VETERANS:

If you believe you may be eligible for veteran's preference consideration, complete this section. The Arkansas Veterans Preference Act states specific requirements which must be met in order to be eligible for veteran's preference. Under certain conditions spouses, widows, or widows of qualified veterans may also be eligible for veteran's preference. For consideration of veterans' preference, proof such as a DD214, current letter from the Veterans Administration or other official document may be required. Specific questions regarding veteran's preference should be addressed to individual state agency personnel offices.
