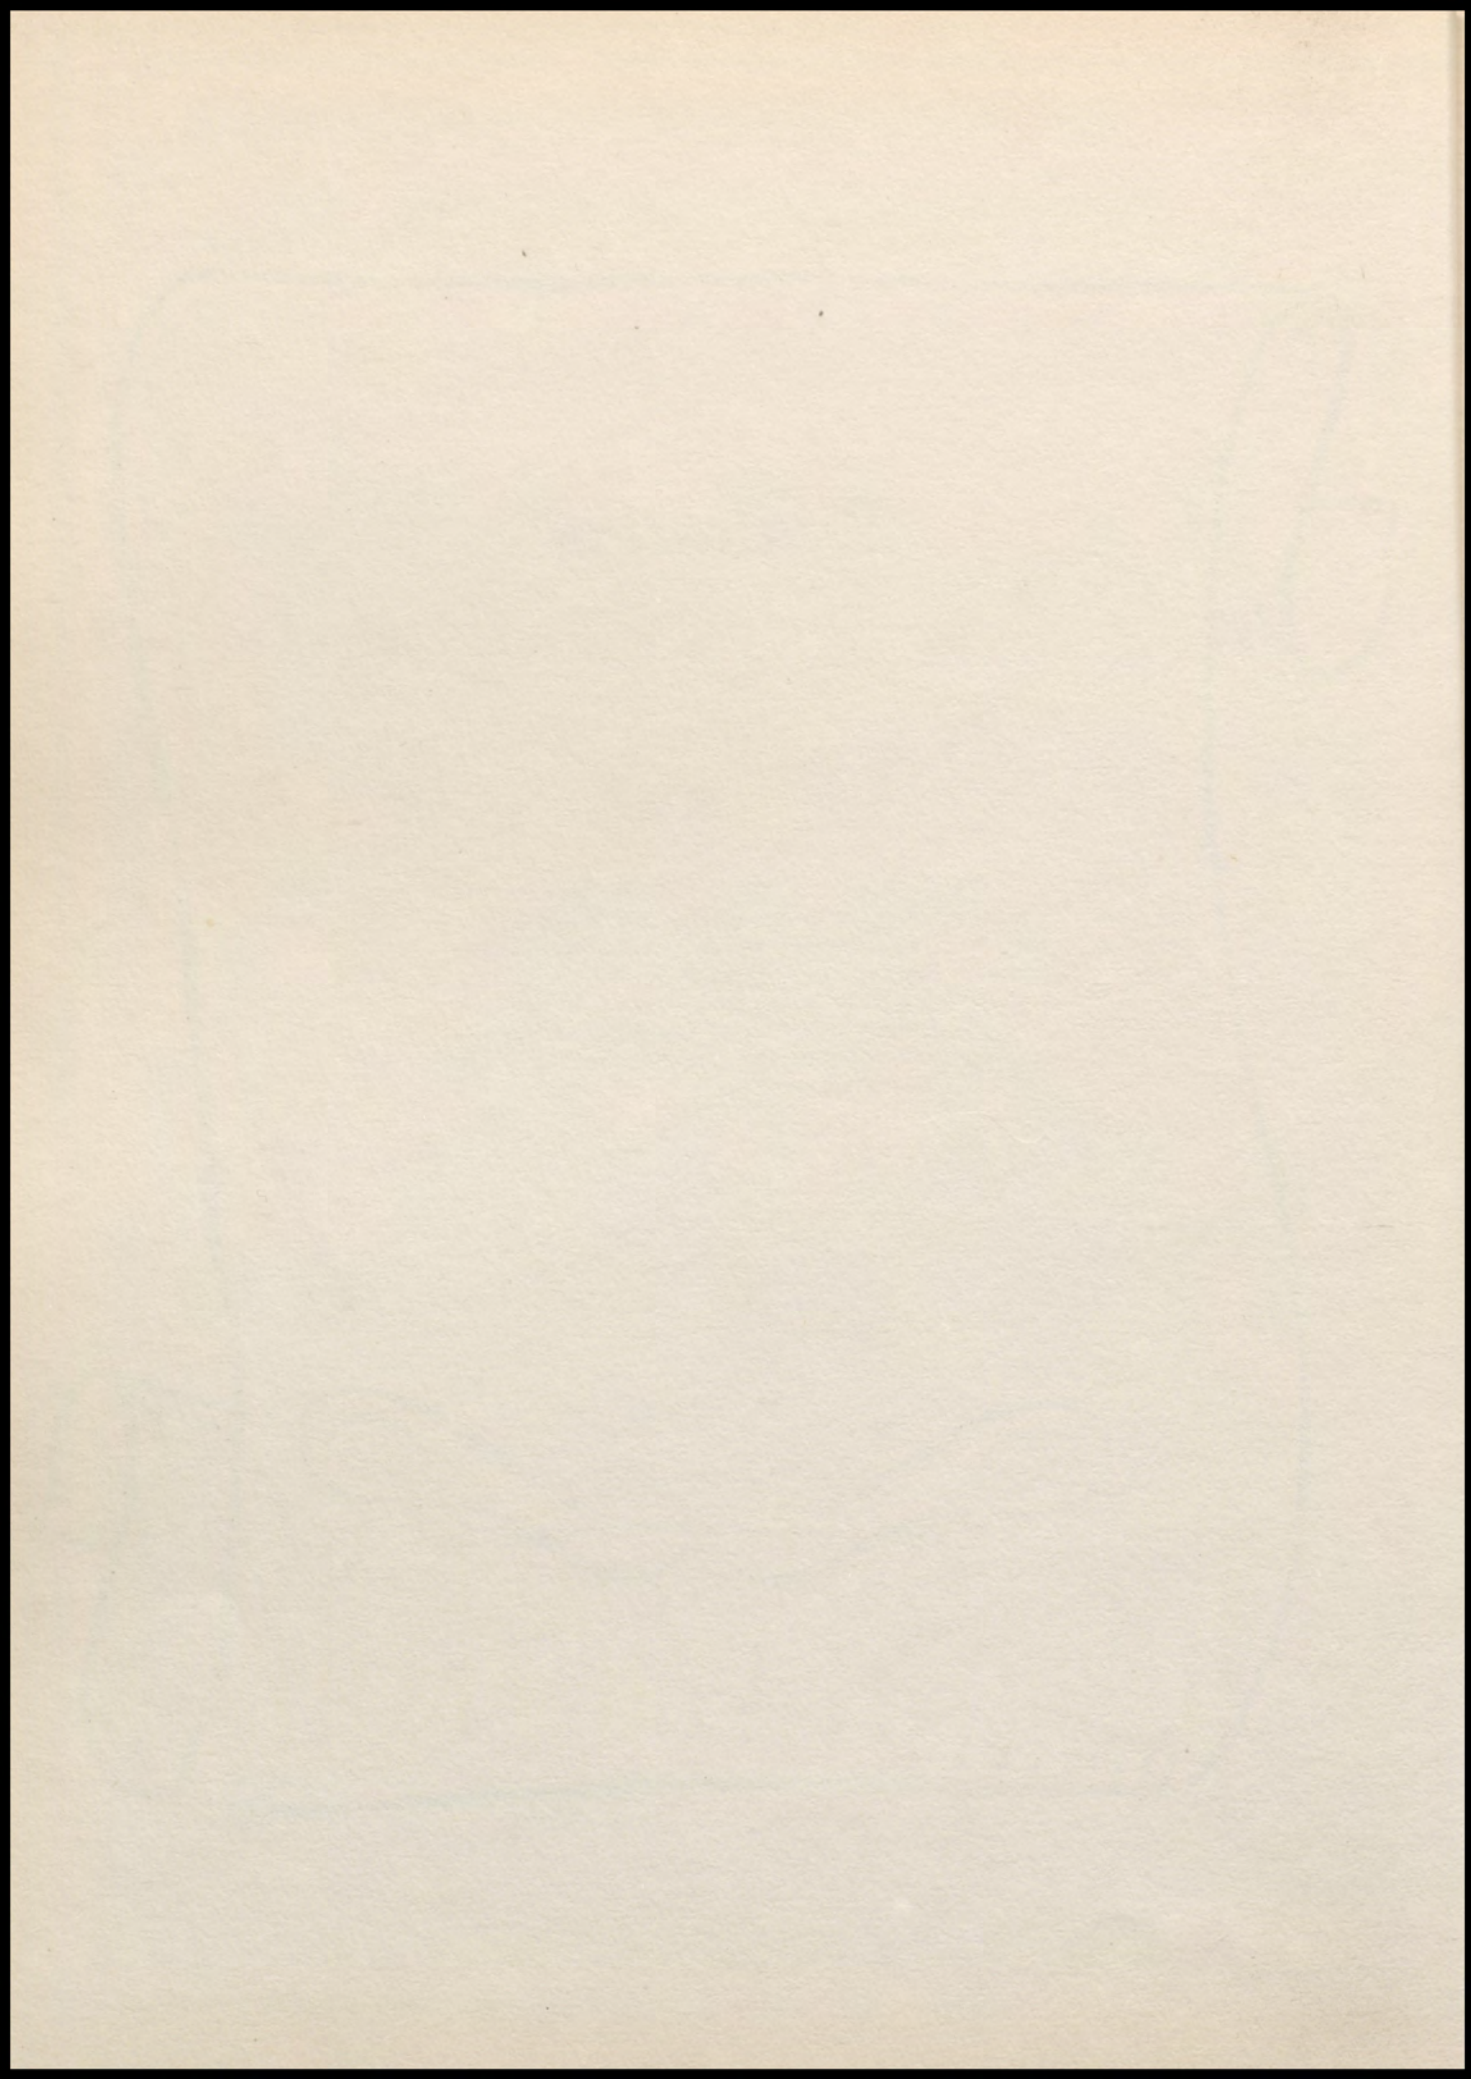

ADMINISTRATION

Senior High School Building

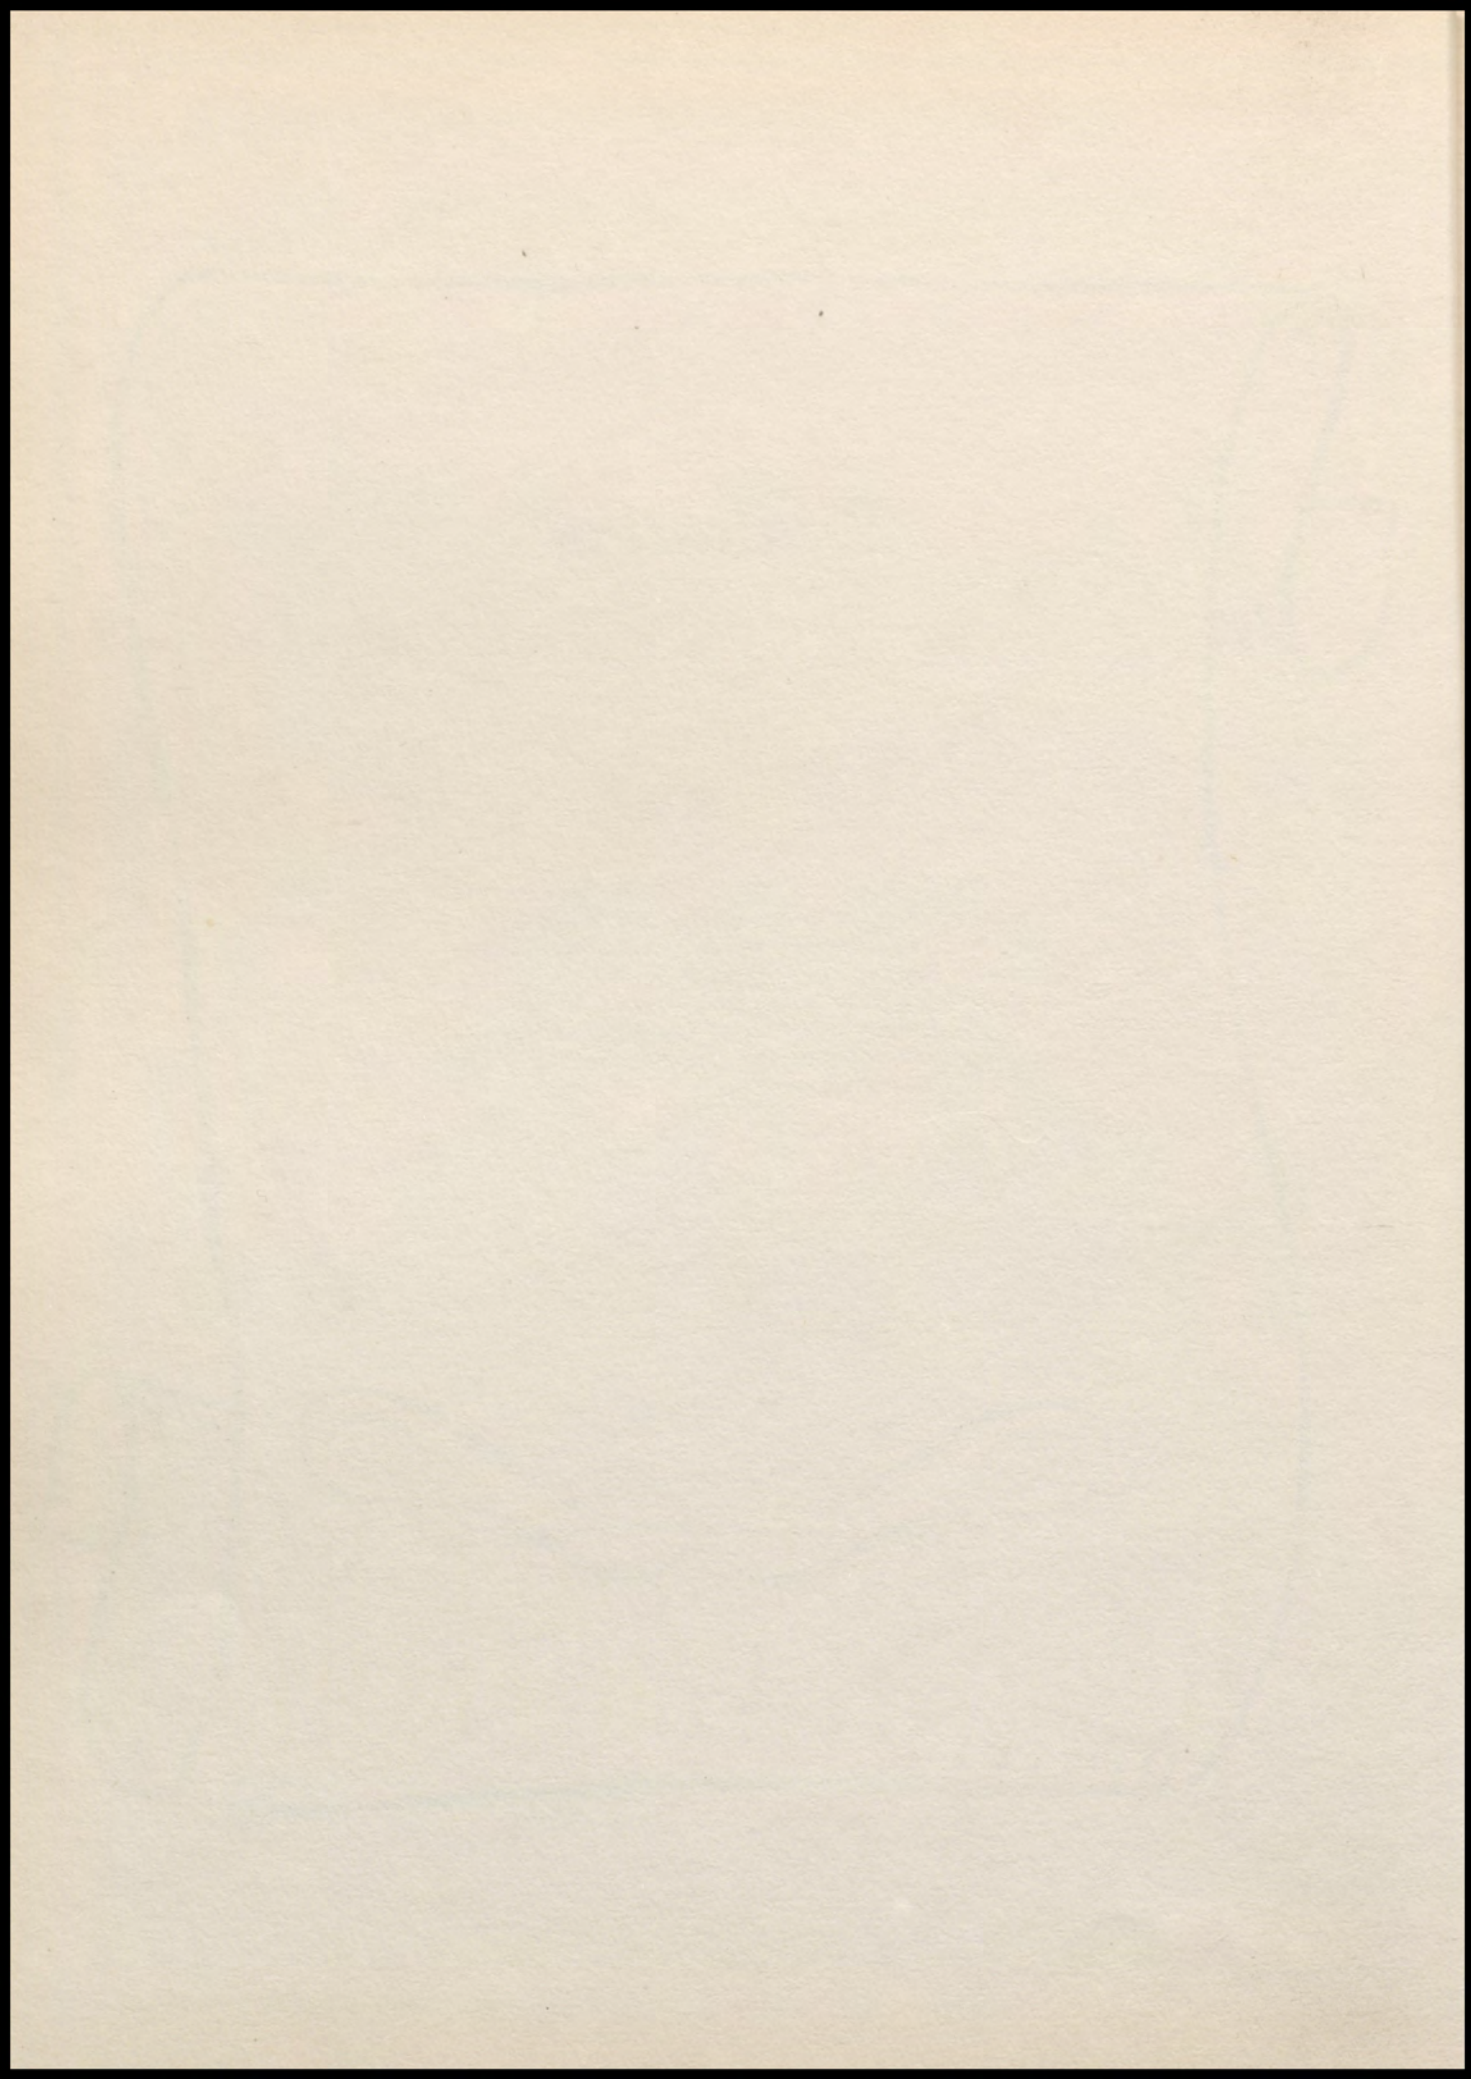

The above picture is showing the front of the new building and a portion of the Home Economics Cottage. The new building comprises two full blocks, with all the modern necessary equipment.

Senior Class Poem

JONES HIGH FOREVER

1953 is here;
Our year is ending;
All of its hope and fear
In Victory Blending;
Yet, as we pass, we say,
Sad as we sever,
"JONES HIGH FOREVER!
JONES HIGH FOREVER!"
Great things are done of us,—
Science, mathematics—
Large victories won of us—
Strong in athletics!
Brave in debate are we,
Won each endeavor!—
JONES HIGH FOREVER!
JONES HIGH FOREVER!
Now, as we leave the halls,
Life's voice inviting,
Loud every student calls,
Fondly uniting,
"Farewell, 1953,
To return never!
FAREWELL FOREVER!
FAREWELL FOREVER!"

School Song

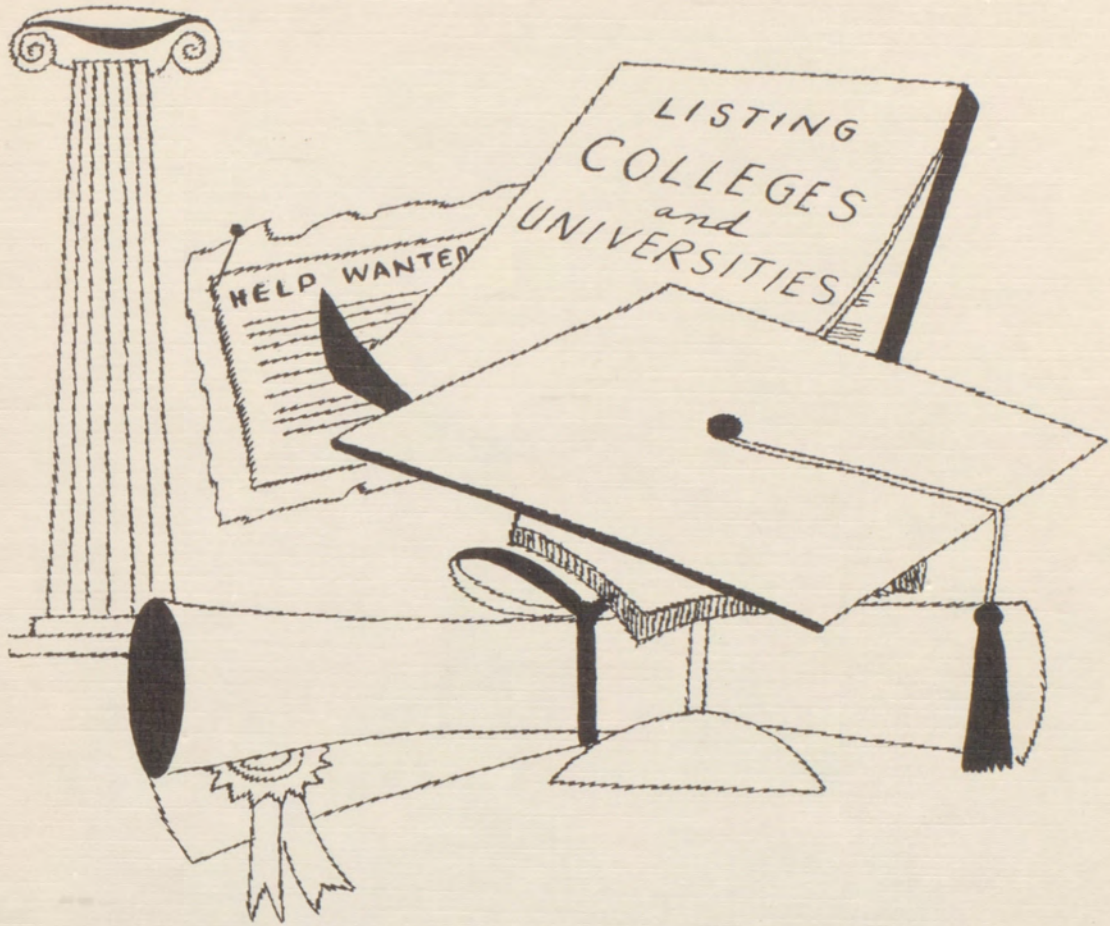

DEAR OLE JONES,
OUR HEARTS FOR YOU ARE TENDER
DEAR OLE JONES,
YOUR LOVE WE WILL REMEMBER
THE DAYS OF WORK AND PLEASURE
ARE MOMENTS WE WILL TREASURE
AS WE GO OUT FROM HERE, ON OUR WAY.

DEAR OLE JONES,
WE THROW OUR ARMS ABOUT YOU
DEAR OLE JONES,
OUR THOUGHTS GROW DULL WITHOUT YOU
WHEREVER WE MAY GO
WHATEVER WE MAY DO
WE'LL BE FOREVER TRUE TO YOU,
DEAR OLE JONES.

Senior Class Prophecy

The year of 1963 brought about a change in the lives of many young people, especially mine, for I was given the opportunity to tour the world at the expense of the Sorority to which I belong. Having been chosen for this magnificent honor, I felt proud and was bubbling over with enthusiasm. I decided to find time to look up all the members of the graduating class of 1953.

On June 1st. of 1963, I boarded a plane at Adam's Field Airport, en route to Pittsburg to visit a friend, R. C. Parker, who is an Engineer there. I thought I was out of my head and suffering from the heights when I saw my pilot and recognized him to be Milton Dunn, an old classmate, who had worked his way into the air.

I was very ill when I reached New York. I decided to go to a Hotel to rest. To my surprise, she was none other than Cornelia Williams.

After arriving in San Pedro, California, I found that four of my classmates owned a chain of Beauty Salons. These persons were Helen Jackson, Aletha Dokes, Otha Lee Veasey and Earnestine Nelson.

Mabel Webb's life ambition was to become a Physician, but this was shattered after she became the wife of George Martin, New York's ace crime reporter. The Martins are the proud parents of twin girls.

Bessie Lee Wade and Jo Ann Gillerson are head of a big Secretarial firm in New York City. Richard Byrd is studying to become a Dentist. Gertrude Farr is a registered Nurse there, and Donnie Williams is coaching at the University of Illinois.

Ruth Helen Parks' knack for interior Decoration has put her right on Fifth Avenue in New York. She is the owner of one of the best shops in the city. In her employ are Norma Parker, Clara McDowell and Catherine Allen.

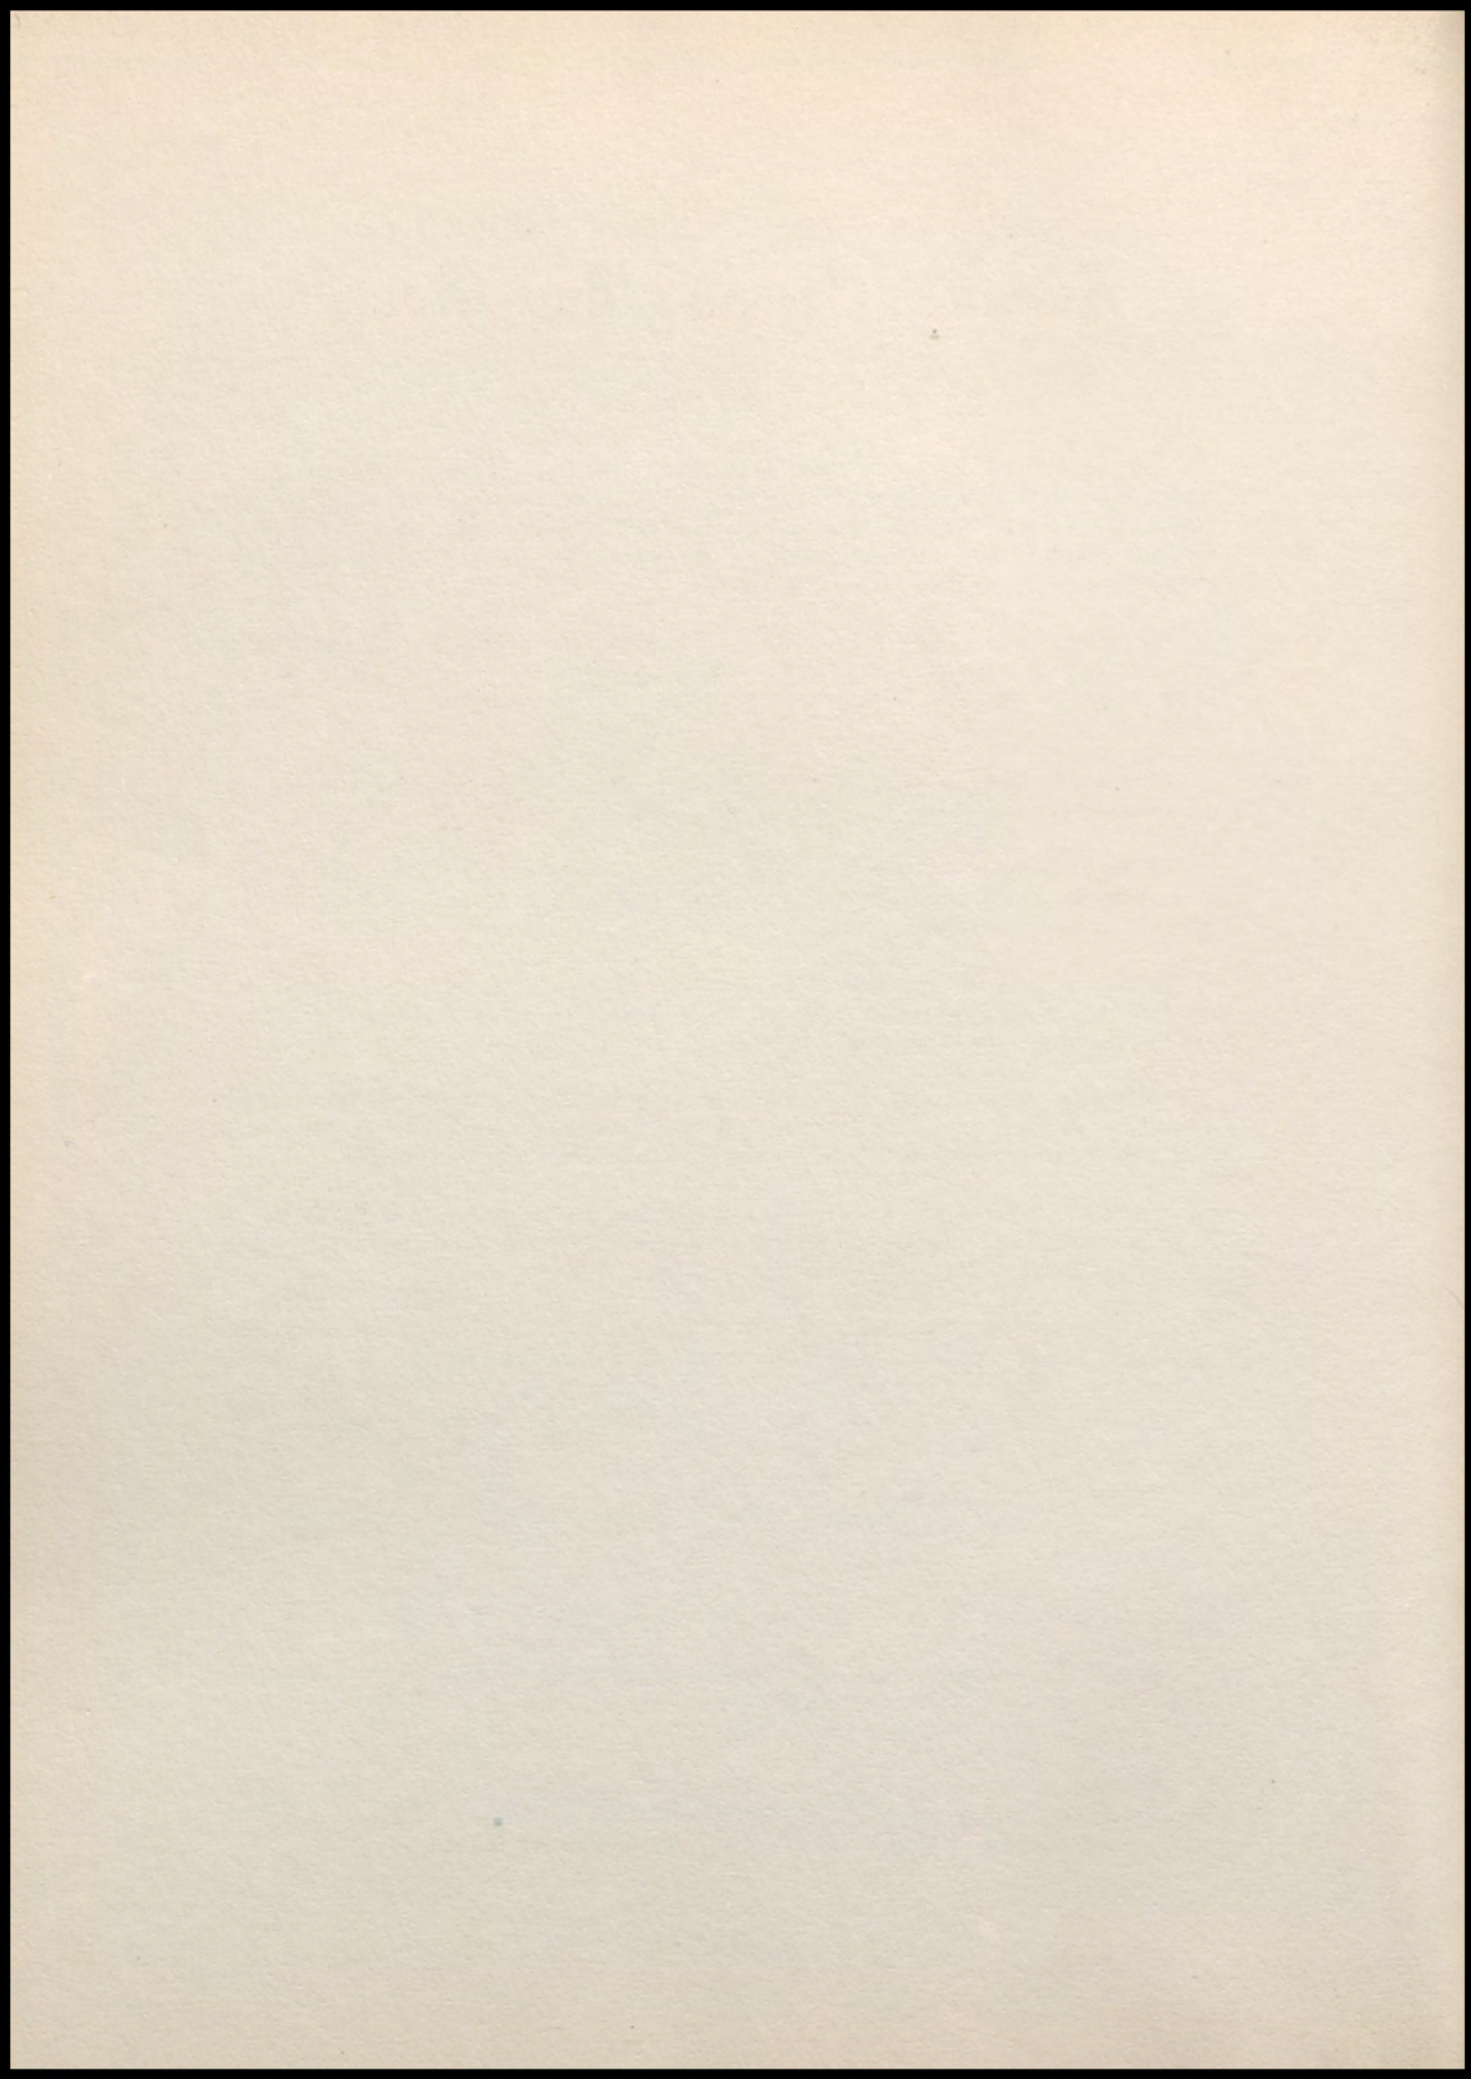

In San Francisco, on the corner of Sherman Boulevard is a dress shop called "Lillian's Heaven", owned and operated by Lillian Adams. The interior of this shop is arranged as a heaven, the ceiling being heavenly Blue, with stars suspended by strings hanging from the top of the ceiling. The furniture is the shape of a quarter moon. This designing and Architecture was done by none other than Curtis Clay.

James White and Leon Hamilton have a Music School. Some of their pupils have been giving recitals at Carnegie Hall. Mr. Hamilton decided against becoming an engineer.

J. T. Perry has his own little Carpentry Business, called "Perry and Sons".

Martha Jones' ambition was to become a nurse, but she is now a famous hair stylist. Her latest creation is called "Gone With The Wind". Eddie Donnell McGary is now head of the Detroit Chemistry Department.

Richard McIntosh has a very modern shoe repair shop in Florida, although his business is not very prosperous. Charlotte White has a tailoring business in Boston. She specializes in Men's work Clothes called, "Harris Forever Ware".

Johnny Greenwood, who excelled in sports, is now Athletic Director at Tennessee State. Earnest Harris's ambition was to become a Mortician and live in California. But I hear that he is resting at the Ruffin and Jarrett home for the mentally ill.

Mary Sims is now doing private secretarial work in Washington, for Vice Pres. Richard Nixon. After Bob Waterfield's retirement from the Los Angeles Rams, this was the perfect opportunity for James Walker. He is a very good friend of the Waterfields and spends most of his spare time at their Beverly Hills Home.

Cathy Meeks wanted to become a nurse, but her figure is so stunning that she has been elected to model for Madam Carrie, of Paris. Daisy Gillerson and Sarah Franklin are head nurses at the Frank W. Smith Jr. Sanitorium of Chicago.

Edward Moffit's famous painting, "The Martha" has been voted the best of all time and will replace the "Mona Lisa" in the New York Art Museum. Martha Thomas is now secretary for the former President of the United States.

Naomi West and Rosetta Clark are the owners of a famous Dress Salon in Paris. Both are speaking French fluently.

Annie Brown, voted most likely to succeed, is now a famous Trapeze Artist with the Ringlin Brothers, Barnum, and Bailey Circus. Delois Cunningham is the new dance partner to Gower Champion since his wife had a serious leg injury. Mabel Collins is working at a downtown five and ten cent store in St. Louis.

Cleo Lindley, Mattie Jones and Bertha Finney are stenographers at Metro Goldwyn Mayer Studio. Theophilus Price, the great lover of today's screen, has just completed his latest picture, "At Rendezvous Point", starring Elaine Stickney.

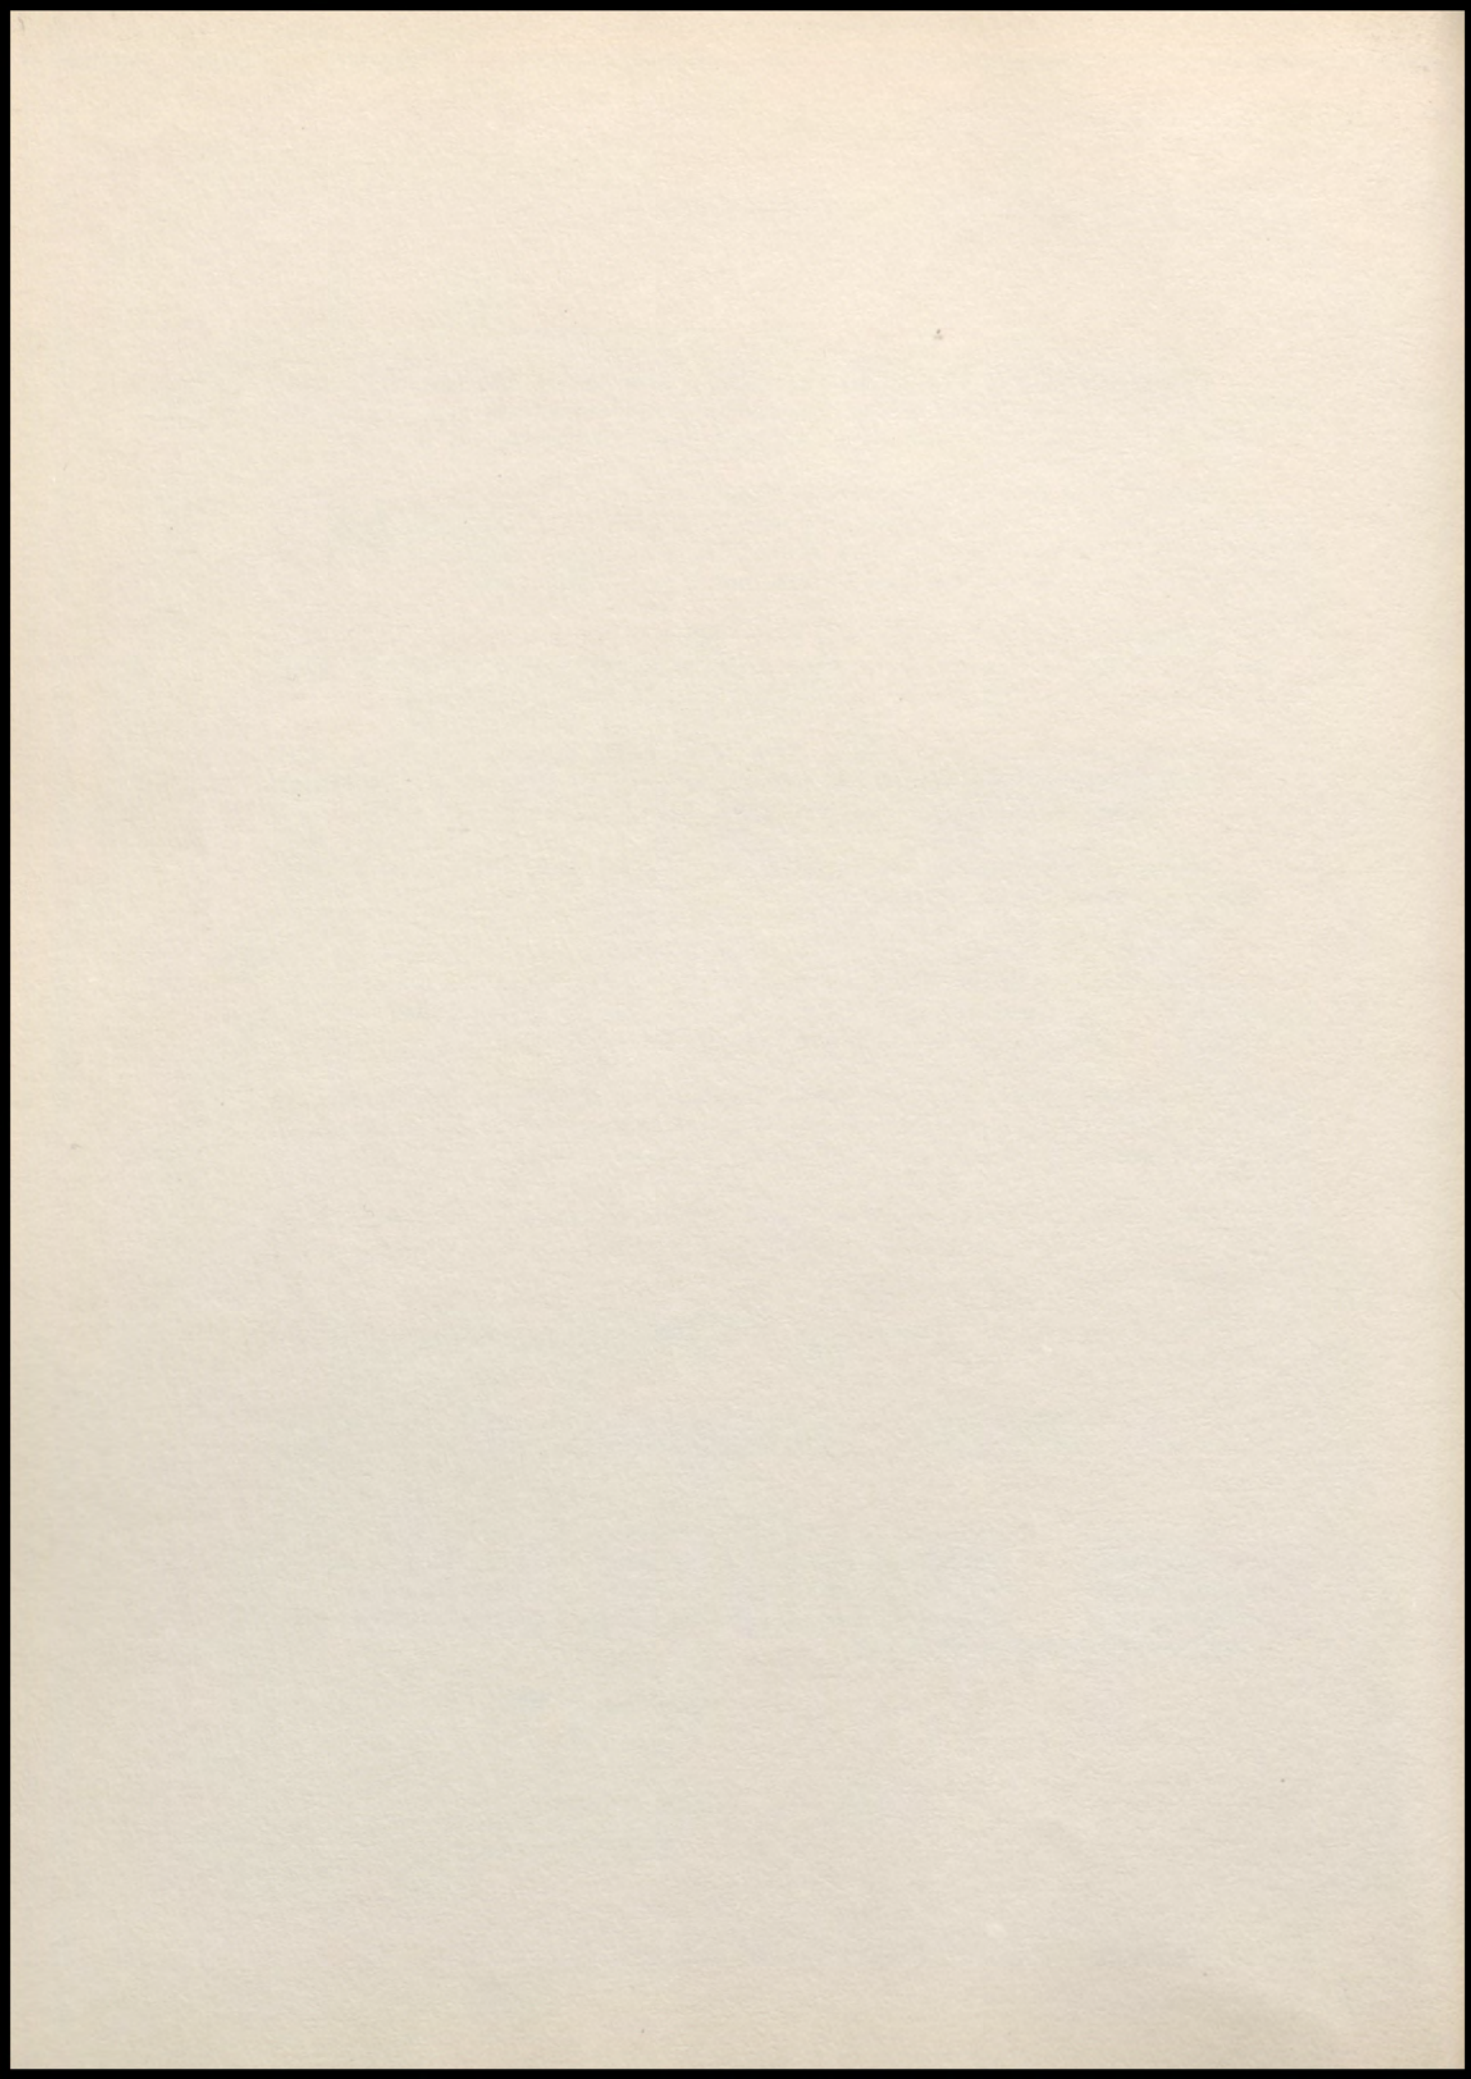

Ruby Morris and Irma Tate are in charge of a day nursery in Los Angeles. Jimmy Lee Price is still fighting in Korea. Vivian Donahue is also overseas, working in the Red Cross Hospital.

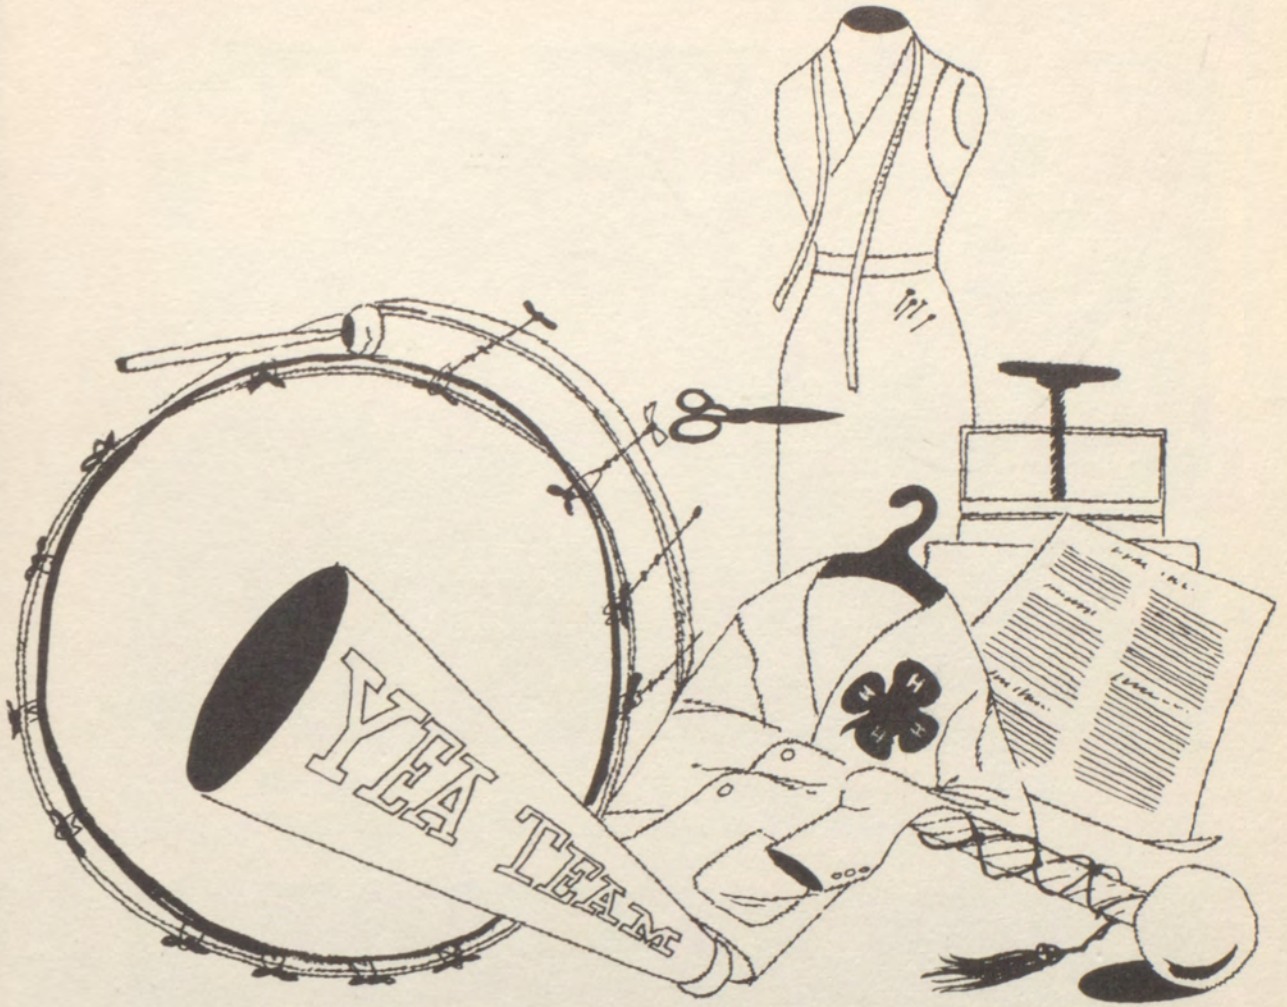

Those in wedlock are Jacquelyn Jones, Alyce Bowers, Dorothy Loring and Bernice Williams.

Glorious Wilson, who was so nonchalant and don't carish, has become a welfare worker and cleaned up all of Chicago's South Side Slum Area. "Hats off to you, Miss Wilson."

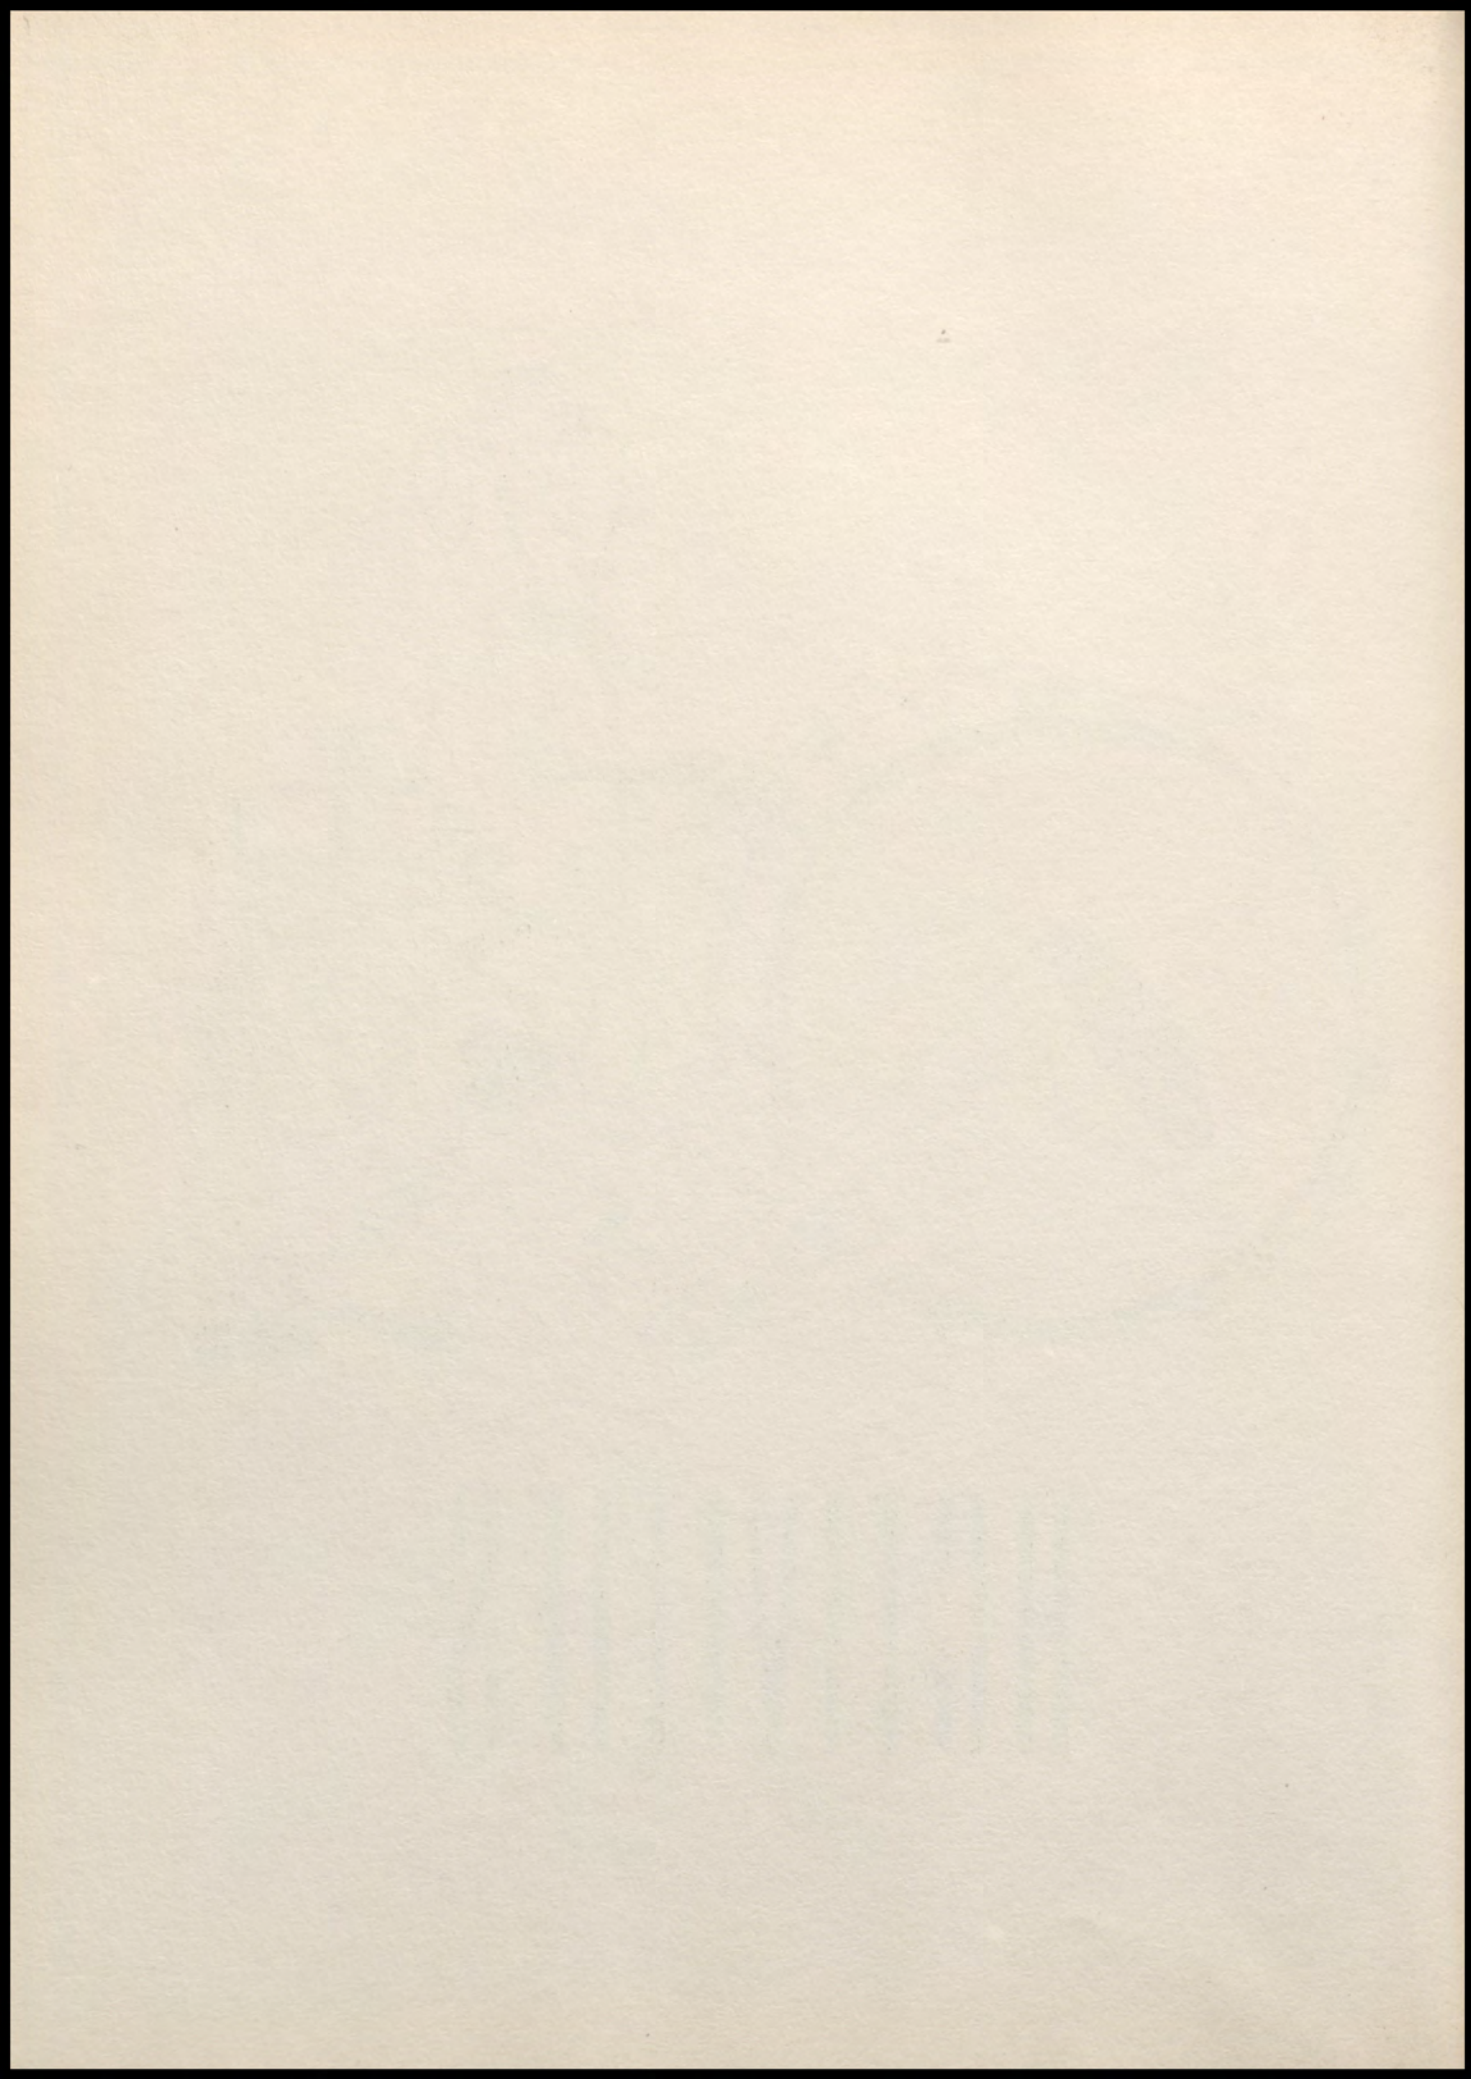

Every one of the graduating class has been accounted for except one person and I was wondering where he could be. I wanted to see him very much. After I arrived back in Little Rock. I visited the Country Club for a tea and a golf game. To my surprise, I saw the last of the Graduates of the class of 1953. Frank Hammond, still caddying at the Club. He had made no change.

By "Bernice Williams."
