For those students entering 8th Grade

FICTION SUMMER READING SELECTIONS

The Sisterhood of the Traveling Pants - by Ann Brashares

Over the summer, four friends share a second-hand pair of jeans (which happen to fit each one of them perfectly) and discover happiness, and all the complication of growing up.

Harbor Me - Jacqueline Woodson

It all starts when six kids have to meet for a weekly chat by themselves, with no adults to listen in. There in the room, they discover it's safe to talk about what's bothering them. When the six are together, they can express the feelings and fears they have to hide from the rest of the world. As their connections develop and their words bridge divides, the students realize that sharing their stories could be the very thing they need to give them strength.

Salt to the Sea - Ruth Sepetys

Winter 1945. WWII. Four refugees. Four stories. Each one born of a different homeland; each one hunted, and haunted, by tragedy, lies, war. As thousands desperately flock to the coast in the midst of a Soviet advance, four paths converge, all trying for passage aboard the Wilhelm Gustloff, a ship that promises safety and freedom. But not all promises can be kept. A must read for historical fiction fans.

One of Us is Lying - Karen McManus

Pay close attention and you might solve this. On Monday afternoon, five students at Bayview High walk into detention. Bronwyn, the brain, is Yale-bound and never breaks a rule. Addy, the beauty, is the picture-perfect homecoming princess. Nate, the criminal, is already on probation. Cooper, the athlete, is the all-star baseball pitcher. And Simon, the outcast, is the creator of Bayview High's gossip app. Only, Simon never makes it out of that classroom. Everyone has secrets, right? How far would you go to protect them?

Restart - Gordan Korman

Chase doesn't remember falling off the roof. He doesn't remember hitting his head. He doesn't remember anything. He wakes up in a hospital room and suddenly has to learn his whole life all over again, starting with his own name. He knows he's Chase, but who is Chase? When he gets back to school, he sees that different kids have very different reactions to his return. This story is one of a kid with a messy past who has to figure out what it means to get a clean start.

Alice in Wonderland - Lewis Carroll

A little girl falls down a rabbit hole and discovers a world of nonsensical and amusing characters. This beloved novel has inspired countless television and movie productions. For the original story, characters, and magic, Lewis Carroll's popular tale is a must-read for all readers - it is nothing like the movie.

The Lord of the Rings series - J.R.R. Tolkien

A three-volume epic adventure set in the fantasy world of the Third Age of Middle-earth, a world inhabited by Hobbits, Elves, Dwarves, and Humans. Follow Frodo, as he and the Fellowship, attempt to defeat the Dark Lord, Saruman.

The Outsiders - S.E. Hinton
